PART 2

General Conditions for posting a Letter

5. FIRST AND SECOND CLASS LETTERS

5.1 A Letter which complies with the applicable conditions of this Scheme except for a Special Delivery Letter will be sent:

5.1.1 First Class if the relevant amount of postage set out in paragraph 8 of Schedule 1 to this Scheme has been paid, or if the Sender has entered into an agreement with Royal Mail to pay that amount of postage;

5.1.2 Second Class if the relevant amount of postage set out in paragraph 8 of Schedule 1 to this Scheme has been paid, or if the Sender has entered into an agreement with Royal Mail to pay that amount of postage; or

5.1.3 Second Class if insufficient postage for First Class, but more than sufficient postage for Second Class, has been paid.

5.2 Royal Mail aims to deliver a Letter sent First Class the next Working Day after posting and to deliver a Letter sent Second Class within three Working Days after posting.

5.3 Valuables must not be sent by First Class or Second Class. Valuables must be sent using the Special Delivery service in accordance with the conditions set out in section 40 of this Scheme.

6. FORWARDING A LETTER

6.1 A recipient of a Letter (except a Business Reply, Freepost, Special Delivery or Recorded Letter) may forward it from its original address to another address in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man by writing or printing the new address on the Cover or envelope of the Letter and re-posting the Letter. A Letter may only be forwarded in this way to the original Addressee.

6.2 Except in the circumstances set out in section 6.3 below, Royal Mail will not charge additional postage or fees for forwarding a Letter that has been re-posted in accordance with section 6.1 above.

6.3 Royal Mail will charge additional postage and any applicable fee for forwarding a Letter if it has been opened before being re-posted, or the name of the original Addressee is covered or obscured, or it is forwarded by a Business or a person acting on behalf of a Business. Royal Mail may charge an additional fee to be fixed by Royal Mail from time to time, to forward a Letter.

6.4 Royal Mail may at its discretion deliver to the Addressee or return to the Sender a Letter which has been forwarded and which bears a Special Delivery or Recorded label. In either case Royal Mail will charge the Addressee or Sender additional postage and/or a fee to be fixed by Royal Mail from time to time.

6.5 In any case where Royal Mail considers that a Letter has been forwarded to evade payment of postage it may treat it as an unpaid Letter in accordance with section 17 of this Scheme.

6.6 Royal Mail can be required under the Social Security Administration Act 1992 and the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 ("the Acts") not to deliver items of Social Security Post which have been forwarded or redirected to a new address, but to return them to the Sender. Royal Mail is required under the Acts to provide information about the redirection of Social Security Post to persons specified in the Acts.

7. A LETTER WHICH DOES NOT MEET ROYAL MAIL CONDITIONS

7.1 Royal Mail may refuse to accept a Letter that does not meet the conditions set out in this Scheme or may treat it as undeliverable in accordance with section 8 of this Scheme.

7.2 If a Letter does not meet the conditions of the service paid for, Royal Mail may convey it using a different service. In these circumstances, the postage, fees and conditions of the service by which the Letter is conveyed will apply, but Royal Mail's liability under this Scheme may not apply. This provision applies to a Letter which has been posted or found on Post Office (R) branch or Royal Mail premises which appears to be intended for posting.

8. UNDELIVERABLE AND RE-POSTED LETTERS

8.1 Royal Mail may decide not to deliver a Letter which it considers impracticable or unreasonable to deliver. Such a Letter is referred to in this Scheme as undeliverable.

8.2 Royal Mail may consider a Letter to be undeliverable if it is of the opinion that:

8.2.1 the address is unsafe or insecure or if no delivery point has been provided, or if access to the delivery point has been prevented or impeded;

8.2.2 the address to which the Letter is to be delivered is not permanently occupied;

8.2.3 the Letter is not fully and correctly addressed in a manner which includes all the elements of the postal address (including the full postcode), written clearly on the front or on a label securely attached to the front of the cover or envelope (or otherwise in a manner such that the address is clearly visible in its entirety as if it had been written on the front of the Cover or envelope),

8.2.4 the address is illegible;

8.2.5 the health and safety of any individuals may be put at risk; or

8.2.6 for any other reason, Royal Mail forms the opinion that it is impracticable or unreasonable to deliver the Letter.

