By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring Paffes formerly granted to Ships and Veffels trading in the Way of the Algerine Cruizers, to be returned 10to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain; and other Paffes to be iffued of a New Form.

GEORGE R.

WHereas by our Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Fourth Day of October, in the Eirft Year of our Reign, we did Charge and Requires, what the Owners and Masters of all Ships and Voffels belonging to our loving Subjetts of Great Britain and Irolands, as well as our Foreign Governments and Plantations, which should have Occasion to trade to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elfewhere, in the Way of the Cruizers of the Government of Algier, should be furnished with Passes of the Form thereby di refted, by or before the Thirtieth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven fundred and fifteen. And whereas our Commissioners for Executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and iredand, have humbly represented anto is, that it may have happened, that when such Ships of Vesses have either been taken in Time of War, or disposed of by Sale in remote Parts, the Passes is fued to them, as aforefaid, may have fallen into the Hands of Foreigners, or have been fold to them with the Ships or Vesses, the latter being direstly contrary to the Bonds entred into by the Masters of fuch Ships and Vesses the two been fold to them with the Ships and Vesses to return the aforefaid Passes, that so they may be Cancelled at the Admirality Office : And our faid Commissioners for Executing the Office of High Admiral of Great britath the Ships and Vesses the latter being direstly contrary to the Bonds entred into by the Masters of fuch Ships and Vesses to return the aforefaid Passes, that so they may be Cancelled at the Admirality Office : And our faid Commissioners for Executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, having further reprefented unto us, that they have been informed, that several Ships and Veffels, belonging to Foreign Princes or States, have by fome indirect. Means procured and carried on their Trade with fuch Paffes, as afore-faid; which indirect Proceedings are not only prejudical to our Trading Subjetts, and our Revenue, but may occafion Misunderstandings between us and the aforefaid Government of Algier : For preven-ting whereof we have thought fit, by the Advice of our Privy-Council, to publish this our Royal Pro-clamation, hereby declaring, that all such Passes of the Old Form, which have been iffued before the Date of this our Royal Proclamation, shall not continue in Force longer than for the Space of Twelve Months from the Date hereof (excepting fuch as have been granted to fuch Ships or Vessels as are gone or going to the East Indies, or to the South-Seas, or any other long Trading Voyages.) And we do hereby striftly Charge and Command all our And loving Subjects, who are, or fall be posselled of any such Passes, that they do, within the Space of Twelve Months from the Date of this our Royal Proclamation, as aforefaid, return the fame (ex-cepting fuch as before excepted) into the Office of the Admirality of Great Britain, in order to their being Cancelled; and that they do furnish themfelves with Paffes of a New Form, under the Hands, and Seals of our Commissioners for Executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ire-land, in lieu thereof, for their feveral Ships and W. C. Veffels, according to the Treaties concluded between us and the faid Government of Algier, and our Instruttions given to our faid Commissioners for Execa-ting the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland touching the fame.

Given at our Court at Kenfington the Nineteenth Day of July, in the Eighth Year of our Reign. God fave the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Convention of your Majefty's Royal Boroughs of Scotland, humbly crave Leave, now when affembled in out annual Meeting, to teltify to your Majefty our just Abhorrence of the wicked Defigns of fuch of your undutiful Subjects, as have in Concert with Traitors Abroad, conspired to disturb the Peace of your Dominions, by railing a Rebelhon in your Kingdom of Great Britain, which have been to happily difcovered by your Majefty's great Care and Prudence.

The Concern for our holy Religion, which engiged your Majefty's Royal Boroughs to act a zealous and vigofous Part in promoting the Reformation from Popery; the lively Impreffions they full retain of the Danger their Rights and Privileges were brought under before the Jate happy Revolution, when Magistrates were implied upon feveral of them by the Defpotick Power of the Sovereign, contrary to the publick Laws 5 the firm Perswassion they have, that Trade and Commerce, in which they are to 'particularly concerned, cannot floursth in Britain, but under a moderate and well regulate Administration, muß for evet determine them to act with their utmost Vigour and Steadinels for Support of a Government which was founded upon Principles of Liberty, which hath been established by a Prolecution of the fame generous Maxime, the Exercile of which, when lodged in the Hands of a Protestant Prince, who makes it his Pleasure, as well as his Glory, to receive no other Obedience than what the Law commands, must give the great-Eff Security to the Religion we lo much value, and the fulleft Affurance to your Majefty's Royal Boroughs of the Prefervation of these Privileges, which the Wildom of your Majefty's Predeceffors thought proper to beftow upon them, and which only Arbitrary Princes endeavoured to destroy. We are,

May it please your Majefty,

Your Majefy's moft dutiful, moft faithful, " and moft obedient Subjects and Servante. Signed in the Name, and in Prefence of the Convention, by John Wightman Lord Provost of Edinburgh, their Præles.
