And whereas it hath been signified to Us by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, That His Majesty hath received an Account, that the said James Butler late Duke of Ormond, after a short Stay at Madrid, did imbarck from Spain, with Intent to Land in this Kingdom, in order to excite a Rebellion therein.

And whereas it is reasonable to believe, That the said James Butler late Duke of Ormond is actually Landed, or will soon attempt to Land in this Kingdom.

God save the KING.

Hague, Jan. 31. This Morning the States General came to a Resolution to enter into the Quadruple Alliance, without any Debate; and the necessary Orders for signing the Treaty at London, will be sent to M. van Borsele without Delay. This Morning the Marquess de Beretti Landi notified to M. Nordwyck, the President for the Week of the Assembly of the States General, that he had Orders to declare to their High Mightinesses, in the Name of the King his Master, that if the Prince of Cellamare had engaged in any Conspiracy for exciting a Rebellion in France, as was laid to his Charge, it was absolutely without his Catholick Majesty's Knowledge, and without any Instructions from him. After the Letters of that Prince and of Cardinal Alberoni which have been intercepted, and the Manifesto lately published in the King of Spain's Name, such a Declaration roni, lately communicated by the same Marquess to their High Mightinesses, protesting that the Court of Madrid knew nothing of the late Duke of Ormond's coming into Spain till he was arrived in that Kingdom; and declaring that his Catholick Majesty had ordered him to keep at 40 Leagues Distance from his Court; when by an intercepted Letter from that Cardinal to the Prince de Cellamare, it is known the said late Duke was invited to Madrid, in order to be employed in an Enterprize; is also treated here with the Regard due to such extraordinary Proceedings. The States have nominated M. de Bye, who was lately recalled from Muscovy, to go to Stockholm, but without any Character, and he sets out to Morrow. Letters from Gottenbourg of the 16th Instant give an Account, that the Princess Ulrica-Eleanora had been proclaimed Queen of Sweden; and that a Proclamation had been published in her Name dated the 15th of December, ordering a General Assembly of the States of the Kingdom to meet on the 20th of January, O. S. and sitting forth, That her Majesty had taken Possession of the Throne, which on the Death of her Brother the late King, became her's by Right of Inheritance:

 That in the Administration of the Government, she had firmly determined, out of Regard to the Welfare and Prosperity of the Kingdom, to reform all Innovations, and entirely to abolish absolute and despo-tick Power, which by this Proclamation she declares she renounces for ever for her self and Successors; and that she will re-establish the Government in that ancient Form it happily enjoyed in former Times. Some Advices say the Duke of Holstein attempting to retire to the Czar, had been stopped, and put under Confinement at Stockholm. We have Advice from Berlin, that the Queen of Prussia is brought to bed of a Princess.