8.3 Royal Mail may, at its discretion, return a Letter to Sender from the delivery address, if it is re-posted by the Addressee or any other person for any reason and the return address is written correctly and legibly on the Cover or envelope and is an address in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man.

8.4 Where a Letter is undeliverable and:

8.4.1 the Sender's name and address in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man are legible on the Cover or envelope, Royal Mail may return the Letter to the Sender unopened;

8.4.2 the Letter was originally posted as a Franked Letter or with a Printed Postage Impression and the Sender's name and address are (a) not on the Cover or envelope, or (b) they are illegible, or (c) the Sender's name and address are on the Cover or envelope but the address is outside the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, then the Letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of Royal Mail;

8.4.3 the Letter was not originally posted as a Franked Letter or with a Printed Postage Impression and the Sender's name and address are (a) not on the Cover or envelope, or (b) they are illegible, then the Letter may be opened. If the name and address of the Sender are inside, the address is in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or Isle of Man, and the Letter does not consist solely of advertising material, newspapers or magazines, then the Letter may be returned to the Sender. Otherwise the Letter may be disposed of at the discretion of Royal Mail.

8.5 Section 8.4 does not apply to an Electoral Letter. If such a Letter is undeliverable, Royal Mail may:

8.5.1 if the Sender's name and address in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man are legible on the Cover or envelope, return it to the Sender unopened; or

8.5.2 if the Sender's name and address are not on the Cover or envelope, or if the Sender's address is not in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, or if they are illegible, the Letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of Royal Mail.

8.6 Royal Mail will not charge any additional postage or fee for returning an undeliverable Letter but the Sender may have to pay any other fees that apply. If any applicable fee is not paid, the Letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of Royal Mail.

9. PACKING

9.1 A Letter must be packaged and sealed such that, in the opinion of Royal Mail, damage or harm will not be caused to other Letters, equipment, or individuals.

9.2 A Letter must be in a suitably and reasonably strong Cover or envelope appropriate to its contents, and must be sealed or fastened securely (unless it is an article for the blind posted under the provisions of section 21 of this Scheme where the item does not need to be sealed or fastened).

9.3 Anything enclosed in the Letter must be packaged so as to provide protection against damage.

9.4 A breakable item must be packaged in a strong container with enough packaging material to protect the item against pressure and knocks. The Letter must be marked with the words "FRAGILE HANDLE WITH CARE" in capital letters on the Cover or envelope above the address.

9.5 An item that may be damaged by bending must be packaged in a strong container that will prevent the item from being bent. The Letter must be marked with the words "DO NOT BEND" in capital letters on the Cover or envelope above the address.

9.6 If a Letter contains an item that is likely to perish or decay, the Letter must be marked with the words "PERISHABLE" in capital letters on the Cover or envelope above the address.

9.7 Restricted items must be packed in accordance with further packaging requirements referred to in section 15.2 of this Scheme.

9.8 Packaging must comply with any other requirements published by Royal Mail.

9.9 The address must not be obscured or made difficult to read in any way including by the manner in which the contents are enclosed in the Letter.

9.10 A Letter must not have on its envelope or Cover:

9.10.1 anything which obscures the postage stamp or Mark;

9.10.2 anything which is likely, in Royal Mail's opinion, to make it difficult for Royal Mail to apply a Postmark to the Cover or envelope;

9.10.3 anything which, in Royal Mail's judgement, is likely to make the Postmark illegible;

9.10.4 any counterfeit or fake postage stamp or Mark;

9.10.5 any postage stamp or Mark which Royal Mail considers may have previously been used to pay postage;

9.10.6 signs, words or Marks, used without official permission, which could indicate that the Letter was sent on Her Majesty's Service or was conveyed and delivered by Royal Mail; or

9.10.7 any signs, words, Marks or designs which are offensive, obscene or indecent.

9.11 A Letter must not be made up in any way or have anything on its Cover or envelope which, in the judgement of Royal Mail, makes it difficult or embarrassing to deliver the Letter.

