'Tis expected that the Parliament will now foon be recalled to Paris. the 6th Instant a Jew named Joseph Levy was broke upon the Wheel, for having robbed and murdered another Jew and his Wife, The Turkish Ambassadour to this Court, Mehemet Effendi, arrived at Toulon the 23d past, where he keeps Quarantain without the City in the King's Garden. Yesterday the King of Spain's Minister at this Court, teceived by an Express disparched from Madrid the 22d past, the following Relation.

(Price Three Half Pence.)

N the 15th of November at Day-Break, the Marquess de Lede, Commander in Chief of the Spanish Forces in Africa, caused the Gallies' to approach the Shore by Ceuta, as near as possible to the Camp and Trenches of the Moors, and to cannonade them. Some Hours after, the Marquess advancing with his Troops by Land, attacked those Trenches. They were guarded by 14000 Foot, and about 2000 Horse which it is said were of the King of Mequinez's Guards, and were all cloathed in White. After a Fight of feveral Hours the Spaniards carried the Trenches, and made themselves Masters of the Camp, taking 3 Standards, and one Colours, a Brass Mortar for Bombs, 21 Pieces of Cannon, part Brass, the rest Iron, 2000 Bullets of different Sizes, 200 Rombs, a great Number of Tools for throwing up Ground, a great Quanrity of Oats and Meal which was distributed among the Troops, some Tents, several Mules and Horses, and other Things. The Number of Moors killed in the Camp was reckoned to be above 2000: The Bashaw being very dangeroully wounded, retired with the rest of his Army towards Tetuan, taking with him the Horse-Tail. The Number of Prisoners was not great, because the Moors refused Quarter, and those who retired fled with the greatest Precipitation: The Bashaw's Secretary is among the Prisoners. On our Side no more than 150 were wounded, and about 50 killed; among the former is the Chevalier de Lede, Brother of the Marquess, who was shot with a Musket-Ball that went in at his Mouth and out at his Neck; which Wound is however judged curable; and among the latter are three Captains and two Lieutenants. Resistance made by the this Action was very obstira e, for having been four Times broken they rallied and made head again more refolutely every time than the form r; particularly the Balhaw diffinguished nmfelf; and our Men gave fignal Proofs of their Valour on this Occasion. The Moors were lodged in Barracks built of Wood that formed a kind of Town, in the midst of which the Bashaw had for his Quarters several Apartments, all communicating with each other by a great Number of Doors and Paffages like a Labyrinth; where the Marquess de Lede has taken up his own Quarters for the present, and his Troops have theirs in conquered Camp and Trenches. Immediately after the Action was over, his Excellency dispatched first the Count of Carvacal who arrived last Night, and after him the Viscount Francici Captain of the Friezland Regiment of Dragoons who came hither this Morning with the three Standards and the Colours; and the Particulars abovementioned were brought by these Officers, who say, that in this vigorous Action the Moors behaved with great Skill, like the most regular Troops, being commanded by Renegado Officers of determined Courage. The News of this Victory was immediately made publick, the Bells of the Royal Church were rung a-bove an Hour, and this Morning Te Deum was fung in the Presence attended by the of their Majesties, whole Court in splended Habits, Bara Success so much desired, the barians having at length been forced to raise a Siege which had lasted twenty fix Years.
