CARTERET.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury being enabled to discharge and cancel the Exchequer Bills, amounting to One Million, which were, on the 7th Day of June 1720, issued by way of Loan, to the South Sea Company; Their Lordships, according to the Directions of Acts of Parliament in that behalf, do hereby give Notice, That all Persons possessors of the said Loan Bills, shall have time, till Tuesday the Seventh Day of August 1722, to bring in and deliver the said Bills to any the Tenders of the Receipts of the Exchequer, at their Offices there; who are thereupon to pay to the Bearer of such Bills, the Principal and Interest to the Day on which they shall be so brought, such Day being on or before the Seventh Day of August 1722, as aforesaid: And, if in case the said Bills be not brought in on or before the Day affixed as aforesaid, their Lordships do further signify, that, according to the Directions of the Act 8th of George, all such of the said Bills as shall not be brought in upon this Notice to be discharged, lose their Currency, and no Interest is to grow due thereupon after Lady-Day 1722. And whereas not only the Exchequer Bills, called Loan Bills, now in use to be cancelled, but also all other the Exchequer Bills subsisting at the time the said Loan Bills were issued, carried Interest of One Penny per Cent. per Diem only, in the Body of the said Bills, but it was afterwards thought fit and agreed, for supporting the Credit and Currency of the said Bills, that One Penny per Cent. per Diem, and a daily Interest, should attend, and be paid on the said Bills, from the eighth Day of October 1720, and public Notice at that time was given by the then Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the said Interest and additional Interest, making together Two Penny per Cent. per Diem, has attended and been paid, or is payable on the said Bills accordingly; Now, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having treated and agreed with the Bank of England, for the circulating and exchanging of all Exchequer Bills, as Directed, during the Space of one Year, beginning from the 24th Day of July 1722, their Lordships give Notice that the said additional Interest of One Penny per Cent. per Diem, not only on the said Loan Bills, but also the old Exchequer Bills, that had then a joint Currency with them, is to cease and be no longer paid, than to the said 24th Day of July 1722: So that from and after that Day, the Interest on the said Bills will be One Penny per Cent. per Diem only, as the same stands expressed and declared in the Body of the same Bills.

Navy-Office, Monday July 30, 1722.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half-Pay to Sea-Officers from the 31st of December 1721, to the 30th of June last, according to His Majesty's Establishment on that behalf; These are to give Notice, That the said Payments will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broadstreet, on Monday the 13th of the next Month for the Captains, Tuesday the 14th for the Lieutenants, and Wednesday the 15th for the Masters, that all Persons concerned therein and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavits required, touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any public Employment whatsoever, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they were to be paid the said Half-Pay, but also produce Certificates (if they have not done it already) that they have subscribed the Test, and taken the Oaths required by the late Act of Parliament; and in case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attornies for that Purpose, that the said Attornies may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Visualling-Office, July 25, 1722.

The Commissioners for Visualling His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Monday the 27th of August next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals in Writing sealed up, at their Office on Tower-Hill, from all such Persons as are willing to serve His Majesty's Navy with Butter, Suffolk and Cheshire Cheese, for the Year ensuing, to end at Michaelmas 1723.