10.2 Deleted

10.3 the Sender must demonstrate with respect to each Letter posted that postage has been paid, or that the Sender has entered into an arrangement with Royal Mail for postage to be paid, on the Letter. To demonstrate such payment or arrangement, a postage stamp or Mark must be fixed, printed, impressed, embossed or otherwise marked on the Cover or envelope of the Letter, or the Letter must be marked in any other way Royal Mail may approve.

10.4 Neither a Postage Stamp nor Mark may be used to demonstrate payment of Postage or to demonstrate that the Sender has entered into an arrangement with Royal Mail for Postage to be paid on a Letter if it is damaged or imperfect, has been defaced, or if it has anything written or printed over it. An adhesive postage stamp which is perforated with initials by means of a punch may be used for those purposes, provided that the perforation holes are smaller than the holes dividing one stamp from another on a sheet of stamps.

10.5 A Postage Stamp or Mark that has already been used to pay postage, or to demonstrate that the Sender has entered into an arrangement with Royal Mail to pay Postage, cannot be re-used for those purposes.

38. RESPONSE SERVICES (BUSINESS REPLY, FREEPOST, FREEPOST ADMAIL AND FREEPOST NAME)

38.1 Response Services are services whereby Royal Mail authorises a Business to provide others with cards, folders, Letter cards, envelopes or labels which may be used to post a Letter to a specified address without prepayment of postage. Such a Letter is referred to in this Scheme as a Response Service Letter.

38.2 Response Services include Business Reply, Freepost, Freepost Admail and Freepost Name services.

38.3 Businesses wishing to use a Response Service must have a Response Services Licence. "Licence" in this section means a Response Services Licence and "licensee" in this section means the holder of a Response Services Licence.

38.4 A licence authorises the licensee to use the Response Service specified in the licence. A licence may contain conditions as to payment by the licensee for use of the Response Service (which may include a requirement to pay a deposit or make advance payment) and other terms or conditions.

38.5 A licence will be granted for a period of one year.

38.6 Separate licences must be obtained for each Response Service required, except that the use of Business Reply and Freepost services may be authorised by the same licence. Separate licences are also required for barcoded and non-barcoded Response Services.

38.7 The licensee must specify an address (which must be in the United Kingdom) to which the Response Service Letter is to be delivered. A licence may specify more than one address to which a Letter may be sent. The address or addresses specified will be recorded in the licence. A licensee may apply to add other addresses to the licence from time to time.

38.8 A licence will specify for each address the terms in which the Response Service Letter is to be addressed. A Response Service Letter provided by the licensee for use and all Response Service Letters posted must be addressed in accordance with the terms specified in the licence.

38.9 The Freepost Name service enables persons to receive a Letter at an address (a "Delivery Address") different from that which appears on the Cover or envelope ("a Freepost Name Address"). A Freepost Name must be chosen by the holder of the Response Services licence and agreed by Royal Mail. A Freepost Name Letter must be addressed in accordance with the terms specified in the Response Services licence.

38.10 Unless the licence provides otherwise, the licensee must provide Royal Mail with a specimen of each pre-printed card, folder, Letter card, envelope, Cover or label to be used under the licence and must obtain Royal Mail's approval to the layout, design, specifications and other details of that specimen. A Response Service Letter must meet the specifications of the specimen approved by Royal Mail.

38.11 A licence fee for each address recorded in the licence must be paid annually. In the first year the fee must be paid before the licence is granted. After the first year the fee is payable on every anniversary of the date on which the licence was granted.

38.12 If an address is added to an existing licence, the fee payable will be a proportion of the annual fee calculated pro rata to the proportion of the licence period that remains unexpired at the time the address is added. The fee for adding an address is payable on the date the address is added, and the pro-rata charge is calculated on a weekly basis.

38.13 In addition to any licence fee, the licensee must pay postage on any Response Service Letter delivered to the specified address together with a handling fee per Letter.

38.14 The licensee may request that a Response Service Letter is delivered by the first delivery on a particular day on which Royal Mail usually makes more than one delivery. If this option is chosen Royal Mail will charge an additional fee (a "first delivery option fee") for each Letter.

38.15 No handling fee or first delivery option fee will be charged for delivery of a Response Service Letter which has a bar-code approved by Royal Mail affixed or printed onto the Cover or envelope, in a position approved by Royal Mail.

