Paris, June 25.

'HE Duke de Maine being reconciled with the Court, is reftored to his former Employments of Great Malter of the Artillery, and Collonel of the Swife, but that of Superintendant of the King's E ducation which he had likewife hereiofore, remains to the Dake of Boarbon. It is generally believed he will be re-established very foon in all his Honours and Prerogatives of Prince of the Blood. The Apartments which this Prince had formerly at the Arfenal are fitting up for him with all Diligence. On the 22d Inftant a Council of Regency was held, wherein M. D'Armenonville Secretary of State, made his Report of the Memorial the Duke de la Force presented lately to the King; but it was refolved unanimoufly that this Memorial should be rejected, and the Petitioner obliged to take his Tryal before the Parliament, which will now go on with their Process against him. The same Day there Procels against him. was a Ball at the Opera, preceded by a Con-cert of Mufick for the Diversion of the Turkifh Ambaffadour; and the Day following, being the Eve of the Festival of St. John the Baptist, there were Fire-works as usual at the Place of the Greve, which that Ambaffadour faw likewife from the Town-Houfe, where he was magnificently entertained by the Magistrates of this City. Madam de Rohan, Ab-bels of Jouare, and Sister to the Cardinal of that Name, died some Days ago, the King has given that Abbey to Madam de Rohan, Niece to the Deceased. Madam de St. Contest, Mother to M. de St. Contest, one of the King's Ple-nipotentiaries at Cambray, died also last Week. There is a Report that the King has asked for a Cardinal's Cap for M. de Villeroy Archbishop of Lyons. Some Advices from Rome fay, that the Pope had refolved to establish a Congregation for examining whether the late Pope's Conftitution ought to have been received, and whether those of the Clergy of France, who refused it, had a Right to to do. M. Holzendorff, Secretary to Collonel Stanhope, arrived here last Night from Madrid, and proceeded a few Hours after on his Journey to England.

Whitehall, June 20. On Friday Night, the 16th Inftant, arrived from Madrid Mr. Holzendorff, Sccretary to Collonel Stanhope His Majefty's Ambaffadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of Spain, with the Treaty of Peace and Commerce figned between His Majefty and the Catholick King : And Yesterday an Express arrived from Madtid, who has brought to the Marquels de Pozzobueno, Minister Plenipotentiary of the King of Spain, Orders to deliver His Catholick Majesty's Cedulas, authorizing the South-Sea Company to carry on their Trade with New-Spain as before the War.
