THIS Day the Sub Governour and Deputy-Governour, with many of the Directors of the South-Sea Company, presented the following humble Address to His Majesty, being introduced by the Right Honourable Robert Walpole, Esq; Chancellor of the Exchequer. They were received very graciously, had all the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand, and His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Roger Hudson and Thomas Frederick, Esqs; two of the Directors.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

THE South-Sea Company, in a General Court assembled, having a most dutiful and grateful Sense of your Majesty's great Goodness and Regard to your whole People, humbly crave Leave to approach your sacred Person, expressing their hearty and unfeigned Thanks for the eminent Instance of your particular Care of them in your late Treaty with the Catholick King, whereby they are made acquainted, that by your most gracious Stipulations they are not only restored, in the most ample Manner, to a Trade which they now hope to see flourish under your Majesty's Protection; but that a just Restitution is also to be made of their great Effects seized in the Spanish Dominions.

As your Majesty has thus signalized your prevailing Influence in procuring this reasonable Justice to them by the Treaty, we most humbly beseech your Majesty's Pleasure may be so signified to your Ministers at the Court of Madrid, that no Delays there may prevent the happy Effect of it, nor any Difficulties be put upon the Trade which they are now carrying on, and by which they hope to give fresh Encouragement to the Industry and Labour of the Woollen and other Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Your Majesty's great Clemency to your People, and your unwearied Endeavours for their Good, make it our Duty, but more our Inclination, to profess a steady Zeal and warm Affection to your Royal Person and Government, to set up fervent Prayers for Success in your Negotiations, and that you may enjoy a long, peaceful, and happy Reign.

By Order of the General Court of the South-Sea Company.