38.16 Royal Mail may withdraw a licence, or impose a surcharge on the delivery of a Response Services Letter, if it is found that the conditions of the licence and/or the conditions set out in this Scheme have been broken.

38.17 If a licence is withdrawn or cancelled, Royal Mail may refuse to refund any part of the licence fee.

38.18 Royal Mail has the right to disclose the full name and address of a licensee authorised to use a Response Service and the Delivery Address in the case of Freepost Name and Freepost Admail to anyone requesting the information and to withdraw the licence in the event of misuse.

38.19 Response Services (excluding Freepost Name and Freepost Admail) may be used in conjunction with the Special Delivery service.

38.20 The fees applicable to Response Services are shown in paragraph 18 of Schedule 1 to this Scheme.

39. SELECTAPOST

39.1 Royal Mail may on application by a person agree to pre-sort Letters prior to delivery in accordance with a specification provided by the person and approved by Royal Mail. This is called the Selectapost service.

39.2 Where Royal Mail provides this service, it will deliver Letters in clearly identifiable bundles or bags with the normal Letter delivery.

39.3 Royal Mail may, on payment of an additional fee, deliver bundles or bags directly to specified points at an address.

39.4 An agreement for the use of the Selectapost service must be for a minimum period of one year and may be renewed on a quarterly or annual basis.

39.5 If it is not clear from the address on a Letter how it should be pre-sorted in accordance with the agreed specification, the Letter will, together with other Letters which cannot be pre-sorted and packets, be delivered in a separate bundle or bag.

39.6 Royal Mail may refuse to provide the Selectapost service if it is not possible for operational reasons to provide it at a particular address.

39.7 The fee for the Selectapost service is shown in paragraph 19 of Schedule 1 of this Scheme and must be paid quarterly in advance.

39.8 The entry requirements for this service are:

39.8.1 an average of less than 6,000 items per day;

39.8.2 fewer than 25 selections - including a residue selection.

39.9 Letters and flats will be sorted by Royal Mail to the appropriate selection but packets will only be sorted to a residue selection.

40. SPECIAL DELIVERY

40.1 A Letter sent as a Special Delivery Letter in accordance with the conditions set out in this section will be delivered by a time or date specified by Royal Mail at the time of posting. In the event of failure to deliver by the specified date or time, section 52.3 of this Scheme will apply. This is called the Special Delivery service.

40.2 A Letter to be sent using the Special Delivery service must be posted in accordance with section 13.3 of this Scheme.

40.3 The Special Delivery label must be completed in full and attached in the position specified by Royal Mail to the Cover or envelope of the Letter.

40.4 A Letter weighing more than 10kg may not be sent by Special Delivery.

40.5 On delivery of a Special Delivery Letter the recipient must sign and print their name on a prescribed Royal Mail form or any other device supplied by Royal Mail to record such details to confirm its delivery. Where such a receipt is not obtained, the Letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of Royal Mail.

40.6 Valuables must be sent using the Special Delivery service.

40.7 If a Letter with a Special Delivery label attached to it is found on Royal Mail premises which has not been posted in accordance with the conditions set out in this section, the Letter will either be delivered to the Addressee or returned to the Sender as a Special Delivery Letter. In either case the recipient will be charged a fee to be fixed by Royal Mail from time to time. Any postage that may have been paid will be accepted as either part or full payment of the fee.

40.8 If a Special Delivery Letter is returned to the Sender in the circumstances set out in section 40.7 of this Scheme, and the Sender pays any fee payable, the Letter will be delivered, if deliverable, to the Addressee.

40.9 If a Special Delivery Letter is delivered to the Addressee in the circumstances set out in section 40.7 of this Scheme, and the recipient fails to pay the fee payable, the Letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of Royal Mail.

40.10 Special Delivery may be used together with Response Services subject to compliance with the general and special conditions contained in this Scheme and any Response Services licence.

40.11 The fees for the Special Delivery service are shown in paragraph 20 of Schedule 1 to this Scheme.

40.12 The compensation provisions applicable to Special Delivery Letters are shown in Section 52 of this Scheme.

40.13 The Sender of a Special Delivery Letter may request Royal Mail at any time up to 12 months after delivery of the Letter to provide the Sender with a copy of the signature of the recipient of the Letter obtained on its delivery. This service is called Proof of Delivery. The fee for Proof of Delivery is shown in paragraph 14 of Schedule 1 to this Scheme.

