Eneco Round 3 Development Limited

INTRODUCTION

Eneco Round 3 Development Limited (Eneco) is publishing this summary of the Statement of Community Consultation (SOCC) in relation to the proposed offshore wind park Navitus Bay and its associated works. This document outlines how Eneco will consult on the Project with the local community, residents, organisations and visitors to the area. A detailed copy of the SOCC is available on the Eneco website: www.navitusbaywindpark.co.uk

The Crown Estate has awarded Eneco the right to develop an offshore wind park to the west of the Isle of Wight and south of Bournemouth. Eneco intends to apply to the Infrastructure

Planning Commission (IPC) for a Development Consent Order (DCO) to permit Eneco to build and operate the Project.

Together with the offshore wind park and cables, onshore works are required to connect the wind park to the national electricity network. The cable corridor is expected to run north from the Offshore Development Area, towards a landfall location in Dorset or Hampshire. Onshore cables will then be laid underground to a substation close to the existing National Grid substation at Mannington. The application for the DCO to authorise the Project will include:

- offshore wind turbines to provide between 900 and 1200MW (powering between 615,000 and 820,000 homes per year);
- foundations and scour protection material;
- up to two meteorological monitoring masts;
- up to four offshore substations; export cables buried under the seabed to link the offshore substations to the turbines;
- onshore buried jointing pits and cabinets, near the landfall;
- onshore underground cables; and
- onshore substations.

Offshore wind turbines are generally three bladed turbines and vary in size. Eneco is considering the use of a turbines ranging between 3.6MW to 9MW. A 7MW with a tip height of 187m has recently been manufactured and is likely that a 9MW turbine with a height of approximately 205m will be in production by the time Eneco reaches construction. Eneco will review the size of turbines it constructs in consultation with stakeholders. The number of turbines required will dependent on their capacity. It is likely that there will be between 180 and 250 turbines. Final designs have yet to be completed for this infrastructure.

WHO IS ENECO?

Eneco is a Dutch energy company that specialises in the production, trading, transmission and supply of gas, electricity, district heating and related services. It aims to be the most sustainable and future orientated service provider in North West Europe, providing sustainable and affordable energy that it is available to everyone.

It currently operates the Prinses Amalia offshore wind park and 29 onshore wind parks across the Netherlands, Belgium and the UK. Eneco UK is based in Warwick. It has built one UK onshore wind park in Scotland (Tullo) and further wind parks are planned.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Eneco will apply to the Infrastructure Planning Commission (IPC) for a Development Consent Order (DCO) for the Navitus Bay Wind Park and the associated infrastructure (cables, substations) as defined by the Planning Act 2008. The IPC decides applications for Nationally Significant Infrastructure Projects (NSIP), which include this Project. The IPC is intended to be replaced by the Major Infrastructure Planning Unit (MIPU), which will be based within the Planning Inspectorate. The IPC will consider the project in light of the National Policy Statements (NPSs) for energy, adopted in July 2011.

Eneco is required to consult with local communities before the application is submitted to the IPC and to have regard to the responses received. A Consultation Report will be produced demonstrating how the public's views have been taken into consideration. It is important that residents let us know if you have any comments or information about any part of the Project during the consultation process.

Once the application is submitted to the IPC, all interested parties will have a further opportunity to comment on the proposals by contacting the IPC directly. More details regarding the IPC process are available from the IPC itself (<http://infrastructure.independent.gov.uk> or telephone: 0303 444 5000).

Further consents required for the Project, may also include:

- land drainage;
- discharge consents;
- hedgerow protection;
- Public Rights of Way;
- legally protected species and SSSIs;
- Scheduled Ancient Monuments;
- Tree Preservation Orders; and
- Marine Licence.

A Statement of Community Consultation (SOCC) must be prepared as part of the pre-application process to meet the requirements of the Planning Act 2008 Section 47.

