National Assembly for Wales

THE DOLGELLAU TO SOUTH OF BIRKENHEAD TRUNK ROAD (A494) DROME CORNER TO EWLOE IMPROVEMENT ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT DETERMINATION BY THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES UNDER SECTION 105 (A) OF THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1980

The Minister for Enterprise Innovation and Networks, acting on behalf of the National Assembly for Wales, is considering whether to proceed with the above project for constructing or improving a highway for which it is the highway authority.

The scheme will involve the on-line widening of a 4.25 kilometres length of dual carriageway trunk road to dualled three/four lane road with hard shoulders, that passes north-east to south-west between an improved crossing of the River Dee near Queensferry and the Ewloe interchange close to the A55. Replacement and extended structures, and new and extended link roads, will be constructed. The road passes close to substantial established residential areas and crosses a European designated nature conservation site, the River Dee & Bala Lake Special Area of Conservation (SAC). The widening scheme, with associated engineering and environmental works, will affect cuttings, embankments, structures, pedestrian/cycleways and existing environmental mitigation that includes established plantations.

The scheme passes through or alongside areas with a wide variation in characteristics: commercial, high-density residential, agricultural, urban and industrial before crossing the tidal channel of the River Dee. Within the floodplain the land appears flat, but then it rises quite steeply towards Ewloe and beyond. Urban development, including industrial, residential and retail land and the main railway line, fills the area between the River Dee and the Queensferry interchange. From this point the land to the north of the road is in residential use, whereas much of the land to the south remains in agricultural use. The Aston Mead housing area abuts the road, connected to the community of Aston by the Plough Lane bridge. The trunk road then bisects an area of naturally revegetated sand workings, known to include a number of species protected under the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 and the Conservation Natural Habitats &c Regulations 1994, and passes through the only significant cutting on the route to emerge at the Ewloe interchange. Here it passes over the interchange and along the northern edge of a commercial development of offices and a hotel/conference centre. Further residential areas are found to the south of the trunk road and to the north of the interchange. The communities near the trunk road are connected by vehicular and pedestrian bridges and underpasses, some of which are well used. The existing roads restrict movement to these crossing points.

The area is drained by very minor watercourses which flow via the Queensferry Drain into the tidal stretch of the River Dee. The underlying aquifers are not used for the abstraction of potable water. Traffic noise and the emission of pollutants are issues of some concern at present. A significant number of properties have frontages abutting the trunk road or parallel service road, with no effective acoustic or visual screening. The existing main junctions have areas of developing amenity tree planting which provide a degree of visual screening and softening of the highway and its structures. Mature trees are otherwise scarce in the setting of the route.

It has been determined by the National Assembly for Wales that the project is a relevant project within Annex II to Council Directive 85/337/EEC ("the Directive") as amended by Council Directive 97/11/EC and that it should be made subject to an environmental impact assessment in accordance with the Directive.

The project has the potential to cause significant environmental impacts on communities and biodiversity. These effects can be assessed by the EIA process and mitigation can be designed. The project may also have potential effects on a special protection area (The River Dee & Bala Lake SAC) designated under EC Directive 92/43/EEC, and will be the subject of appropriate assessment under the requirements of that Directive.

In accordance with the above determination an Environmental Statement has been prepared. It identifies the following key environmental issues associated with the project, namely:

Air Quality: The scheme would in general increase the separation between traffic and many residential properties, but reduce the separation at some localities. Overall there are potential beneficial effects on the local air quality. However occasionally during peak traffic flow during the construction phase there could be an increase in air pollution but this will be localised.

Disruption Due to Construction: there is the potential for effects on local residents and road users as a result of lane closures, traffic management, transport of materials, noise, dust and disturbance during construction activity.

Ecology and Nature Conservation: effects on biodiversity within the trunk road estate and some potential impact on protected species on adjacent land. Potential to affect the qualifying interests of the Bala Lake & River Dee SAC.

