Greenwich Council

THE GREENWICH (TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT ACT 2004) (VARIATION) ORDER 2008

THE GREENWICH (WAITING AND LOADING RESTRICTION) (AMENDMENT NO. 9) ORDER 2008

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Greenwich Council, hereinafter called the Council, with the consent of the London Borough of Lewisham, on 30 July 2008 made above-mentioned Orders under sections 6, 35, 45, 46, 49 and 124 of and Part IV of Schedule 9 to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended.

2. The general effect of the above-mentioned Orders would be to amend each of the Orders listed in the Schedule to this Notice so that they comply with those civil enforcement provisions, relating to parking and waiting, in part 6 of the Traffic Management Act 2004, which came into force on 31st March 2008 and comply with the requirements of Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (England) General Regulations 2007:—

(a) In effect this means that all references to the Road Traffic Act 1991 in the Orders will be substituted with the Traffic Management Act 2004 and where appropriate the Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (England) General Regulations 2007, any references to Decriminalised Parking Enforcement will now refer to Civil Parking Enforcement, any references to a Parking Attendant will now refer to a Civil Enforcement Officer (CEO) and any references to a Special Parking Area will now refer to a Civil Enforcement Area (CEA).

(b) All references to a penalty charge or penalty charge notice will be substituted with references to such charges being imposed in accordance with Part 6 of the Traffic Management Act 2004 and the Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (England) General Regulations 2007. Under the differential parking penalties system different levels of charges are payable for Penalty Charge Notices as some contraventions are considered more serious than others, and carry a greater penalty. A full list of the contraventions at each rate can be found by visiting the Council's web site at: www.greenwich.gov.uk/Greenwich/Travel/Parking.

3. The further effect of the Waiting and Loading Amendment Order will be to amend the Greenwich (Waiting and Loading Restriction) Order 2007 so that in addition to the amendments mentioned in paragraphs 2(a) and 2(b) above, an amendment will be made to the Order where any reference to 'the period for which a vehicle may wait in a restricted street for the purpose of loading and unloading', the words "twenty minutes" will be substituted with the words "forty minutes".

4. The Welsh Ministers

THE CHESTER TO BANGOR TRUNK ROAD (A55) (ABERGWYNREGYN TO TAI'R MEIBION IMPROVEMENT)

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT DETERMINATION BY THE WELSH MINISTERS UNDER SECTION 105(A) OF THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1980

AND

CONSERVATION (NATURAL HABITATS & C.) REGULATIONS 1994 REGULATION 48: ASSESSMENT OF IMPLICATIONS FOR EUROPEAN SITES.

CONSULTATION ON AN APPROPRIATE ASSESSMENT OF THE EFFECTS OF THE PROJECT ON:

THE MENAI STRAITS AND CONWY BAY SPECIAL AREA OF CONSERVATION (SAC) AND LAVAN SANDS SPECIAL PROTECTION AREA (SPA), WHICH IS INCLUDED WITHIN THE AFOREMENTIONED SAC.

The Welsh Ministers are considering whether to proceed with the above project for constructing or improving a highway, for which they are the highway authority.

The proposed scheme involves approximately 2km of existing trunk road, the construction of 1.5km of new Class 3 road and the construction of 1.5km of non-motorised user route to the north, and immediately alongside the A55 Trunk Road. The trunk road will be widened to provide two 3.15m lanes plus hard strips with a hard central reserve. New highway drainage will be installed together with drains to collect surface runoff from the surrounding fields.

The existing farm underpasses will be lengthened under the widened carriageway and existing culverts will similarly be extended. All existing crossings of the central reserve and all field access gateways directly on to the A55 will be closed.

Alternative field accesses, where necessary, will be provided from the new Class 3 road which will run from the Tal y Bont Interchange (A55 Junction 12) to the existing Class 3 road to Wig Crossing. The non-motorised user route will continue along the north side of the widened A55 to rejoin the county road at Aber (A55 Junction 13).

Access to the fields south of the A55 will be maintained from the existing county road via a farm access track. The County Road will be widened by 1 metre from Tai'r Meibion Farm to Gilfach Farm where the farm access track joins.

The public footpath network will be linked under the A55 by the farm access tracks to the non-motorised user route and all direct footpath access and crossings of the A55 will be closed.

A side road junction with deceleration and acceleration lanes will be provided on the west bound side of the Trunk Road for traffic accessing Glyn Farm and this will link to a new private means of access to Numbers 1 and 2 Bryn Meddyg.

The horizontal alignment of the Trunk Road improvement will follow the existing with the widening being carried out to predominantly the north side. The vertical alignment will be similar to the existing but will smooth out the several dips and hollows which reduce visibility below current standards.

The proposed improvement is located to the west of Aber, lying on the coastal plain between the Carneddau Mountains and the Lavan Sands. The land required for the scheme is predominantly Grade 3 agricultural land used for lowland grazing. Boundaries are mainly hedged and fenced with very few visible dry stone walls. Two listed structures are directly adjacent to the road proposals, the farmhouses at Tai'r Meibion and at Wig Farm. The area is recognised for its open aspect and views across the sands to the Menai Straits and Anglesey. To the south the hills rise steeply towards the Carneddau.

There are several streams crossing in culverts below the Trunk Road, the waters flowing directly to the sea. Runoff from the mountain can be severe in times of heavy rain and the Trunk Road is often flooded at Tai'r Meibion. This flooding can at times cause a lane a carriageway or even the complete road to be closed.

