

Registered as a newspaper

Published by Authority

Established 1665

The London Gazette

of Friday 1 June 2007

Supplement No. 1

The Queen's Award for Voluntary Service 2007

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased to confer Her Awards in 2007 upon the following groups in recognition of their outstanding voluntary work in the community:

Guernsey

Voluntary Group

Les Bourgs Hospice

Activity Description

Les Bourgs is a Christian Hospice, we wish to provide an opportunity for enhancement of quality of life for those people of the Bailiwick of Guernsey who are living with cancer and other life-threatening illnesses that are no longer responsive to curative treatments and support their families.

Grow Limited

The main aim of Grow Limited is to give occupational training, help and support to the learning disabled.

London

Voluntary Group

24th Tottenham Scout Group

Brent Ladies Football Club

Activity Description

A Scout group for the disabled

To work with young people to address problems stemming from teen indolence and provide role models/mentors; regenerate the interest of football to young people and adults especially those from disadvantaged backgrounds and raise awareness of young people around the issues of inequality and discrimination.

Friends United Network

Changing children's lives through friendship.

Generation Link

Generation Link matches young isolated parents and their children with older volunteers as surrogate grandparents.

London Lesbian and Gay Switchboard

Aims to provide 24 hour access to high quality information support and referral for the empowerment of all lesbian and gay men and anyone who needs to consider lesbian and gay issues.

New Malden Volunteers, Met Volunteer Programme, Metropolitan Police Service

To provide an effective and high quality service that will enhance customer care to visitors at New Malden Police Office.

Age Concern Kingston Upon Thames
Age & Youth School-Based Project

To enable older people to volunteer their skills, talents, knowledge and experience in order to support primary school children with their learning and the children to benefit from the expertise and positive role models provided by the older volunteers.