A T the Court at St. Fames's, the 22d of March, 1719.

This Day the Right Honourable William Earl of Coventry was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn one of the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board

accordingly:
And His Majesty having appointed his Lordship to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Worcester, he likewise this Day in Council took the Oaths appointed to be taken instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

GEORGE R.

Hereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fift Year of the Reign of our Royal Predeceffor King Henry the Seventh, Intituled, [An Act fiewing the Penalty for Hunting in the Night, or with disguising,] reciting, that forasmuch as before that time divers Ordinances and Statutes had been made in divers Parliaments for the Punishment of inordinate and unlawful Huntings in Forests, Parks, and Warrens, within this Realm; notwithstanding which Statutes and Ordinances divers Persons in great Numbers, some with painted Faces, some with Visors, and otherwise disguisted, to the Intent they should not be known, restously, and in manner of War arrayed, had oftentimes then of late hunted, as well by Night as by Day, in divers Forests, Parks and Warrens in divers Places of this Realm, by Golour whereof had ensued great and heinous Rebellions, Insurrections, Riots, Robberies, Murders, and other Inconveniencies; which Offences, in certain Cases in the said Act specified, are thereby declared to be Felony; and that if any Person or Persons should thereafter be convicted. of any such Huntings with painted Faces, Visors, or otherwife disguised, to the Intent they should not be known, or of unlawful Hunting in time of Night, that then the same Person or Persons so conviet, should have like Punishment, as he or they should have, if he or they were conviet of Felony: And whereas we have received Information upon Oath, that in Desiance of the Ast above recited, and of several other Statutes and Ordinances made in Parliament, which do provide severe Punishments against such Offenders, divers Persons, amounting to the Number of fourteen Men on Horseback, all armed with Guns, and some with Pistols, and two Footmen with a Greybound, did, in a violent and outragious Manner, on the two and twentieth Day of February last past, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, come into Bigshot-walk in Finchamsted Bailiwick in our Forest of Windsor, with their Faces blacked and disguised, some with Straw Hats and other deformed Habits, and did there pursue and shoot at our Red Deer, and did continue Hunting there till after Six a Clock, in which time they did kill four Deer there, three of which they carried away whole, and did cut off the Haunches of the fourth, and left the reft of the Garcase, and did terrific and threaten the Keeper of our said Walk to shoot him, if he offered to come near them. To the sutent therefore that a second and mear them: To the Intent therefore that a speedy and effectual Stop may be put to all such outragious Practices, we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Pri-vy Council, to issue this our Royal Proclamation: And for the Encouragement of all Persons to be diligent and for the Encouragement of all Persons to be alligent and careful in endeavouring to discover and apprehend all the Offenders above-mentioned, we do promise and declare, that whosever shall discover and apprehend any of the Offenders aforesaid, or who shall discover and apprehend any Person or Persons, who as any time hereafter shall commit the like Offences, in Manner as aforesaid, within our said Forest of Windsor, so as such Person fon or Persons be convicted of the same Offences, shall have and receive for every one of them so apprehended and taken, and convicted, as aforesaid, the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling; which said Sum of one hundred Pounds for every one of them, the Lords Commissioners of our Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly: And if such Person so discovering and apprehending, shall have been an Accomplice with any of the said Offenders, and by reason thereof stands in need of our most gracious Pardon, we do hereby further declare, that such Person shall have our most gracious Pardon.

Given at our Court at St. James's this Twenty fecond of March, 1719 And in the Sixth Year of our Reign.

God fave the KING.
