Brighton and Hove City Council

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990

NOTICE OF EXTENSION OF THE REGENCY SQUARE CONSERVATION AREA AND CHANGE OF NAME OF THE CLIFTON HILL CONSERVATION AREA

Notice is hereby given that, in accordance with the provisions of section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, Brighton and Hove City Council (the Council) as local Planning Authority has, by a Resolution passed on 20 October 2005, extended the Regency Square Conservation Area and changed the name of the Clifton Hill Conservation Area as described in Schedules 1 and 2 below. These areas are considered by the Council to be of special architectural or historic interest, the character or appearance of which it is desirable to preserve or enhance. The effect of the designation is as follows: Within the areas of extension to the Regency Square Conservation Area additional powers of control will apply under the Town and Country Planning Acts and the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, in particular:

(a) Consent is required from the Council for works of demolition of a whole building or substantial part of a building, subject to certain exceptions. It is an offence to carry out such demolitions without consent.

(b) Applications for planning permission for development which would, in the opinion of the Council, affect the character or appearance of a Conservation Area, must be advertised in accordance with section 73 of the 1990 Act. Section 72 requires that in exercising its powers under the Town and Country Planning Act (The Planning Act), with respect to any buildings or land, the Council must pay special attention to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character or appearance of the area.

(c) Permitted development rights under the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 1995, and subsequent amendments to carry out certain minor developments without having to make application for planning permission are more restricted in a Conservation Area.

(d) Section 211 of the Planning Act requires that at least 6 weeks' notice is given to the Council of an intention to carry out work on any tree (other than a tree which is subject to a Tree Preservation Order and covered by other provisions) in a Conservation Area. It is an offence to cut down, uproot, wilfully destroy or damage any trees without giving due notice.

The change of name of a Conservation Area has no effect on existing planning controls which will remain unchanged in the Montpelier and Clifton Hill Conservation Area.

Plans showing the new boundaries of the Regency Square Conservation Area, together with details of the effect of the designation, can be inspected during normal office hours at the City Direct offices in the Town Hall, Norton Road, Hove and at Bartholomew House, Bartholomew Square, Brighton and on the Council website: brighton-hove.gov.uk (click "your city" then "conservation").