The Act requires Eneco to undertake public consultation with people living and working in the vicinity of the Project. It also states that Eneco should publish the SOCC in local newspapers. A list of publications is provided in the detailed SOCC Table 2.1.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT AND PRELIMINARY ENVIRONMENTAL INFORMATION

An Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) will be created alongside Eneco's proposals.

Eneco will provide the IPC with an Environmental Statement (ES) as part of the application for the DCO. The EIA procedures ensure that the potential significant environmental effects of the Project are identified, assessed, and managed. Preliminary Environmental Information (PEI) will give details of environmental data collected by Eneco, to date, with regards to the potential impacts of the proposals. PEI will be provided, and consulted on, alongside the SOCC and will be updated as more information becomes available. An Appropriate Assessment (AA) will also be completed later in the process.

The Statement of Community Consultation is required to be distributed before the completion of the final Environmental Statement (ES) and therefore accurate details of the Wind Park's effects are yet unknown. Full details of the potential impacts are listed in the Preliminary Environmental Information (PEI) or the full SOCC, which will be made available in local libraries and council offices, plus the Eneco website. It should be considered that these impacts relate to a worst case scenario and a more accurate list of impacts will be provided following the completion of the EIA. Once the ES to support the application has been finalised it will be made available on the project website (www.navitusbaywindpark.co.uk).

Preliminary Environmental Information (PEI) will also be provided to consultees in the same locations as the SOCC. PEI is also available at www.navitusbaywindpark.co.uk.

POTENTIAL IMPACTS OF THE PROJECT

We will provide information about the likely potential impacts of the Project through the consultation process. We anticipate that potential key impacts of the Project may include:

- temporary, local disturbance and redistribution of parts of the sea bed during
- construction of the wind farm;
- the need to occasionally exclude some movement of users of the sea from the
- area around the wind turbines;
- views of the offshore turbines out at sea;
- temporary local effects (e.g. dust, noise and traffic disturbance) during
- construction work;
- potential creation of fish nurseries around the base of the wind turbines;
- potential impacts of coastal features, e.g. the beach
- job creation associated with construction and operational activity in local ports;
- an increase in economic activity in the local area, leading to additional demand for
- local services and an associated increase in local spend;
- a positive contribution to reducing the amount of carbon dioxide emissions in the
- UK; and
- a positive contribution to a secure energy supply in the UK.

A full list of the potential impacts is provided in the PEI and the more detailed SOCC.

THE CONSULTATION PROCESS

Further details of the consultation process are provided in the detailed SOCC. We welcome feedback on the full range of issues raised by our proposals. Eneco will consult with local residents, businesses, community groups and where possible visitors to the area. As well as conducting public exhibitions and web based consultations, Eneco will specifically target hard to engage groups.

We will use the following methods to undertake consultation:

- publication exhibitions;
- surveys;
- small group meetings;
- written communications;
- email and telephone lines; plus
- newsletters and leaflets.

Drop in sessions will be held every 12 weeks for local residents at one location within each local authority. Details can be found on the Eneco website or parish and town councils, who will be notified two weeks in advance.

