The Welsh Ministers

THE FISHGUARD TO BANGOR TRUNK ROAD (A487) ABERARTH IMPROVEMENT SCHEME—PHASE 2

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT DETERMINATION BY THE WELSH MINISTERS UNDER SECTION 105(A) OF THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1980 AND CONSERVATION (NATURAL HABITATS &C.) REGULATIONS 1994

REGULATION 48: ASSESSMENT OF IMPLICATIONS FOR EUROPEAN SITES

CONSULTATION ON AN APPROPRIATE ASSESSMENT OF THE EFFECTS OF THE PROJECT ON THE BAE CEREDIGION (CARDIGAN BAY) SPECIAL AREA OF CONSERVATION (SAC)

The Welsh Ministers are considering whether to proceed with the above project for improving a highway for which they are the highway authority.

The project comprises the on-line improvement of approximately 150 metres of the A487 trunk road through the village of Aberarth where the A487 passes over the Afon Arth via an existing Grade II listed, masonry arch bridge which is devoid of pedestrian footways. Aberarth is situated 3 kilometres north of Aberaeron and 24 kilometres south of Aberystwyth. The scheme includes the construction of a puffin crossing, sections of footway, an elevated walkway and a footbridge across the Afon Arth to complete a safe network of pedestrian footways through the village. The proposed footbridge is steel truss construction of approximately 20 metres clear span running parallel to, and upstream of, the existing road bridge. The southern abutment will be constructed within the adjacent side road and the northern abutment will be sited approximately 4 metres back from the river's edge, adjacent to the property Glasfryn.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT DETERMINATION BY THE WELSH MINISTERS UNDER SECTION 105(A) OF THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1980

It has been determined by the Welsh Ministers that the project is a relevant project within Annex II to Council Directive 85/337/EEC ("the Directive") as amended by Council Directive 97/11/EC. Following consultations with the Countryside Council for Wales and the Environment Agency it is considered that the project would have a minimal effect on the environment and mitigation measures could be incorporated to minimise negative impacts. The Welsh Ministers have therefore determined that an Environmental Impact Assessment is not required for this project. It was originally anticipated that the Aberarth Improvement Scheme would be completed as a single construction operation but it has subsequently been split into two phases. The first phase of construction was completed in April 2006. In addition to this the scheme has been amended slightly since the publication of the Determination Notice in 2004. For this reason a review has taken place which has concluded that the previous determination that an Environmental Impact Assessment was not required remains valid.

CONSERVATION (NATURAL HABITATS &C.) REGULATIONS 1994

REGULATION 48: ASSESSMENT OF IMPLICATIONS FOR EUROPEAN SITES

CONSULTATION ON AN APPROPRIATE ASSESSMENT OF THE EFFECTS OF THE PROJECT ON:

THE BAE CEREDIGION (CARDIGAN BAY) SPECIAL AREA OF CONSERVATION (SAC)

The mouth of the Afon Arth is situated on the northern edge of the Bae Ceredigion SAC. The proposed footbridge is to be constructed approximately 300 metres upstream from this point. This places an obligation on the Welsh Ministers to prepare a Statement to Inform an Appropriate Assessment on the Bae Ceredigion SAC, in accordance with regulation 48 of the Conservation (Natural Habitats, &c.) Regulations 1994. The Assessment must consider the project's implications for the SAC, in view of those sites' conservation objectives. The Statement considers the following key items and their potential effects on the Bae Ceredigion SAC as follows:

The key environmental issues associated with the project are:

Effects on the River Arth, which in turn could affect the SAC downstream, including:

Water Quality
Channel habitat

Effects on following SAC qualifying features, including habitat loss, restrictions on migration and disturbance:

- (i) Reefs—which are particularly large in the intertidal to subtidal zones;
- (ii) Grey Seals—Halichoerus grypus—for which the area is considered to support a significant presence;

- (iii) River Lamprey—Lampetra fluviatilis—for which the area is considered to support a significant presence;
 (iv) Sea Lamprey—Petromyzon marinus—for which the area is considered to support a significant presence;
 (v) Bottlenose Dolphin—Tursiops truncatus—for which this is considered to be one of the best areas in the UK.

The Statement assesses potential impacts on the SAC features and the effectiveness of mitigation measures in avoiding/reducing impacts. Copies of the Update Note to the Record of Determination and the Statement to Inform an Appropriate Assessment may be inspected, free of charge, at all reasonable hours from 10 June 2009 until 22 July 2009 or within 6 weeks from the date of publication of this notice, whichever period expires later, at the following locations:

Orders Branch, Transport Planning and Governance Division, Transport and Strategic Regeneration, Welsh Assembly Government, Cathays Park, Cardiff CF10 3NQ; and Ceredigion County Council, Trunk Road Department, Market Street, Aberaeron, Ceredigion SA46 0AT

Any person may, not later than 22 July 2009, or within 6 weeks from the date of publication of this notice if such period expires later, express an opinion on the published details of the Statement to Inform an Appropriate Assessment (SIAA) so that the Welsh Ministers can take them into account when deciding whether or not to proceed with this project. Any such expression of opinion must be made in writing to Orders Branch, Transport Planning and Governance Division, Transport and Strategic Regeneration, Welsh Assembly Government, Cathays Park, Cardiff CF10 3NQ quoting Ref BZ890245-310-1. Please note: Should you wish to express an opinion, your correspondence will be considered by the Project Team and we may need to consult with people and organisations outside of the Welsh Assembly Government. As part of the process of consulting with others we may pass information to them, including information you have given us and your personal data. We will however, only disclose your personal details where it is necessary to do so to enable us to deal with issues you have brought to our attention. Where a Trunk Road Scheme becomes the subject of a Public Inquiry (PI), all correspondence is copied to the Inspector of the inquiry and is kept in the PI Library and is publicly available.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The London Gazette is the Official Newspaper of Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been Published by Authority since 1665. The London Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "London Gazette" shall include supplements to the London Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the London Gazette as well as the paper version.

The London Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the London Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the London Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the London Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the London Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;
- 4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;
- 4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;
- 4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and
- 4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;
- 11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