No part of the scheme lies within the Snowdonia National Park but the boundary lies close to the southern boundary of the park and the scheme can be seen from the park. There are no features or areas affected by the scheme referred to in the EIA Regulations, 97/11/EC Section 105 A (6) that would require the designation of it as a 'sensitive area' under the Directive. It is however noted that the Menai Straits and Conwy Bay SAC/Traeth Lafan SPA is located 700 metres downstream of the scheme. This area in addition to having European protected status also has national recognition and is protected by designated as a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI).

Description of the main environmental effects of the project:

There are no direct effects on the Menai Straits and Conwy Bay SAC/Traeth Lafan SPA/SSSI as the proposed improvement does not encroach into it. It is also considered that there will be no indirect effects on its nature conservation value as the proposed improvement is mainly on-line along this section. The otter is a qualifying feature of the SPA and SAC, the latter having been designated for its habitats and species of European importance. Even without mitigation to safeguard water quality and flows, there would be no impact on the integrity of these national and European designated sites. The scheme will result in the permanent loss of approximately 3.2Ha of Grade 3 agricultural land in a strip on both sides of the existing road, and the temporary loss of approximately 7.5Ha. during construction.

Much of the existing planting and screening will be retained, with hedges being planted along new highway and field boundaries. Much mature hedging will be translocated to its new position, particularly the section of county road to be widened between Tai'r Meibion and Giffach Farm. In addition the embankment slopes and riverside will be planted with appropriate native trees and shrubs. The existing A55 is visible in the medium distance occasionally from the footpaths in the Snowdonia National Park. The slight increase in the width of the road corridor will be barely noticeable so the impact on the park is not considered to be significant.

Consultations have been undertaken with Gwynedd Council, EA, CCW, Cadw and many conservation groups throughout development of the scheme. Their comments have either been considered within the design and mitigation measures, or have been favourable from the outset.

Statement of case in support of a Determination that E.I.A. is required: The proposed improvement is in accordance with current trunk road and local transport policies. Account has been taken of the environmentally sensitive nature of the area including its scenic, biodiversity and historic value. The effects of the proposed road improvement will largely be overcome through proposed mitigation measures, aimed at protecting the landscape, historic and wildlife features, while providing measures to enhance existing, and create new habitats.

The improvement should have minimum effects on the natural and built environment while achieving improvements to this section of the A55 Trunk Road, so complying with most of the objectives of the relevant UDP policies. Although the scheme is not in a 'sensitive area' because of the environment in its vicinity and because its size identifies it as a "relevant project", an Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) will be carried out.

The scheme has the potential to have an adverse effect on the SAC and SPA and notable species of conservation value.

The scheme also has the potential to have an adverse effect on a Landscape of Outstanding Historic Interest and several features of archaeological interest and a sensitive landscape overlooked by the Snowdonia National Park.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT DETERMINATION BY THE WELSH MINISTERS UNDER SECTION 105(A) OF THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1980

It has been determined by the Welsh Ministers that the project is a relevant project within Annex II to Council Directive 85/337/EEC ("the Directive") as amended by Council Directive 97/11/EC and that it should be made subject to an environmental impact assessment in accordance with the Directive.

In accordance with the above determination an Environmental Statement has been prepared which identifies the key environmental issues associated with the project. The Environmental Statement also details the mitigation measures that are to be adopted in order to avoid, reduce or offset its adverse effects.

CONSERVATION (NATURAL HABITATS &C.) REGULATIONS 1994

REGULATION 48: ASSESSMENT OF IMPLICATIONS FOR EUROPEAN SITES.

CONSULTATION ON AN APPROPRIATE ASSESSMENT OF THE EFFECTS OF THE PROJECT ON:

MENAI STRAITS AND CONWY BAY SPECIAL AREA OF CONSERVATION (SAC) AND LAVAN SANDS SPECIAL PROTECTION AREA (SPA), WHICH IS INCLUDED WITHIN THE AFOREMENTIONED SAC.

The project does not involve any direct physical contact with either the Menai Straits and Conwy Bay SAC and Lavan Sands SPA, but the potential for indirect effects from construction activity, or direct effects on water quality was identified.

This places an obligation on Welsh Ministers to prepare a Statement to Inform an Appropriate Assessment (SIAA) on the Menai Straits and Conwy Bay SAC, in accordance with regulation 48 of the Conservation (Natural Habitats &c.) Regulations 1994. The Assessment must consider the project's implications for the Sites in view of their conservation objectives.

The SIAA considers the following key effects on the Menai Straits and Conwy Bay SAC:

The effects on the SAC qualifying features including loss of habitat area; fragmentation; disturbance; population density; water resource, and water quality.

The SIAA assesses potential impacts on the features of the SAC & SPA and the effectiveness of the proposed mitigation measures in reducing/avoiding impacts.

Copies of the Environmental Statement and copies of the SIAA may be inspected free of charge at all reasonable hours from 31 July 2008 until 18 September 2008 or within 7 weeks of this notice, whichever period expires later, at the following locations:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The London Gazette is the Official Newspaper of Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been Published by Authority since 1665. The London Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "London Gazette" shall include supplements to the London Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the London Gazette as well as the paper version.

The London Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the London Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the London Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the London Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the London Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;
- 4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;
- 4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;
- 4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and
- 4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;
- 11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