41. A LETTER TREATED AS SENT BY SPECIAL DELIVERY

41.1 Royal Mail may treat a Letter as a Special Delivery Letter, which has not been posted in accordance with the conditions governing the Special Delivery service set out in section 40, where:

41.1.1 it has 'Special Delivery' written on it, or anything which suggests that the Letter is intended to be sent via Special Delivery; or 41.1.2 it is discovered that the Letter contains Valuables as defined in Schedule 2.

41.2 In either case, if the Letter is treated as a Special Delivery Letter, the Sender or the Addressee will be charged the appropriate fee for that service. If the fee is not paid the Letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of Royal Mail.

41A. LOCAL COLLECT

41A1 Local Collect is a service whereby Royal Mail delivers a Letter to a Post Office (R) branch for collection by the Addressee. There are two types of Local Collect, one requested by the Addressee set out in 41A.2, and one requested by the Sender set out in 41A.3, 4 and 5.

41A.3 Businesses wishing to use the Local Collect service must have a Local Collect Licence which authorises the licensee to send a Letter:

41A.3.1 directly to a Post Office (R) branch for collection by the Addressee, or

41A.4 The Licence will be granted for a period of one year and may contain such terms and conditions as Royal Mail deem appropriate.

 - 7.1.8 a description of the packaging and condition of the mail item itself (for Damage and Part Loss claims only), and
 - 7.1.9 the basis for asserting the posting details and product used, such as date of postmark, certificate of posting (if available), and for Recorded Signed for and Standard Parcels with enhanced compensation, the product documentation.
- 7.2 Claimants must retain all the packaging and contents of damaged items or items which are the subject of Part Loss claims as Royal Mail may need to inspect them. If they are not retained compensation payments will not be made.

7.3 Claims for items with an intrinsic value should be made on Royal Mail's then current Loss and Damage claim form. The claim form needs to be signed and dated by the claimant and supported by "additional evidence" (Evidence of Posting and evidence of value) to corroborate the amount claimed for Actual Loss. If additional evidence cannot be provided then only postage refund or stamps can be considered.

7.4 Evidence of the Actual Loss must be provided to enable Royal Mail to determine the value of the contents of a packet such as original receipts, details of age, paypal record, invoices, manufacturing costs, auctioneers valuation and repair costs in the case of Damage claims, bank or credit card statement. This list is not exhaustive and is for illustrative purposes only

7.5 Royal Mail reserves the right to inspect the item and packaging and/or to request additional documentation and/or information from the claimant, Sender or recipient to protect against unwarranted or duplicate claims. This includes, but is not limited to, a declaration of non-receipt (or proof of non receipt in appropriate cases).

7.6 Evidence must be provided that the Part Loss or Damage sustained by the item is consistent with the damage to the envelope, to the external packaging and to the internal wrappings.

8. WHO MAY CLAIM COMPENSATION?

8.1 The Sender or the recipient may make a claim for Loss of or Damage to an item. However Royal Mail will only make a payment once in respect of any item.

8.2 If both the Sender and the recipient make a claim for the same item, then only the Sender will have a right to compensation, unless a compensation payment has already been made to the recipient, in which case the Sender will have no right to compensation.

The University of OxfordPUBLIC PROCUREMENT

On the basis of its accounts, forecasts and other financial information, the University of Oxford has calculated that less than half of its income for the budgetary year 1 August 2008 to 31 July 2009 will be public funding derived from public sources. Consequently the University of Oxford will not be a "contracting authority" for the purposes of the European Council Public Procurement Directives during that budgetary year. Procurement contracts awarded during the year will not therefore fall within the scope of the Directives. (578836)

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The London Gazette is the Official Newspaper of Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been Published by Authority since 1665. The London Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "London Gazette" shall include supplements to the London Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the London Gazette as well as the paper version.

The London Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the London Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the London Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the London Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the London Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;
- 4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;
- 4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;
- 4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and
- 4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publisher's liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;
- 11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
