From Saturday July 28, to Quelday July 31. 1722.

d fuly 1722. His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the 2d Day of August, should be further pro-rogued to Tuesday the 4th Day of September next.

Conftantinople, June 16, O. S. An En-voy from Poland is arrived here, with a handsome Retinue of about 50 Persons, his Name is Poppel, and he is a Collonel of Cuiraffiers in his Polish Majesty's Service: He has brought with him Credential Letters from the King of Poland and the Crown General to the Grand Signor and the Vizier. The Turks being now in their Fast of Ramezan, he will not The Turks being now have his publick Audiences till about three Weeks hence. The faid Envoy ha-ving defired that fome Commissioners might be appointed to treat with him upon certain Matters which he is to propose to the Port, the Vizier of whom he has had a private Audience, promifed that the faid Commiffioners should be appointed according to his Defire. We have received the following Account from Aleppo.

Aleppo, May 29. Letters from Ispahan of the 15th of March advise, that Emir Mamud a Candahar Rebel, who ravaged Canama about three Years ago, with about 14000 Men,) fome fay but 8000,) having advanced near Ispahan, the Persian Vizier with several Omzaes and about 40000 undisciplined Men, marched from Ispahan on the 27th of likewife obeyed, but those Messengers also

T the Court at Kensington the 31st | February to hinder his nearer Approach to that Capital, and engaged him, but were foon put to Flight, lofing 4000 Men, 29 Pieces of Cannon, all their Baggage, and 12000 Tomans in Money; and had the Rebel purfued his Victory he might then have taken Ispahan without Refiltance; but delaying his March, he gave the Persians fome time to fortify that Place, and break down feveral of the Bridges which join it to Calpha. The Rebels advancing to Calpha took Possefilion of it, and Emir Mamud took his Quarters in the Royal Palace. The Inhabitants of Calpha who had had time enough to retire with their Families and Effects, chose rather to receive and com-pliment Emir Mamud, but making him no Presents as he expected, being their King and Protector as he filed himfelf, he received their Deputies with Scorn, caufed them to be drubbed, and fent them home to prepare their Prefents, ordering at the fame time that no harm should be done to the Persons of the Inhabitants, and that all the Shops fhould be kept open; the next Day he fent for the Deputies again, and though they took with them a handlome Prefent, they were feverely drubbed again, and ordered to fend him 500 Virgins, which was complied with, but they being of the meanest Quality, he drubbed the Meffengers who brought them, and ordered them to bring the Daughters of the better Sort of Inhabitants, fuch as he had feen at their Windows when he entred the Town. This Command was were drubbed, because the Women were not adorned with their best lewels. Though we have certain Accounts that there are above 100000 Men in Ispahan fit to bear Arms, they have not Courage to attempt to fave that City from fuch Inforences, but keep themfelves that up in it. From Gomron we have Letters of the 2d of December last which advife, that four British Men of War and the Merchant Ships under their Convoy were arrived at Bombay. And by a Letter of the 26th of January from Gomron it is advised, that on the 20th : of December 4000 Balchees had plun dered that Place, and made a rich Booty, without any Refiftance: They attempted likewife to feize the Britilh and Dutch Factories, but were repulsed with great Lofs, and only two Men were killed and 20 wounded on the Parr of those Factories.

