Whereas a Book hath been lately printed, pretended to be the Life of Dr. John Barwick, Dean of St. Paul's, written in Latin by his Brother Dr. Peter Barwick, &c. this is to certify, that the said Book is not the genuine Life of Dr. John Barwick, written by his said Brother. For the Editor having in his Hands two Manuscripts of that Life; one, being the Author's first and undigested Thoughts; and the other, as it was afterwards by him corrected and perfected: Instead of publishing it from this last Manuscript, (which the Author left in his own Hand writing, to be preserved in his Family, and still further to secure it entire and uncorrupted to Posterity, sent a Transcript of it, with the original Letters to which it refers, to be lodged in the Library of St. John's College in Cambridge, where he had his Education,) hath made a Compilation of both; inserting what the Author, upon better Information, had rejected, and modelling the whole according to his own Humour and Fancy. Which new and unjustifiable Proceeding being injurious to the Author, and contrary to his Intentions; His Family, in order to do Justice to his Memory, and for the Satisfaction of the Publick, find themselves obliged to give Notice, that they will publish the said Life from the genuine Manuscript in their Custody, with such Chronological and Historical Observations as shall be judged necessary to illustrate it.

TO be fid, by Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before Richard Godfrey, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, several Messuages, Lands, and Tenements in the Parishes of Llanoullon, Whitton, Llanvihangel-Rhydyon, Llanbadarne-Vawr, and Llanddewy, in the County of Radnor, about the yearly Value of 60 l. being late the Estate of Dame Joan Hartington, deceased, and by her conveyed to Trustees in Trust, to raise the Sum of 1000 l. for Payment of the Debts of Sir Thomas Morgan, Bar. declared: And such of the Creditors of the said Sir Thomas Morgan, as do not come before the said Master, and prove their Debts in six Months from the Date hereof, will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
