ROYAL MAIL SCHEME FOR FRANKING LETTERS AND PARCELS 2008

Royal Mail, by virtue of the powers conferred on it by section 89 of the Postal Services Act 2000 and all other relevant enabling powers, hereby makes the following Scheme.

1. APPLICATION, COMMENCEMENT, REVOCATION AND CITATION

1.1 This Scheme sets out Royal Mail's terms and conditions applicable to the franking of Letters and parcels for posting in the United Kingdom and to the posting of franked Letters and parcels and this Scheme forms part of each Licence issued.

1.2 This Scheme is made by Royal Mail under section 89 of Postal Services Act 2000. This Scheme shall come into operation on 7th April, 2008 and may be cited as the Royal Mail Scheme for Franking Letters and Parcels 2008 and supersedes in its entirety from that date the Successor Postal Services Company Scheme for Franking Letters and Parcels 2001 (including all amending Schemes). Licences issued under the superseded Schemes are from 7th April, 2008, subject to the provisions of this Scheme, but without prejudice to Royal Mail's accrued rights under those Licences.

1.3 Royal Mail may amend this Scheme from time to time. Amendments will be published in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes.

2. INTERPRETATION

2.1 The definitions of expressions used in this Scheme are set out in the Schedule to this Scheme.

2.2 References in this Scheme to the use of Franking Equipment are (except where stated or the context necessarily indicates otherwise) references to the use of Franking Equipment to indicate payment of Postage and Fees, and/or to the resetting of Franking Equipment with a view to using the equipment to indicate the payment of Postage and Fees on Letters and parcels to be posted in the United Kingdom.

3. APPROVAL OF FRANKING EQUIPMENT AND AUTHORISATION OF MANUFACTURERS, SUPPLIERS AND MAINTAINERS

3.1 Royal Mail may at its discretion approve different models of Franking Equipment, and may authorise persons to manufacture, supply, maintain or otherwise deal with Franking Equipment.

3.2 By authorising any person to manufacture, supply, maintain or otherwise deal with Franking Equipment, Royal Mail does not become a party to any customer contract for the supply, inspection, maintenance, or otherwise in relation to Franking Equipment, and does not give any warranties, whether as to quality, weight of items, or otherwise, concerning any goods or services supplied by that person.

4. GENERAL PROHIBITIONS ON USE OF FRANKING EQUIPMENT

4.1 Franking Equipment may not be used unless the equipment has been manufactured by an Authorised Manufacturer and the Model has Royal Mail's then current approval.

4.2 Franking Equipment which has been altered or modified in any way may not be used unless that alteration or modification has been submitted by the Authorised Manufacturer to, and approved by Royal Mail.

4.3 Franking Equipment may not be used if Royal Mail withdraws approval of the Model. Whenever Royal Mail withdraws approval for a Model it will notify Users by whatsoever means it deems suitable and use of the Franking Equipment of that Model must cease within the timescales notified by Royal Mail

5. AUTHORISATION OF USERS

5.1 Franking Equipment may not be used before the User has obtained Royal Mail's authorisation to do so. All Users must apply to Royal Mail for authorisation via an Authorised Supplier, who will either liaise with Royal Mail or direct the User to Royal Mail.

5.2 When Royal Mail has approved an application to use Franking Equipment, a Licence will be issued to the User. The issue of that Licence shall constitute authorisation for the purposes of paragraph 5.1 above. Franking Equipment may not be used before a Licence has been issued to the User or after a Licence either expires or has been terminated, nor during any period of suspension.

5.3 The provisions of this Scheme are incorporated into and form part of each Licence.

5.4 The User shall carry out all reasonable instructions given to it by Royal Mail with a view to recording details of Franking Equipment, the issue of a Licence and the identity of the User.

6. USER LICENCES

6.1 If an application for a Licence is rejected, Royal Mail will advise the applicant and / or the Authorised Supplier or Authorised Manufacturer by whatever means Royal Mail deems appropriate. The requirement for a User to obtain a Licence applies regardless of whether or not the User may have entered into a contract with Royal Mail for the provision of postal services. If a person has neither received a Licence, nor a rejection then the application has been rejected.

6.2 The Licence will include the following information and the User must notify Royal Mail of any changes within 14 days of their occurrence:

- 6.2.1. the User's name and address;
- 6.2.2. the address where the equipment may be used; (Note this may not be changed without Royal Mail's prior written consent);
- 6.2.3. the name of the Royal Mail controlling office where the User's records will be kept;
- 6.2.4. the name and number of the Model of the Franking Equipment;
- 6.2.5. the serial number of the Franking Equipment and/or Meter;
- 6.2.6. the number of the Die and / or Device (or related machine identifier);

6.3 Royal Mail may pass this information, and any amendments to it to the authorised Authorised Manufacturer, Authorised Supplier and Authorised Maintainer of the User's Franking Equipment, so that their records will be accurate and up to date.

