THE WELSH MINISTERS

THE CARDIFF TO GLAN CONWY TRUNK ROAD (A470) CWM-BACH TO NEWBRIDGE-ON-WYE

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT DECISION BY THE WELSH MINISTERS UNDER PART VA OF THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1980

AND

CONSERVATION (NATURAL HABITATS &C.) REGULATIONS 1994

REGULATION 48: ASSESSMENT OF IMPLICATIONS FOR EUROPEAN SITES

AN APPROPRIATE ASSESSMENT OF THE EFFECTS OF THE PROJECT ON:

THE RIVER WYE AND TRIBUTARIES SPECIAL AREA OF CONSERVATION (SAC)

The Welsh Ministers have decided to proceed with the above project for constructing or improving a highway, for which they are the highway authority.

The project is a new highway scheme with an overall length of 5.7km starting approximately 2km north west of Builth Wells and tying in with the existing A470 just south of Newbridge-on-Wye.

The road will have a carriageway width of 7.3m with verge widths of generally 3.5m made up of a 1m hard strip and 2.5m grass verge.

From its southern tie-in point the scheme runs in a north-westerly direction, leaving the line of the existing A470 (T) in the vicinity of the access to the 'Young Peoples Village' at Court Farm, used during the Royal Welsh Show.

The route travels on embankment on the western side of the existing A470 (T) to Builth Road, where it intersects with Builth Road at a new T junction. It then runs through a short section of exposed rock cutting before crossing over the Dulas Brook and Heart of Wales Railway on a new bridge. It then turns and follows a more northerly direction travelling in cutting through the promontory known as Cefn y Coed before running onto a major embankment alongside and east of the property known as 'Red House'.

North of Red House, the scheme crosses over the existing A470 on a new bridge, continuing northwards on the eastern side of the existing A470 for the remainder of the scheme length. The scheme crosses the River Ithon on a new clear span bridge east of the existing Pont-ar-Ithon Bridge, travelling northwards across the floodplain on embankment before linking into the existing A470 at the southern limit of Newbridge-on-Wye.

The scheme includes 5 T junctions which would link with the county road network in addition to 3 private means of access that link directly with the scheme.

Street lighting is not proposed for the scheme with the exception of two short lengths. The first is at the southern tie in, this will link with existing lighting between the showground at Llanelwedd and Court Farm, home to the 'Young Peoples Village' during the Royal Welsh Show. This lighting is operational for a one week period only during the Royal Welsh Show. The second section of lighting extends from Newbridge-on-Wye to approximately 200m south of the tie in and coincides with the extended 30 mph section from the tie-in point at Newbridge-on-Wye.

The scheme is located within an area of high landscape quality (as defined in the Powys Unitary Development Plan (UDP)) with a number of statutory and non-statutory environmental designations and constraints which include:

- River Wye and Tributaries SAC
- River Wye Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI)
- River Ithon SSSI
- Dulas Brook SSSI
- Aberithon and Bedw Tributaries SSSI
- Neuadd and Tyelo Mires SSSI
- Gwernyfed-fach Quarry SSSI
- Cors Y Llyn SSSI
- Cors Y Llyn National Nature Reserve (NNR)

Areas of woodland, a number of listed buildings; a scheduled ancient monument (Cwrt Llechryd); public footpaths,bridleways and the Lon Las Cycle Way (National Cycleway Network Route No 8) are also located within the scheme area.

The scheme has the potential to have an adverse effect on the SAC and SSSIs and notable species of conservation value. The scheme also has the potential to have an adverse effect on a high quality landscape and several features of archaeological and historic interest. The scheme would result in the loss of Grade 3b (moderate quality) agricultural land and would encroach upon the indicative floodplain of the River Ithon.

It was determined by the Welsh Ministers that the project is a relevant project within Annex II to Council Directive 85/337/EEC ("the Directive") as amended by Council Directive 97/11/EC and it was made subject to an environmental impact assessment in accordance with the Directive.

In accordance with the above determination an Environmental Statement (ES) was prepared and identified the key environmental issues associated with the project. The ES also details the mitigation measures that are to be adopted in order to avoid, reduce and if possible, remedy significant adverse effects on the environment.

At the same time a Statement to Inform an Appropriate Assessment (SIAA) on the River Wye and Tributaries SAC was also prepared under Regulation 48 of the Conservation (Natural Habitats &c.) Regulations 1994.

The Assessment considered the project's implications for the Site in view of the site's conservation objectives.

The impacts on the SAC qualifying features which are examined include habitat loss and degradation; restrictions on movement or disturbance of species; changes in water quality and hydrology; loss of species foraging habitat, resting sites and species mortality.

The reasons for the designation of the site is due to the presence of the following natural habitat and species types of European Community interest:

- Water courses of plain to montane levels with a Ranunculion fluitantis and Callitricho-Batrachion vegetation;
- Transition mires and quaking bogs;
- White-clawed (or Atlantic stream) crayfish Austropotamobius pallipes;
- Sea lamprey-Petromyzon marinus;
- Brook lamprey-Lampetra planeri;
- River lamprey-Lampetra fluviatilis;
- Twaite shad-Alosa fallax;
- Allis shad-Alosa alosa;
- Atlantic salmon-Salmo salar;
- Bullhead-Cottus gobio;
- Otter-Lutra lutra.

The ES, a non-technical summary of it and the SIAA were published on 12 February 2009 and placed on deposit at the locations listed below until 2 April 2009 and comments were invited.

Responses received to the ES, a non-technical summary of it and the SIAA were considered by the Welsh Ministers following a Public Local Inquiry into the project as a whole before reaching their decision to proceed with the improvement.

Copies of the ES, non technical summary, the SIAA, Inspector's Report and Welsh Ministers Decision Letter may be inspected during office/opening hours from 30 December 2009 until 18 February 2010 or within 6 weeks of the publication of this notice, whichever period expires later, at the following locations:

a. that it is not within the powers of the Highways Act 1980, or
b. that any requirement of that Act, or of regulations made thereunder, has not been complied with;
may, within 6 weeks from the date of publication of this Notice, apply to the High Court for the suspension or quashing of the decision to proceed.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The London Gazette is the Official Newspaper of Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been Published by Authority since 1665. The London Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "London Gazette" shall include supplements to the London Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the London Gazette as well as the paper version.

The London Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the London Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the London Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the London Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the London Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statue or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazettemay be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
