From Bunuay, August 7. 10 Epursdep August 10. 1671.

Warfaw , July 28

Ur last advices from the W/raine, have not a little startled us here, which tell. us, that the lastans and Cossacks are joyned together, with intention to attacque fome part of this kingdom; and that to that end, they were divided into three confiderable Bodies, the one under the Command of Dorofensko, being to continue in the Ultrain; the other being led by the Cham of Tariary's Son, was marching towards Walachia; and the laft by the Cham himfelf, and was to move towards Podolia.

All things are now ready for his Majefties journey, who it is faid, expects onely till the Mefcovite Amballador hath his dispatches, in order to his return, after which, he will immediately take his way towards Lublyn. The Leavies which are making by the respective Palatinats, go on, it is said, but very flowly, infomuch that his Majefty is fending to preis them to a more eager pursuit of that affair.

Rome, July 25. The Queen Regent of Spaine, having by Letters to the Prince Doria, at length declared her approbation of his intended Marriage with the Sifter of the Prince Pamphilio, they have been here folemnly contracted in the prefence of feveral of their relations, and many other perfons of quality; it is faid, the Marriage will not be confurmated till about October, and then it is intended to be at Genoua, with great fplendor and magnificence.

We are told, that Father Nitard, heretofore Confessor to the Queen Regent of Spaine, is nominated by that Queen for a Cardinals Cap. The Bishop of Laon having fince his arrival at this Court, ta ken upon him the care of the affairs of his most Christian Majesty here he hath likewise caused the Arms of France to be placed over the Gate of his Palace, and pretends to the fame immunities and priviledges as other Formien Ministers enjoy.

Some difference having lately happened between the Servants of the Ambassador of Portagal, and fome of the Inhabitants of the splace, not without occasioning some milehief a a diffurbance, the Ambassador to prevent the like for the surger, hath streightly chared his Servants that they shall not wear their Swords after it is dark

The Prince Pamphilio hath now accomplished his Marriage with the Niece of the Cardinal Fac chihetti at Spoleto; th ugh it is faid, that his Mother the Princels Roffano flems not yet very well fatisfied with it.

Genoua, July 29. Here are at prefent in Port, three French Galleys, under the command of Hippolito Centurione, and intend to part hence again to morrow or next day, to joyn, as is faid, with their General the Conde deVivone, or as others think for Maltha.

Some days fince came hither a French Officer, with Commiffion to raife 500 Men for his most Christian Majesties Service, which was immediately agreed to by this Senate.

Fenice, July 30. Here is going hence two Con-the part of this Republick; in their Company, goes the Katherine bound for Zant, and on her Sur Clement Harby the English Conful of that place.

Sir Clement Harby the English Conful of that place. The Corfairs of Barbary, notwithitanding their late great and frequent loss continue very much to inteft these Seas, to the great diffurbance of our Navigation; we hear of three Dutch Merchant men of a confiderable value lately taken by them.

From Constantinople we have not any thing of news, fave that the Sultanefs continues her private practices to firengthen her party 2 and render the Government of the Grand Signior odious. Procurator. Nani is returned to Zara, with intentions to conter on fome fragters with General Morofini, before he hath his first interview with the Basia of Boffina, which was to have been the 12 instant, but upon fome considerations was put of till the 25.

General Barbaro is still at Istria, endeavoring to adjust matters there, in the dividing of Lands between the Heydukes and those Families, which upon the Surrender of Candia repaired thither, feveral difficulties arising, which can hardly be determined upon the place, those Heydukes have with the leave of the taid General, fent Deputies hither to follicite their concerns.

We have not of late heard any thing of the Turkish Fleet, though it is faid, they are still roveing to and fro at Sea. Here is a report of another rencounter the Maltha Galleys have lately had with the Corfairs, but without any certainty. Vienna, August 1. The Turks have been of late Vienna, August 1. The Turks have been of late in great numbers upon our Frontiers, keeping us fill in fear, of what their intentions may be to draw fo near us; upon which feveral Regiments were ordered to march that way to watch their motions, and to be ready at hand to prevent them, in any defign they might have upon fome of the Frontier places; but fince we hear, t at they are all retired again, as is faid, towards Dalmatia; certain it is, we are at prefent much eafed of our fears, infomuch, that our Troops are reported to have orders to march again to their feveral Garrifons.

The Emperor hath lately befowed the Government of Waradin on the General Soufa. Yefterday the Turkifh Aga, having the day before taken his leave of General Montcuculi Prefident of the Council of War, and been prefented by the Emperorors order with feveral Gifts, went hence by water on his return to Buda. We daily expect here the Sieur Perts, who lately went hence Envoy Extraordinary to the Grand Signior, to confirm on the part of his Imperial Majefty, the peace and good correspondence eftablisht between the two Empires.

The Recruits for the old Regiments are at prefent compleat; it is faid, here hath been lately fent from hence for Tyrol; a confiderable fumme. of Money for the raifing of Menthere. The Imperial Regiment are ordered to be ready for a march, whither, is not yet faid. Marseilles, August 4. The 10 inflant came into this Port 10 of our Galleys, after having been abroad two Months; it is said, that the other Squadron under the Command of Monsfieur de Vivonne is likewise recalled home. We are told, of another Sally man of War taken by some French Frigats.

