

West Midlands

Voluntary Group

Katharine House Hospice Volunteers

Shropshire Aphasic Society

Douglas Macmillan Hospice Volunteers

Imagination Storytelling Café

The Volunteers of the National Memorial Arboretum

Wye Amateur Boxing Club

FC Phoenix Disability Development Centre

Scale

Nishkam Civic Association

Landywood & District Voluntary Help Centre

Telford Volunteer Police Cadets

Activity Description

Offering the highest quality of care for people in the community affected by progressive illnesses in Mid-Staffordshire

Provision of peer support group for individuals with aphasia and their families

Helping to ensure patients and their families achieve the best possible quality of life

Promoting innovative reading activities with pre-school children in a deprived area in Coventry

Supporting and welcoming guests, maintaining the facilities and memorials alongside wildlife and conservation duties

Providing a high standard sporting facility open to all members of the community in Hereford

Working with people with disabilities through encouragement and active exercises to increase their ability to work with others

Supporting the health and education of children and adults with severe and profound multiple learning difficulties in Staffordshire and the West Midlands

Providing nishkam (selfless) services to help build strong, cohesive, connected and sustainable communities in Birmingham

Supporting vulnerable and isolated community members with recreational and social activities plus transport for medical needs

Providing a Crucial Crew workshop to assist with training for young people on awareness of crime, bullying and environmental dangers

Yorkshire & The Humber

Voluntary Group

The Ground Floor Project

Cave Rescue Organisation

Elland Silver Band

Activity Description

Creating and providing local community activities and services to people in Calderdale

Providing cave and mountain rescue throughout the Yorkshire dales

Teaching brass instruments and promoting British brass band traditions to all community groups and through concert performance