Why have the charges changed?

The Council has altered the fee structure, to match the new bandings used by the DVLA to price road tax. Fees have increased for some customers, as the Council wishes to further encourage the use of cleaner vehicles. However, for some customers with lesser-polluting vehicles, the permit fee has been reduced.

How does this affect you?

The charges will apply from 1st January 2010 for all new and renewed resident parking permits.

If your current resident parking permit expires after 1st January 2010, you will be able to use it until it is due for renewal, at which point the new charges will apply.

Information on the new charges will be included in the permit renewal pack.

How do I know what band my car is?

For vehicles registered before 1st March 2001, charges are based on engine size.

For vehicles registered on or after 1st March 2001, charges are based on CO2 emissions.

Your vehicle registration document (V5), issued by the DVLA provides details or, alternatively you can go to the DVLA website at www.vehiclelicence.gov.uk, click on vehicle enquiry and type in your vehicle registration number and make. Details relating to the vehicle make and model can also be found at www.vcacrufeldata.org.uk.

If you have any further enquires please contact us by telephone 0207527 2000 or you can visit our website www.Islington.gov.uk

The Welsh Ministers propose to improve a 9.3km long section of the A477 trunk road, for which they are the highway authority, between St Clears and Red Roses in Carmarthenshire in south west Wales.

The A477 is an important part of the Assembly's strategic road network in south west Wales linking the M4 Motorway to the ferry port of Pembroke Dock. This Project was included in the National Transport Plan issued in March 2010 as part of "a programme of works to the east-west corridor which are being undertaken to improve reliability, journey time, safety and local environmental issues" with a start by date of 2014.

The proposed Project would involve the provision of 9.3km of off- and on-line improvements from west of Red Roses to the St Clears roundabout. It would replace a section of sub-standard existing trunk road that is below current highway standards, which passes through a steep-sided valley through which the Afon Hydfron flows.

A single carriageway road is proposed; this typically has a single lane in each direction forming a 7.3m wide road with 1m hardstrips. It would also include sections of 11.5m wide 2+1 lane road (two lanes eastbound and one lane westbound or vice versa) and climbing lanes to provide overtaking opportunities in a particular direction. Two lengths of climbing lane being provided on the westbound carriageway and one length of overtaking section provided on the eastbound carriageway. The climbing lane and overtaking sections of road would include a 1m red-coloured median incorporating double white lines and hatched road markings between the opposing flows and 1m hardstrips.

The proposed verges would be soft construction, topsoiled and seeded with a minimum width of 2.5m, although widened sections would be utilised to provide the required forward visibility for drivers, accommodate drainage, street furniture and safety barriers where appropriate.

Modifications and de-trunking of the existing A477 Trunk Road between Red Roses and Llanddowror would also be included in the Project before it is handed over to Carmarthenshire County Council. This work would comprise the relocation of speed limit signs at the entry and exit points of Red Roses and Llanddowror to create traffic calming gateway features. In addition the integrity of the existing pavement and safety barriers would be improved.

The Project would require the construction of 15 new structures which vary in size and form to suit the particular function of the intended crossing. There would be four overbridges carrying public roads and one carrying an access track over the new road. A single span bridge would be provided over the Afon Hydfron to span the meandering river and facilitate wildlife passage. Six underpasses would maintain landowner access and / or Public Rights of Way (PRoW) one of which "Pilgrims Way" has historic significance. In addition three smaller structures would be provided to convey mammals and to provide flood relief passage under the road.

The Project passes through two distinct landscape areas. The first area comprises the western and central sections of the Project. This runs through an area of undulating plateau/ridge top landscape between the valleys of the Afon Taf (to the north) and Afon Hydfron (to the south and east). It is dominated by pastoral farming, occasional woodlands and associated scattered buildings, with a small village at Red Roses. The second area at the eastern end comprises the valley of the Afon Taf and its tributary, the Afon Hydfron.

An important landscape feature is the woodlands along the scarp slope on the western side of the Afon Taf Valley and above the village of Llanddowror. The village is at the mouth of the Hydfron valley, with occasional properties located further west along the existing A477 which are subject to flooding. This part of the Afon Taf valley has a long history of flooding and has areas of wet grasslands, and inundation meadows. On the northern side of the valley is Backe which also overlooks the floodplain.

