LOCAL PLAN ALTERATION—OMISSION SITES CONSULTATION

Omission Sites

During the various consultation stages of the Local Plan Alteration representations were made that related to the omission of a number of sites from the Plan that the objectors considered should have been allocated for a variety of purposes including residential employment and mixed use development.

An “Omission sites” document has been produced that sets out those sites that were suggested through the representations to the Local Plan Alteration as possible allocations. Each of the sites has been organised into the relevant topic and the attached schedules detail the objectors name and reference number in addition to the site to which it refers.

Consultation

The Council has decided that as part of the consultation on the Local Plan Alteration, comments will be sought on those sites that were suggested as possible allocations by objectors during the various consultation stages of the Local Plan Alteration. This process will allow the Inspector to consider the alternative sites suggested by objectors at the Local Plan Inquiry and will give some indication of the community’s views regarding these sites.

Although you will not have the right to appear at the inquiry if you make a comment on a site that is included in this document, your comments will be considered by the Inspector at the forthcoming Local Plan Inquiry as written representations.

Your comments should clearly state which site you are commenting on, whether you support or object to the possible inclusion of the site in the Local Plan Alteration and your reasons for the comments.

Copies of the Omission Sites Document are available for public inspection from 26 August 2005, free of charge, at:
