SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT
CORONERS DISTRICTS IN CUMBRIA AND BERKSHIRE

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State for the Home Department has made an Order under section 4(2) of the Coroners Act 1988 for the alteration of the existing divisions of the County of Cumbria by the amalgamation of Furness and Southern districts. The new district will be known as the South Cumbria and Furness Coroner's District. The County of Cumbria was divided into four coroners' districts by the Cumbria (Coroners' Districts) Order 1974. This Order replaces the two coroners' districts of Southern and Furness with the new coroner's district of South Cumbria and Furness (as set out in the Schedule to this Order). The Schedule also sets out the two remaining coroners' districts into which the County of Cumbria is now divided.

Notice is also given that the Secretary of State for the Home Department has made an Order under section 4(1) of the Coroners Act 1988 for the alteration of the existing divisions of the County of Berkshire by the amalgamation of West Berkshire, Reading, and East Berkshire. The new district will be known as the Berkshire coroner's district.

The council of the County of Berkshire was abolished by Article 2 of the Berkshire (Structural Change) Order 1996 (SI 1996/1879). However, by virtue of Article 2 of the Berkshire (Coroners) Order 1998, the three existing coroners' districts within that county continued in existence. This Order amalgamates those three districts into one coroner's district to be known as the Berkshire coroner's district. Article 3 provides for the council of the Borough of Reading to be the relevant council for the purposes of appointing the coroner under section 1 of the 1988 Act. Both Orders came [will come] into force on 1 April and copies can be obtained from the Home Office, Coroners and Burials Team, 5th Floor, Allington Towers, 19 Allington Street, London SW1E 5EB. (535) (536). (1002)
