COPYRIGHT TRIBUNAL

Notice is hereby given of a reference to the Copyright Tribunal under section 118 of the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 by the British Phonographic Industry Limited of Riverside Building, County Hall, Westminster Bridge Road, London SE1 7JA ("the Applicant").

A dispute has arisen between the applicant and the Mechanical-Copyright Protection Society (MCPS) of 29-33 Berners Street, London W1T 3AB ("the Respondent"). The Applicant is a record industry trade association representing a variety of different manufacturers, producers and sellers of audio and audiovisual recordings of music and other data, which requires a licence for the reproductive copying of musical works for defined product released in the format known as "DVD video". MCPS grant licences under an existing scheme, or in the alternative, may grant licences under a proposed scheme. The Applicant has referred the scheme, or in the alternative, the proposed scheme to the Copyright Tribunal, as an unreasonable scheme, and in particular the very substantial and unjustified proposed increase in licensing fees compared with the current scheme which provides an appropriate basis of comparison for the purpose of licensing repertoire works on discs in the format to which the Respondent has proposed to apply the new scheme. Any organisation or person wishing to object to the Applicant's credentials or wishing to be made a party to the proceedings should apply to the undersigned in the manner prescribed by the Copyright Tribunal Rules 1989, not later than 15 August 2003.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

PUBLIC PROCUREMENT

On the basis of its accounts, forecasts and other financial information, the University of Oxford has calculated that less than half of its income for the budgetary year 1 August 2003 to 31 July 2004 will be public funding derived from public sources. Consequently the University of Oxford will not be a "contracting authority" for the purposes of the European Council Public Procurement Directives during that budgetary year. Procurement contracts awarded during the year will not therefore fall within the scope of the Directives.
