Warrants Under the Royal Sign Manual

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories QUEEN, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these Presents shall come; Greeting!

Whereas We have taken into Our Royal consideration the great loss and sacrifice of the lives of both male and female persons whilst in the service or former service of Our Armed Forces of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland ("Our Armed Forces");

And Whereas we are desirous of according to the families of those who have lost their lives whilst in the service of Our Armed Forces national recognition of the great personal loss they have sustained; We do by these presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors institute and create a new form of recognition to mark nationally the great loss and sacrifice that the families of those in the service or former service of Our Armed Forces who have died on operations or otherwise as hereinafter provided have sustained;

Firstly: It is ordained that the new recognition shall be designated and styled "The Elizabeth Cross";

Secondly: It is ordained that The Elizabeth Cross shall be of hallmarked silver and in the form of a cross with a laurel wreath passing between the arms. The arms of The Elizabeth Cross shall bear floral symbols of England (Rose), Scotland (Thistle), Ireland (Shamrock) and Wales (Daffodil). The centre of the cross shall bear the crowned cypher of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second. The reverse of the Cross shall be inscribed upon with the name of the person for whom it is in honour.

Thirdly: It is ordained that a Memorial Scroll shall accompany The Elizabeth Cross inscribed with the name of the person to be commemorated by the granting of The Elizabeth Cross.

Fourthly: It is ordained that the persons to be commemorated by the granting of The Elizabeth Cross shall be those who died in the service or former service of Our Armed Forces and who were serving members of the Regular and Reserve Armed Forces and the Royal Fleet Auxiliary when deployed in direct support of a designated operation. That such service should have been in the circumstances described below and that occurred on or after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight or in Palestine between the twenty-seventh day of September one thousand nine hundred and forty-five and the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

Fifthly: The Elizabeth Cross will commemorate those who died whilst serving on a medal earning operation, such an operation shall be one in which deployed personnel received a Campaign Medal, General Service Medal or Operational Service Medal and such service shall include operations where a United Nations, North Atlantic Treaty Organisation or other international body or other nations' campaign medal was accepted for wear in the absence of a United Kingdom medal or eligible personnel or who died on a non-medal earning operation where their death has been caused by the inherent risk of the task. Eligibility is also extended to those who died as a result of terrorism where the available evidence suggests that the person to be commemorated, whether on or off duty, was targeted because of their membership, or former membership of the Our Armed Forces. Eligible personnel who subsequently died prematurely as a result of illness or injury attributed to any of the foregoing qualifying circumstances will also be commemorated by The Elizabeth Cross;

Sixthly: It is ordained that the person eligible to receive The Elizabeth Cross shall be the recorded next of kin or the person determined to be so. And further that a person not so recorded as the next of kin may be eligible for a Memorial Scroll only, if they are:

(i) a parent of the deceased person; or

(ii) the spouse or partner of the deceased person or someone who had a substantive relationship with them.

Seventhly: It is ordained that the grants shall be made only on a recommendation to Us by Our Secretary of State for Defence;

Eighthly: It is ordained that the grant of The Elizabeth Cross shall be accompanied by a miniature and either may be worn by the recipient at that person's discretion;

Ninthly: It is ordained that the names of all those who have been commemorated by the grant of The Elizabeth Cross and the recipient thereof shall be recorded in a Register of such names which shall be maintained by the Secretary of State for Defence;

Tenthly: It is ordained that it shall be competent for Us, Our Heirs and Successors by an Order under Our Sign Manual and upon a recommendation to that effect by Our Secretary of State for Defence, to cancel and annul the grant of The Elizabeth Cross and that thereupon the name of such recipient shall be erased from the Register aforesaid, provided always that it shall also be competent for Us, Our Heirs and Successors to restore such forfeited grant upon such recommendation by Our Secretary of State for Defence;

Eleventhly: We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs or Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these rules and ordinances or any part thereof, by notification under Our Sign Manual.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's
This First day of July 2009

In the Fifty-eighth Year of Our Reign

SALMON AND FRESHWATER FISHERIES ACT 1975 AND WATER RESOURCES ACT 1991.

Limitation of River Lune Estuary Net Fishing Licences Order, River Lune Rod and Line Time Limited Fisheries Byelaw and North West Region Fisheries Byelaw Consequential Amendments.

Notice is hereby given that it is the intention of the Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs to confirm an Order made by the Environment Agency under Section 26 of the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975. Additionally, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by Section 210 and Schedule 25 to the Water Resources Act 1991 the Agency has made a new fishery byelaw and amended the North West Region's fisheries byelaws.

The Order will:

- provide that the number of licences to be issued in any year for fishing for salmon and migratory trout with haaf (or heave) nets in the Lune Estuary shall be limited to 12 (twelve); and with drift (or hang or whammel) nets in the Lower Lune Estuary shall be limited to 7 (seven).

- provide that licences will be allocated to applicants who held and made reasonable use of such a licence in the preceding year.
- provide that not more than one licence shall be issued to each person.

The byelaws will:

- restrict the number of salmon that may be caught and killed when fishing with rod and line on the River Lune to 4 (four) per angler during the period from and including 16 June to and including 31 October following.
- remove all references to Lune Estuary seine nets from the North West Region's fisheries byelaws.

Since the current Net Limitation Order and the associated bag limit for rod and line were introduced in 2000 salmon spawning on the River Lune has exceeded its Conservation Limit every year. The proposed Net Limitation Order in combination with the fisheries byelaws (which effectively maintain the current position) are expected to at least maintain and probably increase the number of salmon spawning in the Lune. They will make an essential contribution to maintaining fish stocks at fully sustainable levels while supporting high quality rod and net fisheries.

The Net Limitation Order and the bag limit byelaw are intended to apply for a period of 10 years. The seine net byelaw amendments are not time limited.

Copies of the Order and the byelaws may be obtained, free of charge, on application to the undersigned.

Any objection to the confirmation of the Order or byelaws should be made in writing and addressed to Barbara Franceschinis, Marine and Freshwater Biodiversity Division, Area 2D, Department for Environment Food and Rural Affairs, Nobel House, 17 Smith Square, London SW1P 3JR no later than Friday 11 September 2009.

At the same time, a copy of all objections should be sent to the undersigned.

Mr Tony Dean, Regional Director, Environment Agency, Richard Fairclough House, Knutsford Road, Warrington WA4 1HG

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The London Gazette is the Official Newspaper of Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been Published by Authority since 1665. The London Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "London Gazette" shall include supplements to the London Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the London Gazette as well as the paper version.

The London Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the London Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the London Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the London Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the London Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;
- 4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;
- 4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;
- 4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and
- 4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;
- 11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