Landscape Effects: effects due to the loss of a large part of established amenity tree plantations at junctions which currently screen views of the road and soften the urban setting. The loss of vegetation will also have an effect on the character of the urban landscape, increasing the perception of the traffic, although there is potential to provide greater planting areas to provide greater benefit in the long term.

Land Use: some additional land take is required with effects on farms and other land uses.

Traffic Noise and Vibration: The scheme would increase the separation between traffic and many residential properties, but reduce the separation for some others. There are potential beneficial effects on noise impact through the provision of noise barriers. The increase in design traffic speed, and rerouting of some local traffic, could potentially increase the noise experienced at some properties although this is anticipated to be mitigated against.

Water Quality and Drainage: potential effects as a result of traffic related pollution and increased road drainage discharges, but potential benefits if greater mitigation can be introduced. Details of scope and extent of E.I.A. work undertaken and consultations with the local authority, the Countryside Council for Wales, Cadw and the Environment Agency:

In the mid 1990s an EIA to the methods of the time was completed to draft stage, but the project did not then proceed. Recently, significant work to determine the scope of an EIA has been carried out, including nature conservation surveys for most of the relevant species. Preliminary desk study covering most other environmental topics has also been completed. Furthermore detailed surveys are being carried out.

Initial consultations and meetings have been held with the CCW, the Environment Agency and with Flintshire County Council. These bodies raised issues over the potential effects on wildlife and habitats, localised flooding, air quality and possible localised ground contamination. Consultations will continue with these and other key agencies. The Environmental Statement also identifies the following measures to be incorporated into the project in order to avoid, reduce or offset its adverse effects:

A Construction Environmental Management Plan is being developed to ensure good site practice and management for the works.

Construction methods will be planned to minimise levels of vibration and avoid cosmetic damage and disturbance at local residential properties.

The works will be designed to minimise the effect on habitats and protected species, particularly at the River Dee SAC/SSI. All necessary licenses will be obtained from CCW or the National Assembly for Wales before work starts.

Work in the river would be timed to avoid disturbance when salmon, lamprey and sea trout are migrating.

Water voles in Queensferry Drain would be transferred to another site while a new drain is conducted, so that a new population can be established.

To improve habitats for water voles, bats and otters, new grassland, scrub and woodland areas would be created.

To reduce visual impacts, new woodland planting, screening mounds and shrub planting will be provided.

Existing soil will be carefully stripped, stored and reused within the works to promote the establishment of new habitats and the restoration of agricultural areas.

To minimise vehicle noise the proposed scheme would be built with a "low noise" surface throughout.

Noise barriers would be provided where appropriate to reduce traffic noise as much as is reasonably practical.

Most of the existing crossing points of the A494 would be maintained or replaced by alternatives of a higher standard. Ewloe footbridge would be replaced by one suitable for all pedestrian users.

To provide a safe route for pedestrians and cyclists, a segregated route would be provided from Queensferry to Garden City.

The proposed drainage system will include balancing ponds designed to regulate flows, filter pollution and trap any accidental spillage.

Copies of the Environmental Statement may be inspected, free of charge, at normal office hours from 29 December 2006 until 16 February 2007 or within 7 weeks from the date of publication of this notice, whichever period expires later, at the following venues:

the A494 Project Office, 4 Bridge Houses, Queensferry, Flintshire CH5 1SA;

Any person may, not later than 16 February 2007 or within 7 weeks from the date of publication of this notice, if such period expires later, express an opinion on the published details of the Environmental Statement so that the National Assembly for Wales can take them into account when deciding whether or not to proceed with this project. Any such expression of opinion must be made in writing to Orders Branch, Transport Planning and Administration Division, Transport Wales, Welsh Assembly Government, Cathays Park, Cardiff CF10 3NQ quoting Ref BZ910192-310-1. In the preparation of any expression of opinion it should be borne in mind that the substance of it may be communicated to other people who may be affected by it.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
