

- Dr. Phillip Andrew LEECH, Principal Medical Officer for Primary Care, Department of Health.
- David Graham LENDON, Chair, Lincolnshire Business Education Trust. For services to Education.
- David Ross LESLIE, Service Development Manager, City of Edinburgh Council. For services to Local Government.
- Dorothy Eva, Mrs. LEVY, lately Educational Consultant, Attention Deficit Disorders Information Services. For services to Special Needs Education.
- Dennis LICENCE, Managing Director, First Trust Bank. For services to Banking and to the community in Northern Ireland.
- Miss Ceinwen Susan Jane LLOYD, Branch Manager (Births and Deaths). General Register Office, Southport, Office for National Statistics.
- Thomas Paul LLOYD, Grade 7, Disability and Carers Service, Department for Work and Pensions.
- Ralph David LUCK, Director, English Partnerships. For services to Urban Regeneration.
- Jacqueline Elizabeth, Mrs. LYTHELL, Alderman, Brighton and Hove City Council. For services to the community in Brighton and Hove.
- Gavin Anderson MACKAY, M.B.E., Grade 7, Prime Minister's Office,
- Andrew MAKEPEACE, Project Sponsor, Parliamentary Estates Directorate, House of Commons.
- Dr. Michael MALONEY, Freelance Photographer. For services to Photojournalism.
- John MALYNN, Team Leader, School Inspection and OFSTED Corporate Relations Unit, Local Authority Performance Division, Department for Education and Skills.
- Professor Gerald MANNERS, Chair, Association of Charitable Foundations. For charitable services.
- Wendy Rita, Mrs. MARRABLE, lately Special Investigation Section Team Leader, Inland Revenue.
- Brian Peter MARSH. For services to Business and to the Marsh Christian Trust in London.
- John MARSHALL, Consultant, Marshall Construction. For services to the Construction Industry and to the community in Clackmannanshire.
- Simon MCBURNEY, Actor and Artistic Director, Théâtre de Complicité. For services to Drama.
- Dr. Norman Keith Ian MCIVER. For services to Diving Safety.
- Sheila Mary, Mrs. MCKINLEY, Head, Producer Responsibility Unit, Waste Management Division, Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs.
- James Malcolm MCMANNERS, Headteacher, Cassop Primary School, Durham. For services to Education.
- Roger James MERCER, lately Secretary, Royal Commission on Ancient and Historical Monuments of Scotland. For services to Archaeology.
- Professor Victor Thomas Charles MIDDLETON. For services to Tourism.
- William Ian MITCHELL. For services to Housing in Scotland.
- Dr. Peter Douglas MOLYNEUX, Chief Executive Officer, Lionhead Studios. For services to the Computer Video Games Industry.
- Colin Stuart MONTGOMERIE, M.B.E. For services to Golf.
- The Right Reverend Alan Wyndham MORGAN. For services to the community in Nottinghamshire.
- Philip Jonathan Clifford MOULD, Honorary Arts Adviser to the Houses of Parliament.
- Professor Charles William MUNN, Chief Executive, Chartered Institute of Bankers in Scotland. For services to Banking.
- Dr. Wadi Yusuf NASSAR. For services to Community Relations in Manchester.
- Peter Andrew NICHOLSON, Head, Newham Youth Offending Services. For services to Youth and Community Justice, London.
- Derek NORCROSS, D.L. For services to the community in East Sussex.
- Michael Anthony O'CONNOR, Grade B2, Ministry of Defence.
- Yvonne Margaret, Mrs. OSMAN, Member, Scottish Legal Aid Board. For services to the Administration of Justice.
- Geoffrey PALMER, Actor. For services to Drama.
- Dr. Syed Abdul-Aziz PASHA, Founder, Union of Muslim Organisations. For services to Race Relations.
- Dr. John Gordon PATERSON, Deputy Chair, UK Screening Committee. For services to Cancer Screening.
- Frederick Charles Anthony PAYNE, lately General Manager, Ordnance Survey, Office of the Deputy Prime Minister.
- David Lee PEARSON, M.B.E.. For services to Equestrianism and to Disabled Sport.
- Anthony William Dunn PEXTON, lately Chair, Sustainable LINK Programme Management Committee and Assured Combinable Crops. For services to Arable Agriculture.
- Janet Dorothy, Mrs. PICKLES, Cardiff Women's Safety Unit. For services to Community Safety in South Wales.
- Mary Laird, Mrs. PITCAITHLY, Chief Executive, Falkirk Council. For services to Local Government.
- Adrian Mark POLLITT Director, Office of the Strategic Health Authorities. For services to the NHS.
- Samuel David POLLOCK. For public service.
- Colin Dunlop PORT, Deputy Chief Constable, Norfolk Constabulary. For services to the Police.
- Miss April Ann PUMFLEET, Principal Inspector (Development), Havering Local Education Authority. For services to Education.
- John James QUIGLEY, Grade B1, Ministry of Defence.
- Stephen Bradley QUINN, Grade B1, Ministry of Defence.
- Roger George RADFORD. For services to the Church of England.
- Donald RAISTRICK, Head, Knowledge and Information Resources Branch, Department for Constitutional Affairs.
- David Michael Ronald READING, Founder, Anaphylaxis Campaign. For services to People with Allergies.
- Shelia, Mrs. REITER, Chair, WaterVoice Wessex. For services to the Water Industry.
- Sheelagh Elizabeth, Mrs. RICHARDS, Secretary and Chief Executive, British Association of Occupational Therapists and College of Occupational Therapists. For services to Healthcare.
- Margaret Ann, Mrs. RICHARDSON, Curator, Sir John Soane's Museum, London. For services to Museums.
- Nigel ROBBINS, Principal, Cirencester College, Gloucestershire. For services to Further Education and to Training.