We have advice from Cadi?, that the 14 past parted thence the Pleet defigned for the New Spaine, under the conduct of Don Henrique Henriques, Cologne, August 7. The Bishop of Strasburgh Cologne, August 7. The Bisthop of Strasburgh haih fince the late accident of his Pages taking a away the Burgemasters Staff, caused all his Move ables to be removed from hence to Bon, pretending they are not fafe here, from the violence of the common people, who it seems, flomack highly that indignity offered to their cheif Magistrate, notwith. Randing the Bisthop not onely alledged his not knowing of the thing, but readily offered to give them what fatisfaction he in honor could. In the mean time our affairs continue here as formerly, the work of our Fortifications goes on with the usual vigor and diligence: And though we feem to promife our felves the continuance of our Peace, yet our Preparations are not less then if we expected the contrary.

Bruffells, August 9. On Thursday last his Excellency the Count de Monterey lodged at Bruges, and the next Morning parted from thence again for Iper, and the other places he intends to visit in Flanders. Here is lately arrived Don Bernardo the Salinas from England, where he had been on the part of our Governor.

We are told, of four Deputies which are coming hither from the States Ceneral of the United Provinces, to confer, as is faid, with his Excellency, concerning matters relating to the prefent pofture of affairs, and that the Baron d' Ifola will accompany them on that occasion. Our advices from Cologne feem to affure us, that that place will not be befieged this Summer.

Bruffels, August 12. By an Extraordinary Courier we have Letters from Spaine, of the 27 past, which tell us of the arrival of the Marquis de Villars at that Court, in quality of Ambassiador from the Crown of France. On Munday lass we had of the death of Don Estevan de Gamara for Flanders, to receive his Excellencies lass orders and instructions, inorder to his going to the Hague, to reside there as Ambassiador from his Catholick Majesty.

From Munfter we hear, that the Bishop continues to disband his late raised Troops, but that the Soldiers complain extreamly of their Horses being taken from them, which they pretend were promifed them, when they entered into that Service.

Hamburgh, Aug. 11. Our Advices from Stockbolm fay, That they were making ready there, Fourteen flout Men of War, for the transportation of fome Forces: That the Senate did not yet meet, by reason of the absence of some of the Principal Members: And that their Majessies were still diverting themselves in the Country.

From Lunenburgh they write, That thole Dukes were going to raile more men, and that they had to that end already given out fome Commiffions.

This day was muftered here an other new raifed Company of Foot.

Our Letters from Poland, speak of new fears of the Tartars and Cossick's being joyned together for the subduing the Ukraine: That the King was upon his departure from Warfam, but only deferred his journey for some days, till Nazotskin, the Moscovice Ambaffador, had difpatched his affairs he came about, that so he might have his last Audience of him there.

Hague, August 14. On Tuesday was held a conference between the Heer Raedt, Penfionaris of Zealand, together with the other Deputies of that Province, and the Deputies of the States of Holland, concerning feveral matters now in debate in the Affembly of the States General; what fuccess their meeting then had, we as yet know not; in the interim we hear not of any thing concluded on by the States of Holland, concerning the French Wines, &c who it is faid, may feperate again this week, or the beginning of the next.

Monfieur de Groot Ambassador from these States in France, hath at length obtained leave to return from that employment, so that he may in a schort time be expected here; it is not yet certainly said, who shall succeed him there, though some report, that Monsieur Beverning late Ambassador in Spaine; and now on his way home, is designed for it.

The Body of the decealed Spanish Ambastador, it is faid, is to be carried to Bruffels or Ghent, in order to its interment there. To morrow are expected here in Town, the Deputies of the refpective Admiralties, it is thought, that whilst all things feem to promile at prefent, the continuance of a peaceable Summer this year, our Fleet may be called home and laid up again.

Here hath lately been another conference between the Deputies of these States, and those of the Elector of Cologne, who is Prince of Liege; concerning la Rochette, with hopes of a good iffue in those affairs; fo that we are now told, of an exchange that may be made by this State for the Soveraignty of Liet, in lieu of which, they will yield the said place to that Elector.

Paris, August 15. On Saturday last were given out 187 Commissions to as many Officers, by the Sieurs de St. Povange and Charpentier deputed for that purpose by Monseur de Louvoy; and it issaid, that at the Kings return from Fontainbleau, 200 Commissions more may be given out for the raising of as many Companies of French Foot, which are to consist of 50 Men apiece; The Leavies of Horse, are, not to be gone about till Offober, when those for the Foot are finished. It is faid that the Sieur de Mondevergues, now

It is faid that the Sieur de Mondevergues, now Prifoner at PortLouis, is by the Kings order to be removed hither, for the more convenient carrying on of his Procefs. From Vitrè in Britaine we have Letters telling us, that the Duke de Chaulnes, Governor of that Province, had alfembled the States there to his great fatisfaction, they expressing a ready inclination to concur, in whatever he should propole for the good of his Majestics fervice.

Whitehall, Angust 10. Yesterday His Majesty, accompanied by his Royal Highness, and his Highness Prince Rupert, attended by several of the Nobility, and other persons of Quality of the Court, went hence for Windsor, to spend some few days in hunting.
