PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990

Notice is hereby given that under the provisions of section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, Eden District Council has designated the following conservation area, with effect from 27 June 2005.

Dufton Conservation Area, being the village of Dufton, from and including Bayle Hill Cottage, Quarry Cottage and the properties at Town Head, the main body of the village around The Green, including the back lane and strip fields to its north, the fields down towards, but not including, Dufton Gill to the south, up to and including the field due west of the village.

The effect of conservation area designation is to increase controls over the demolition and alteration of buildings, and work to trees, and to assist the local planning authority in preserving or enhancing the special architectural or historic interest of the area through the assessment of applications for development and through other enhancement works.

A map showing the boundary of the area may be inspected during normal office hours at the offices of Eden District Council, Mansion House or Town Hall, Penrith, Cumbria.