There are a number of European and nationally ecologically designated sites located within 30km of the Project which include the following: Carmarthen Bay and Estuaries European Marine Site (EMS) comprising of Carmarthen Bay and Estuaries SAC, Carmarthen Bay Special Protection Area (SPA), Burry Inlet SPA and Burry Inlet Ramsar site; Pembrokeshire Bat Sites and Bosherton Lakes SACs; North Pembrokeshire Woodlands SAC; Limestone Coast of South West Wales SAC; Afon Tywi SAC; Pembrokeshire Marine SAC; Afon Teifi SAC; Afon Cleddau/Cleddau Rivers SAC and Aber Taf/Taf Estuary Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI).

In addition to this the area around the Project is also known to support a number of species which are protected by law such as Lamprey (a fish), Bats, Otter, Water Vole, Reptiles, Badger, Goshawk and Barn Owl.

The existing A477 Trunk Road crosses the Afon Taf to the west of St Clears via Pont Newydd Bridge which is a Grade II Listed structure. A defended earthworks enclosure, known as Dol Garn, lies to the immediate west of Pont Newydd and is designated as a Scheduled Ancient Monument (SAM). A Neolithic Henge has recently been recorded very close to the study area near Vaynor Farm. An earthwork of unknown provenance, which is recorded as Llanddowror Castell, lies to the immediate south of the Project within the valley area.

The cultural heritage value of this area is evident by virtue of the Landscapes of Historic Interest in Wales designation to the south of St Clears.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT DETERMINATION
BY THE WELSH MINISTERS UNDER SECTION 105(A) OF THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1980

It has been determined by the Welsh Ministers that the project is a relevant project within Annex II to the Council Directive 85/337/EEC ("the Directive") as amended by Council Directive 97/11/EC and that it should be made subject to an environmental impact assessment in accordance with the Directive.

In accordance with the above determination an Environmental Statement has been prepared which identifies the main environmental issues associated with the Project. The Environmental Statement also details the mitigation measures that are to be provided in order to avoid, reduce and, if possible, remedy the Project's significant adverse effects.

The Project involves direct physical effects on parts of Carmarthen Bay and Estuaries EMS, and also has the potential to cause indirect effects on mobile species both from construction activity and the operation of the road from; Pembrokeshire Bat Sites and Bosherton Lakes SACs; North Pembrokeshire Woodlands SAC; Limestone Coast of South West Wales SAC; Afon Tywi SAC; Pembrokeshire Marine SAC; Afon Teifi SAC, and Afon Cleddau/Cleddau Rivers SAC.

This places a requirement on Welsh Ministers to prepare a Statement to Inform an Appropriate Assessment (SIAA) on the Carmarthen Bay and Estuaries EMS; Pembrokeshire Bat Sites and Bosherton Lakes SACs; North Pembrokeshire Woodlands SAC; Limestone Coast of South West Wales SAC; Afon Tywi SAC; Pembrokeshire Marine SAC; Afon Teifi SAC and Afon Cleddau/Cleddau Rivers SAC in accordance with Regulation 61 of The Conservation of Habitats and Species Regulations 2010. This Assessment has to consider the Project's implications for the Sites in view of their conservation objectives.

STATEMENT TO INFORM THE APPROPRIATE ASSESSMENT ON THE CARMARTHEN BAY AND ESTUARIES EUROPEAN MARINE SITE (EMS) COMPRISING OF CARMARTHEN BAY AND ESTUARIES SAC, CARMARTHEN BAY SPECIAL PROTECTION AREA (SPA), BURRY INLET SPA AND BURRY INLET RAMSAR SITE; PEMBROKESHIRE BAT SITES AND BOSHERSTON LAKES SACS; NORTH PEMBROKESHIRE WOODLANDS SAC; LIMESTONE COAST OF SOUTH WEST WALES SAC; AFON TYWI SAC; PEMBROKESHIRE MARINE SAC; AFON TEIFI SAC; AND AFON CLEDDAU/CLEDDAU RIVERS SAC

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The London Gazette is the Official Newspaper of Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been Published by Authority since 1665. The London Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "London Gazette" shall include supplements to the London Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the London Gazette as well as the paper version.

The London Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the London Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the London Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the London Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the London Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