6.4 The Licence authorises the User to use the specified Franking Equipment at the address shown on the Licence only for the purpose of franking its own business Letters, but not Letters or other mail of any third party. The Licence does not authorise the User to use any other Franking Equipment, for which a separate Licence, or Licences must be obtained. The Franking Equipment named in the Licence must only be used by the User and may not be transferred to a third party.

6.5 The Licence may not be transferred to another person, company, business or organisation. (Note: if the Franking Equipment is sold or otherwise transferred, the Licence does not transfer with it, and the proposed new user must be informed of the need for a Licence.

6.6 If the User wishes to change any of the details shown on the Licence, for example the address, the User must make a request in writing to the Royal Mail controlling office and the Authorised Manufacturer or Authorised Supplier of the equipment. The Licence may not be changed without Royal Mail's prior written consent.

6.7 If the User ceases permanently to use Franking Equipment, the User must notify each of the following in writing, either prior to the date of cessation, or as soon as possible afterwards:-

- 6.7.1 the Royal Mail controlling office

7.3 The value of Postage paid indicated by the Franking Mark on any Letter must conform to the applicable rate set out in the relevant Scheme. If mail is found to be underpaid for the selected service, it will be conveyed by the selected service and except to the extent that the provisions of another Scheme apply the sender shall be charged for the difference between the payment franked and the correct amount for that service., together with an administrative charge in respect of costs incurred by Royal Mail as Royal Mail may specify from time to time.

7.4 If mail is segregated by service and second class mail is found in a first class mailing Royal Mail will treat it as first class mailing and, except to the extent that the provisions of another Scheme apply, shall charge the User for the difference between the first class mailing and the franked amount, together with an administrative charge in respect of the costs incurred by Royal Mail as Royal Mail may specify from time to time.

7.5 The usage of the Franking Equipment and any products purchased through it will be captured electronically and details of it collated by a third party and transmitted to Royal Mail for their use as appropriate.

8. RESETTING FRANKING EQUIPMENT

8.1 The manner in which the User prepays or pays Postage and Fees will depend upon the way in which the User's Franking Equipment is set and Reset. The method of resetting will depend upon the Model of the Franking Equipment.

8.2 Franking Equipment may only be Reset in the manner specified by the Authorised Manufacturer and approved by Royal Mail. The methods set out in paragraph s 8.3 and 8.4 below, have Royal Mail's approval.

Each code contains instructions to the User's Franking Equipment to add the value of the credit paid or agreed to be paid by the User.

8.4 The codes may be sent to the User either by post, voice or electronic means to be entered onto the Franking Equipment, or they may be sent by electronic modem link direct to the Franking Equipment. When requesting a code, the User must provide any readings of the meter's Registers which may be requested. This information should be communicated in the manner specified which may be orally or in writing, through a keypad, or electronically directly from the Franking Equipment.

8.5 The codes may only be used to Reset Franking Equipment. Each code may be used only once. Only codes specified by Royal Mail for the User's Franking Equipment may be used.

9. OPERATION OF FRANKING EQUIPMENT

9.1 The seals on Franking Equipment must not be broken and must not be duplicated.

9.2 If a seal is broken, the User must report it to the Royal Mail controlling office immediately.

9.3 The Meter readings (as recorded on the Meter's Registers) must be updated so they always show the correct amount of Postage and Fees that the User has prepaid and/or used. The franking Equipment must not be tampered with in any way. in particular in any way so as to alter the Meter readings.

10.1 Franking Equipment must be kept in good working order by the User.

10.2 The User must ensure that Franking Equipment is inspected in accordance with Royal Mail's requirements at least once every year (or whenever Royal Mail specifies) by a Authorised Maintainer of the User's choice who has Royal Mail's authorisation to carry out inspections for that kind of equipment.

11.5 Neither a Franking Mark nor slogan may consist of numbers, words, characters, symbols, or marks which in Royal Mail's judgement might offend Royal Mail or Post Office employees, make it embarrassing or difficult for Royal Mail to convey the Letter in the post, which might give rise to complaints from the public, or cause Royal Mail operational or technical difficulties. If such circumstances arise, Royal Mail may require the User to cease using the Franking Mark or slogan in question and the User shall do so immediately.

11.6 If a User prints a Franking Mark by mistake, the User may write to the Royal Mail controlling office to apply for a refund within 6 months of the date when the Franking Mark was printed, enclosing the franked envelopes, wrappers or other items which must total no less than £10. If Royal Mail receives all the information and evidence it requires and the amount of Postage or Fees shown by the Franking Mark is legible, Royal Mail will give the User a partial refund of the amount of Postage paid, having deducted an amount which Royal Mail considers to be reasonable to meet the administrative cost of dealing with the User's application.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the London Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the London Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the London Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the London Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
