

Paris, Oct. 14. The King will come hither from Versailles the 16th Instant in the Evening, and the next Day will set out for Rheims, where according to the Route settled his Majesty will arrive the 22d, and the Ceremony of his Coronation will be performed the 25th: On the 30th his Majesty is to leave Rheims, and returning by Villers Cotterets is to be entertained there by the Duke of Orleans, and at Chantilly by the Duke of Bourbon, and will be back here the 9th of next Month. We have Letters from Rome of the 26th of September, N. S. which advise that in a Consistory held the 23d several Bishops were approved; but the Promotion of Cardinals which was then expected to have been declared, was further suspended till a greater Number of Seats in that College should become vacant. The Ambassadour of Malta had communicated to the Court of Rome the agreeable News of the taking of two Cruisers of Tripoli off Cape Passaro by the Maltese; the Crews of those Prizes consisting of 372 Men. Mon. Sig. Aldovrandi had been under Examination three Hours about Cardinal Alberoni's Affairs, and on the 27th a Congregation was to be held on that Subject in Cardinal Barbarini's Palace; the Process against the said Cardinal Alberoni being still kept on foot. On the 21st an Express from the Court of Vienna brought Dispatches to Cardinal Cienfuegos at Rome, and proceeded for Naples and Sicily with Orders to the Imperial Viceroy of those Kingdoms.

Whitehall, April 16, 1722.

This is to signify in His Majesty's Name, that if any Person or Persons shall hereafter apprehend any one or more Highwaymen, who from and after the Date hereof shall have robbed any of the Mails, or shall have been concerned as Accomplices in the robbing of any of them, such Person or Persons shall have a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each Offender, who shall be convicted thereof, to be paid by the Receiver General of the Post-Office, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person hereafter concerned in robbing any of the Mails shall make a Discovery of the same, so that his Accomplice or Accomplices shall be convicted thereof, such Person shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon, and also receive the Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each Offender so convicted, to be paid as aforesaid.