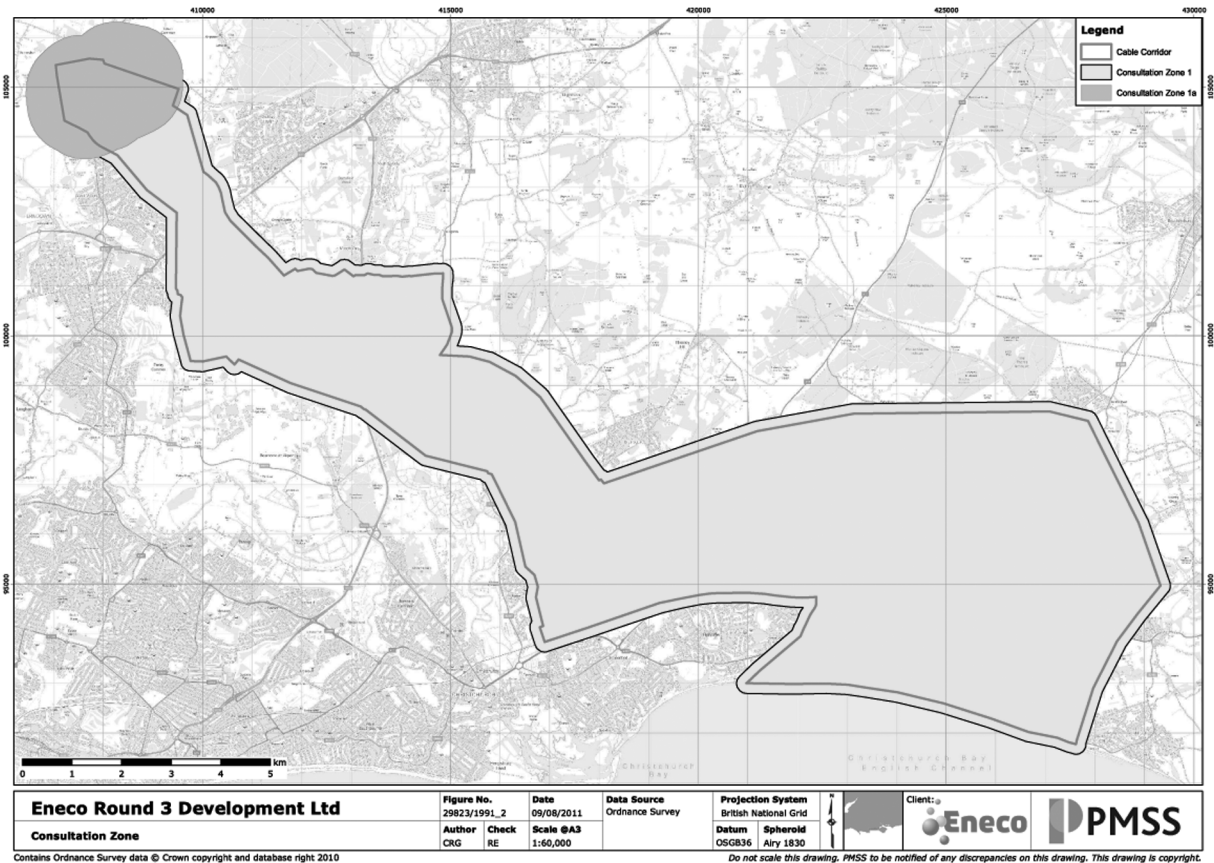

Three consultation zones have been created in relation to the development of infrastructure:

Table 4.3 Consultation Zones

Zone	Area Selected	Method of advertising consultation/proposals
Zone One A – Map 1	1km buffer around the substation options. NOTE The current zone may be altered following a decision on the final locations – this will be publicised and residents in this area will be informed	Letters will be sent to all residents living in this area inviting them to all public exhibitions. Regular newsletters.
Zone One — Map 1	200m buffer around the cable corridor and 1 km around the landfall. NOTE the current zone may be altered following the selection of a landfall point, residents in this area will be informed	Letters will be sent out to all residents living in this area to public exhibitions within Phase Two, Three and Four public exhibitions. Regular newsletters Site notices along the coast
Zone Two — Map 2	Locall authorities along the coastline, close to the Wind Park.	General advertisement of public exhibitions in the local press and community Site notices along the coast

A one kilometre buffer around the substation and landfall points will be used as a consultation zone, in line with industrial standards. Activity along the cable corridor and any visual impacts will be temporary in nature and therefore a 200m buffer has been selected.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The London Gazette is the Official Newspaper of Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been Published by Authority since 1665. The London Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "London Gazette" shall include supplements to the London Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the London Gazette as well as the paper version.

The London Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the London Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the London Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the London Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the London Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;
- 4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;
- 4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;
- 4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and
- 4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the London Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the London Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;
- 11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the London Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the London Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the London Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
