On behalf of The People's Dispensary for Sick Animals of the Poor (PDSA) in the UK and relating to the legal and operational status of similarly-named organisations overseas.

PDSA is the leading veterinary charity in the UK, having been established in 1917 by Maria Dickin CBE, and incorporated by Act of Parliament in 1949.

Until the late 1970s PDSA operated in eight countries in Africa and the Middle East as well as in Europe. Gradually, the overseas clinics were closed and staff recalled to the parent organisation in the UK. However, PDSA clinics in South Africa and Cairo decided to continue independently, with the result that they registered as PDSA's in their own right under their respective countries' charity legislation.

Although they legitimately carry the name PDSA, these organisations are both legally and operationally separate from PDSA in the UK. Nonetheless, from time to time specifically in relation to PDSA Cairo, PDSA UK is asked by concerned tourists and ex-patriots to intervene in animal welfare there.

Whilst we may share a common heritage with these former outposts, PDSA in the UK wishes it to be known therefore that it has neither control nor influence over PDSA Cairo, or over any other overseas organisations that may carry the same or similar name. (686)
