From Tuesday April 4. to Saturday April 8. 1721.

Stockholm, March 15, O. S.

ON the 9th Instant the King of Sweden went to a Seat called Swarta about 20 Leagues from hence, where his Majesty met the Prince his Brother, and the 10th in the Evening they came together to this City. The next Morning the Prince was complimented by the Senators, foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, on his Arrival. On the 11th Count Freytag, the Imperial Envoy, set out for Copenhagen. This Morning Count Lilliested and Baron Strumfield set out for Grislehaven, whence they propose to pass over to Ahland, and thence to Finland, in order to open the Conferences which it has been agreed to hold at Neustat with the Muscovite Plenipotentiaries. The King having lately appointed a Commission of Members of the Chancery, not only to inquire into the Conduct of M. Hopken, late Resident from this Crown at the Court of Vienna, but also to pass such a Sentence in the Case as they shall find agreeable to Justice and the Laws of the Kingdom; those Commissioners, of whom Count Banier is President, sat Yesterday for the first time.

Stockholm, March 22, O. S. On the 20th Instant a Muscovite Officer, who came round the Bothnick Gulph, arrived here from Petersbourg: It is said he was but 16 Days on the Way, and has brought a Letter from General Bruce for Count Lilliested, to acquaint him that the said General and his Colleague, as Plenipotentiaries from the Czar, were on their Departure for Neustat, and therefore desired the Swedish Plenipotentiaries would also hasten their Journey thither; whereupon an Express was immediately sent to Count Lilliested and Baron Strumfield, who were then at Grislehaven, with Orders to proceed on their Journey with all Diligence. Yesterday the King, Queen and Prince of Hesse dined at Ulrichsdahl, a Place about a League from hence, and returned to Town in the Evening. This Morning the King and Prince set out for Upsal, whence his Majesty designs to proceed to Gasse, to view the several Dispositions that have during the Winter been made in the Neighbourhood of that Place, to oppose the Muscovites in case they should attempt this Year to land thereabouts. General Hamilton accompanies the King, he being this Year again appointed to command the Body of Troops which are to defend that Part of the Country.

Paris, April 12. M. Fagon, Trudaine, Machault, and Ferrant, are named Commissioners to examine the Accompts of the India Company, and to make an Inventory of all their Effects. And eight Persons are appointed, in whose Hands the said Effects are to be sequestered in the King's Name, till a new Company be formed. The Arrêt which declares the old Company Bankrupt, is in the Press, and 'tis expected will be published To-Morrow. That Arrêt is to be followed by another for erecting a new Company to carry on the Trade, of which 'tis said Mess. Paris will have the chief Direction. On the 10th Instant the King performed the usual Ceremony of washing the Feet of 12 Poor, whom he served afterwards at Table, the Dishes being carried up by the Duke Regent, the Duke of Chartres, and the rest of the Princes of the Blood. After which the King went in Ceremony to hear Mass at the Church of the Capuchins in the Street St. Honoré; the Feuillans, to whose Church he used formerly to go, having incurred his Majesty's Displeasure, on account of their having renewed their Appeal from the Pope's Constitution. Four new Corps de Garde are established in this City, for the better preventing all Disorders. The Duke Regent has given Orders to Mess. Paris, to send two Millions of Livres in Specie into Provence, for the Relief of such Places as are yet infected with the Plague; and Directions are likewise given to the Intendants of the neighbouring Provinces, to furnish them with all sorts of Provisions. The Pension which the Duke of Orleans gave to M. Longepierre lately deceased, has since been conferred upon M. de Fontenelle.

Berlin, April 5. The King of Prussia came hither from Potsdam the 2d Instant. Major-General Meyer having notified the Death of the Queen of Denmark, the King of Prussia with this Court, and all the foreign Ministers, went into Mourning Yesterday for Six Weeks.

Hague, April 15. The Man of War that is to carry the Flag of M. Somersdick, Admiral of the Squadron designed for the Mediterranean, as also the three other Ships fitted out by the Admiralty of Amsterdam for that Service, are already at the Texel; and the rest of that Squadron will soon be ready. The young Prince of Nassau-Friseland fell ill of the Small-Pox at Lewarden some Days ago, but is in a fair Way of Recovery.

Whitehall, April 8.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable the Lord Cornwallis, to be Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant the Office of Postmaster-General to the Honourable Edward Carteret, Esq; and Galfridus Walpole, Esq;

Whitehall, April 8, 1721.

Whereas the several Reduced Officers of His Majesty's Land-Forces and Marines, whose Names are hereunder set down, have not received the Half-Pay due to them between the 25th Day of December 1718, and the 24th of December 1719: These are therefore to require them, (if alive,) to make their Claims to the said Half-Pay in Thirty Days from the Date hereof, either in Person or by Letter of Attorney, otherwise the same will be disposed of in such manner as His Majesty shall please hereafter to direct by Warrant. Geo. Treby.