Vienna; July 22, N.S. On the 16th Inftant, the Emperour accompanied by the Empress and attended by Prince Eugene of Savoy, took a Review of the Regiment of Cuiraffiers of Palfi, and of the Companies of Grenadiers of the Regiments of Foot of Prince Alexander of Wirtemberg, Daun, and Harrach, which are encamped in the Neighbourhood of Presbourg, and which appeared in very good Order. On the 17th their Im-perial Majefties left Presbourg, and lay that Night at Petronel ; the 18th they dined at Fischament, and that Evening came hither. The States of the Kingdom of Hungary affembled at Presbourg, have still under Consideration the Propositions made to them by his Imperial Majesty when he was there. On the 18th a Courier from Palermo brought Advice of the Arrival there of the Marquels d'Almenara Viceroy of Sicily. This Court has received an Account from Rome, that on St. Peter's Eve the Constable Colonna, in the Quality of Ambassadour extraordinary from the Emperour went in Cavalcade to the Cathedral of St. Peter: The March was begun by the Pope's Troop of Light-Horfe, then followed the Cardinals Gentlemen on Horfeback, then came the Swifs Guard in the midft of which were the Pope's two Nephews, the White Pad with a Saddle-Cloth hanging down low on each fide embroidered with Gold and Silver having the Pope's Arms in Silver on the Saddle-Place; next came the Ambassadour, followed by the Officers of the Pope's Chamber : And in the Rear came the Ambaffadour's five Coaches with fix Horfes each, and a Train of ten other Coaches filled with Prelates and other Perfons of Diffinction. Entring the Cathedral, the Ambaffadour met the Pope, who had been at Vespers, before the Altat of St. Sebaslian, and there prefented to him the Pad and a Purse in which was a Note for 7000 Gold Ducats, pronouncing in Latin the fettled Formulary used on such Occasions; to which the Pope returned a properAnfwer, adding his Wifhes that the Emperour might have Male Heirs. The Roman Princes and Knights who are Feudataries of the Kingdom of Naples, were not prefent at this Solemnity; on Account of a Dilpute whether they or the Gentlemen of the Cardinals should have the Hand of each other. The Ceremony being over, the Constable returned in his Coach to the Palace of Colonna, taking with him the Cardinals del Giudice and Cienfuegos, the Train of Coaches following him ; and in the Evening gave an Entertainment ; the Cardinals who appeared at it were Sig. Aleffandro and Anibal Albani, Barbarini, Pereira, Colonna, Conti, Spinola, Scorti, Panfili, Sant' Agnele, Orighi, and Olivieri : with the Prince and Count de Conti the Pope's two Nephews: Towards -Night a very fine Firework was let off before the Palace: The like Entertainment was given the next Night, the Ambaffadours of Malta, and of Bologna, being poppe to the former Company; and another like Firework was let off, the Palace of Colonna being both Nights illuminated within and without. In the faid Cavalcade the Ambaffadour was attended by 89 Livery Servants in Scarler trimmed with with Silver Galloon, by 12 Pages, and by a good Number of Gentlemen, in very rich Habits, made in the German Falhion, as was that the Ambassadour himfelf wore. These Advices add, that Monfig. Aldovrandi, lately Nuncio at Madrid, who on his Return from thence being in Difgrace with the Court of Rome had retired to Bologna, was arrived from thence at Rome, having made his Peace' with that Court : It was faid the Spaniards had facilitated this Accommodation, and that they propose to make use of this Prelate's Information and Evidence against Cardinal Alberoni, Several Congregations of War had been held at Rome, upon Intelligence that the Turkish Squadron had appeared off Tarentum. Letters from Naples fay Car-dinal Althan the new Viceroy had been very much indifposed, but was pretty well recovered.

Paris, Aug. 5. The following Ex-tract of the Advices relating to the Plague received by the Court to the 2d Inflant, has been communicated to the foreign Ministers.

The Duke de Roquelaure in his Letter of the 24th of July writes, that all continued to go well in Languedoc, and that it was still hoped the Quarantain would be finished without any Accident. Some Perfons have been ill of Boils in feveral Parishes without the Lines, but 'tis an ordinary Distemper in that Country in the Summer, and not attended with any ill Confequences. Of two Women who died at St. Hypolite, one only had one of those Boils over her Eye. The Phylicians affirm politively that nothing is to be feared from those Accidents : M. de Rothe has however repeated his Orders to continue the Inhabitants of that Place under Quarantain till there be no Ground of Fear left. M. de Rothe writes the 27th of July, that excepting fome ordinary Diffempers there is perfect Health throughout the Country within the Lines. M. de Bernage in his of the 27th of July affures us, that the general Quarantain and Difinfection I are carried on every where with Success, and without Accidents. M. le Bret in his of the 20th, 22d, 24th, and 26th of July relates, that from the 19th to the 24th but four Perfons died at Marfeilles and two fell fick : Of 54 Perfons who remained in the Hospital of la Charité 18 were put under Quarantain as being cured. There were but 26 fick left, of which 28 were under Cure and like to do well, the reft were in Danger. M. Dargenfon writes from Apt the 21st of July, that all was well at Bouiffet and at the Bastides of Buffrel and Villars: The Precautions he had used at those Places had prevented the Plague's spreading further. M. d'Orfay in his of the 26th of July, fays he had a Letter from his Subdelegate at Orange dated the 15th, advising, that on the roth there were none fick either in the Town or the Country about it. Donzere had not had any Relapfe fince the late Accident. The Marquels de Chabrillan writes the 27th of July, that the Accounts he had from Avignon of the 22d, agreed, that that the two preceeding Days the Plague had decreafed there.

Cambray, Aug. 3, N. S. M. de St. Contest returned hither the 1st Instant from Lifle, and Count Windifchgratz is expected from Paris this Week.

Calais, July 27, O. S. The Lord Whitworth arrived here laft Night, and fets out To-Morrow Morning for Paris.

The Letter figned S. T. has been received as directed, but not foon enough to be advertifed in laft Saturday's Gazette. If the Perfon who fent the faid Letter will perform what he proposed, he may depend upon receiving all poffible Encouragement.
