The principal amendments to the Transport of Animals (Cleansing and Disinfection) (England) Order 2003 contained in this Order are:
The simplification of the requirements contained in paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 for the cleansing and disinfection of means of transport used exclusively in the course of a single day for the transport of animals between the same two points; and
The amendment of paragraphs 3 and 4 of Schedule 1 to provide that either of the exemptions contained in those paragraphs from the cleansing and disinfection requirements of article 3 may apply to the means of transport used to transport animals to and from a livestock show, depending on the circumstance.
This Order specifies that, after the transport of any hoofed animals, and domestic fowls, turkeys, geese, ducks, guinea-fowls, quails, pigeons, pheasants, partridges and ratites, the means of transport and equipment carried with it must be cleaned and disinfected in accordance with Schedule 2 as soon as reasonably practicable, but in any event within not more of 24 hours (article 3(3)). Before a journey transporting any of these animals, it requires a means of transport to have been cleansed and disinfected since it was last used to transport any of these animals (article 3(4)). It also specifies that, even if this has been done, if the means of transport becomes soiled so as to cause a risk of transmission of disease since last being cleansed and disinfected, the soiled parts must be cleansed and disinfected again before such animals are transported (article 3(5)). It requires any person transporting such animals to remove dead animals, litter and excreta from the means of transport as soon as practicable (article 3(6)).
Article 4 applies to all the other animals (but not to non-commercial journeys or to the transport of single animals or pets) and to the circumstances set out in Schedule 1 (where article 3 would otherwise apply). These circumstances relate to journeys on a single enterprise, transport of certain horses, journeys between the same two points and means of transport at a livestock show. Article 4 requires that the animals to which it applies are loaded on to a means of transport which has been cleansed and, if necessary, disinfected, and that dead animals, litter and excreta are removed from the means of transport as soon as practicable.
Article 6 specifies how the material removed from the means of transport must be disposed of.
Under article 7, an inspector is empowered, in the circumstances set out in that article, to serve a notice requiring a means of transport to be cleansed and disinfected.
The Order is enforced by the local authority or the Secretary of State (article 8).
Breach of the Order is an offence under section 73 of the Animal Health Act 1981 punishable in accordance with section 75 of that Act.
A regulatory impact assessment has not been prepared for this Order. (1009)

It specifies that an animal gathering can only take place 27 days after the last animal left those premises and equipment on the premises has been cleaned of visible contamination (article 5). If the gathering takes place in paved premises article 6 makes provision for the cleansing and disinfection of those premises and enables a gathering to take place inside the normal time limits. It imposes duties on persons attending an animal gathering (article 8 and the Schedule). It imposes restrictions following an animal gathering (article 9).

MISSING BENEFICIARIES

We act on behalf of Mrs Mildred Price and Mr Malcolm Warren Jenkins, who are the Administrators of the estate of the late Llewelyn Jenkins, who resided at 7 Ewloe Place, Liverpool Road, Buckley, Flintshire CH7 3NJ, and who died on 19 December 2002 intestate. We are trying to locate the children of the deceased's elder brother, whose name was Albert Jenkins (now deceased), namely Roy and Maureen Jenkins. Obviously, there is a possibility that Maureen Jenkins has married and now has a different surname. We are aware that Roy Jenkins lived in the Wrexham area approximately 20 years ago but nobody knows his present location. Maureen Jenkins, we understand, lives around the Saltney area of Chester but, again, nobody know anything further about her.
