LAFARGE AGGREGATES & CONCRETE UK

SECTION 48, PLANNING ACT 2008 REGULATION 4, INFRASTRUCTURE PLANNING (APPLICATIONS: PRESCRIBED FORMS AND PROCEDURE) REGULATIONS 2009

NOTICE PUBLICISING A PROPOSED APPLICATION FOR A DEVELOPMENT CONSENT ORDER ("DCO") TO DIVERT A 1.2 KM SECTION OF THE ROBIN HOOD RAILWAY LINE PASSING THROUGH WHITWELL QUARRY, DERBYSHIRE

Notice is hereby given that Lafarge Aggregates & Concrete UK ("Lafarge") of Granite House, Granite Way, Syston, Leicestershire LE7 1PL intends to apply to the Infrastructure Planning Commission ("IPC") under section 37 of the Planning Act 2008 ("the Act") for the above-mentioned DCO ("the proposed application").

Lafarge extracts high purity dolomitic limestone at its Whitwell Quarry complex located between Whitwell and Creswell in Derbyshire. The northern part of the quarry is crossed by a short length of railway line, part of what is known as the Robin Hood Railway Line, which runs between Nottingham and Worksop. The railway passes through a tunnel within the quarry, and planning permission was granted by Derbyshire County Council in 2006 for the extraction of the rock in which the tunnel is formed.

Therefore the proposed application to the IPC seeks consent for the diversion of approximately 1.2 kilometres of the Robin Hood Railway Line at Whitwell Quarry, including the 500 metre section which passes through the tunnel, to enable the rock around the tunnel to be quarried. The proposed application would seek a DCO authorising, amongst other things:

- the construction of a new section of railway track in a cutting within the quarry, roughly parallel to and some 70 metres to the south-east of the existing line;
- the construction of a bridge to carry the railway track across an underpass that will be used by quarry vehicles to move between the areas of the quarry to the north and south of the railway;
- the permanent diversion of public footpaths currently located around the western tunnel portal and on land above the tunnel, to new alignments near to the diverted railway line, with public access across the railway preserved by the construction of a footbridge;
- the temporary stopping up of public footpaths, which may be necessary for critical periods during the construction works; and
- the compulsory purchase of land and rights in land, in case this is required to facilitate the diversion.

Lafarge has agreed with the owner of the railway track, Network Rail, a scheme to ensure that the existing railway line continues to operate normally while the diverted section of track is constructed. Once the diversion is complete, it is anticipated that to connect the diverted line and associated signalling will require two short closures at weekends. It is anticipated that such closures would take place from late Saturday night and through Sunday so that by Monday morning the normal timetable for passengers would be resumed. The precise length and timing of these closure periods would be agreed with Network Rail. Once operational, the diverted section would not have a negative impact on passenger train timetables or service quality.

The proposed diversion works are "EIA development" for the purposes of The Infrastructure Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations 2009. This means that the proposed works constitute development for which an Environmental Impact Assessment would be required. Lafarge's proposed application for a DCO would therefore be accompanied by an Environmental Statement, containing the information that is required for the IPC to make that assessment.

The documents, plans and maps showing the nature and location of the proposed development, including information so far compiled about environmental impacts ("preliminary environmental information"), are available for inspection free of charge from Friday 15 October 2010 until Friday 10 December 2010 at the places and times set out below:

Whitwell Library, Community Centre, Portland Street, Whitwell, Derbyshire S80 4NN (Opening hours: Mondays 2-7pm, Wednesdays 10am-1pm and 2-5pm, Fridays 2-7pm, Saturdays 9.30am-1pm; closed Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays);

Creswell Library, Elmton Road, Creswell, Derbyshire S80 4EY (Opening hours: Mondays 2-7pm, Tuesdays 10am-1pm, Thursdays 10am-1pm and 2-5pm, Fridays 2-7pm, Saturdays 9.30am-1pm; closed Wednesdays and Sundays); and Lafarge Aggregates, North Area Office, Southfield Lane, Whitwell, Derbyshire S80 3LJ (Opening hours: Mondays to Fridays 9am-4pm; closed Saturdays and Sundays).

The above-mentioned documents, plans and maps will also be available online through the Lafarge website at www.lafarge.co.uk/community from Friday 15 October 2010. Copies of the documents, plans and maps can be provided on request to the address below, and may be subject to a reasonable charge up to a maximum of £150 for a printed hard copy and £15 for an electronic copy on CD.

Lafarge is now consulting on the proposed application. Any representations on the proposals should be made in writing to David Atkinson at Lafarge Aggregates & Concrete UK, North Area Office, Southfield Lane, Whitwell, Worksop S80 3LJ or by email to david.atkinson@uk.lafarge.com. The deadline for receipt by Lafarge of responses is Friday 10 December 2010.

Lafarge requests that responses state the grounds of the representation, indicate who is making it, and provide an address to which any correspondence relating to the representation may be sent. Please note that responses will be made public.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The London Gazette is the Official Newspaper of Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been Published by Authority since 1665. The London Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "London Gazette" shall include supplements to the London Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the London Gazette as well as the paper version.

The London Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the London Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the London Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the London Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the London Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statue or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
