

though all the Towns of Holland, with most of the other Provinces are agreed, yet those of Zealand continue to make some difficulty in it, still declaring, that till those of Holland yield to the raising the Impositions on imported Corne, they cannot give their consents in this particular.

We are told of 12 Companies of Foot which are ordered to march towards the Rhyn, for the reinforcing of some Places in those parts, as Rynbeck, Orsoy, Wesel, and Mours. It seems that the Heer d' Amerongen, had orders to pass by Munster on his way to Cologne, to confer with that Bishop upon some matters relating to his Negotiation there, where he is not to be as Mediator, (seeing that Town hath not been able to accept of the same as such) but to perform all good Offices between the respective parties, in order to the reconciling the present differences, and the bringing matters to a fair agreement.

Prince Mauris of Nassau is returned to Cleue from Amsterdam, where it is said, he may stay some short time. The Deputies of the States General are still in Overyssell, endeavoring by all means possible to accommodate those differences, of which there seems at present to be some likelihood; in the mean time here are likewise Deputies from that Province, on the part of the parties differing, to inform the States how matters stand, each side endeavoring to make good their Right.

According to our Advices from Paris, the Heer van Beverning parted from thence the second Instant, where he arrived some days before from his Embassy in Spain, he intending to take his way through Flananders towards these Countries. It is said, that the Heer de Groot Ambassador in France may suddenly return from thence, his year being now almost expired.

Paris, September 10. On Thursday last arrived here a Courier Extraordinary from Vienna, by whom we are told, that Monsieur de Gramonville the French Resident at that Court, hath received all imaginable satisfaction, upon what had some time since happened there, and in the manner it was desired.

We shortly expect the Conde de Molina out of England, being appointed by his Catholick Majesty to reside here in quality of his Ambassador, the Marquis de Villars hath received his last orders and dispatches, in order to his setting forward on his Embassy to Spain. From Berne they write, that the Sieur de Moulrier the Kings Resident there, had made a new Treaty with that Canton, as likewise with some of the others, by which he hath liberty to take the Levies for his most Christian Majesties service.

The Sieur de Mondevergue, who was said to have been accused of several matters, upon the account of our East India Company, and thereupon taken into custody at his arrival at Port Louis from the East Indies, where he had been Director for that Company, hath so fairly cleared himself of all he hath been charged with, as to obtain his liberty, at least so far, as to have that Town for his Prison, being to remain there, though with all manner of freedom till farther order.

We are told of a second attempt that hath been made by certain Jewd persons, for the Burning the Protestant Church at Charenton, in which, as in the former, they were happily prevented by the Inhabitants, who timely discovered their design, and so warmly pursued them, that they hardly escaped by the favor of the night, very much wounded, the next morning it was discovered by the tract of Blood, that they had retired to a certain Convent near that place, of which the Lieutenant de la Po- lice here having been informed, hath given orders that all endeavors possible be used for their discovery, in order to the bringing them to an exemplary punishment.

It is reported about Town, that the Duke d' Estrees formerly designed Ambassador Extraordinary to the Court of Rome, hath since the death of Monsieur de Lionne desired to be excused from that Embassy. Monsieur Colbert Premier Minister of State, hath been somewhat ill of an Ague. It is said, that the Sieur Martinez, Colonel of the Kings Regiment, and Comniiliary General of the Infantry, is going by the Kings order towards the Frontiers, to make a review of all the Forces the King hath at present on foot. The Marshal de Gramont is Extream ill, so as to have received the Extreme Unction. It is said, a Courier is arrived from Rome, with advice of the promotion of the Bishop of Laon and Father Nisard, formerly the Queen of Spaines Concessor to be Cardinals; but of this we expect a farther confirmation.

Brussels, September 11. On Tuesday last in the Evening went hencefor Flanders the Prince de Ro-beeck, in quality of the Kings Comniiliary; that night he was to lodge at Alost, and to be the next morning at Ghent, to be present there in the Assembly of the States of that Province, to whom he is to make several Propositions, concerning the raising the Extraordinary Subsidies for the ensuing year. His Excellency the Count de Starckery continues his resolution of going very shortly to visit Limburgh and Gelderland, whether his Excellency will be accompanied by great numbers of Nobility, and other persons of principal quality here.

His Excellency hath frequent conferences with the Council of State, together with the Principal Officers of the Army concerning the new Levies, which it is said, may be now suddenly gone about. Monsieur Beverning is arrived at Antwerp on his way hither, intending after he hath been with his Excellency to pass for Holland. Count Starckery it is said, is going by his Excellencies order to Aix, though upon what affair we know not. The Baron de Roc, and the Marquis de Warnicks, are some days since returned hither out of Germany, whether it is said, they went with Commission to raise some men for the service of these Countries, what they have done in it, is not yet discoursed of.

Newcastle, September 4. At the last Assizes held for this Town, were indicted eight Seamen, for the late great Riot, which had occasioned some disturbance here, who having upon their Arraignment, confessed themselves severally guilty of the said Riot, were by the Court fined in 100 l. apiece, but being found very poor, upon their submission, they being brought into the middle of the Court, and there upon their knees, begging His Majesties gracious pardon, as likewise pardon of the Mayor and Aldermen of the Town, promising to deport themselves peaceably for the future, and with all due obedience to the Kings Authority; the Judges reduced the fine to Markes apiece, withal, declaring to them, that their offence was Treason, and deleried to have been prosecuted in another manner, and that therefore they should humbly acknowledge His Majesties Extraordinary Goodness and Mercy to them.

Advertisements.
A Female Child, aged about five years, of a fair and Ruddy Complexion, fair Hair somewhat brownish, with a pair of white worsted Stockings; a holland Change, and a under Silk Robe on, who saith her name is Elizabeth Hamilton, was upon the second of August last, taken away from several Vagabond persons (upon suspicion of being stolen by them) at Chibchester in the County of Staffex, and is now at the house of one William Fletcher of the said City; you may hear more at large concerning the said Child, of Mr Cause a Grocer in Waring Street London.