RIVERSIDE RESOURCE RECOVERY LIMITED NOTICE PURSUANT TO REGULATION 5 (5) OF THE ELECTRICITY GENERATING STATIONS (VARIATION OF CONSENTS) (ENGLAND AND WALES) REGULATIONS 2013 THE ELECTRICITY WORKS (ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT) (ENGLAND AND WALES) REGULATIONS 2000 (AS AMENDED) REGULATION 9 RIVERSIDE RESOURCE RECOVERY FACILITY, BELVEDERE, BEXLEY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Riverside Resource Recovery Limited of 2 Coldbath Square, London, EC1R 5HL (Company No 03723386) (RRRL) has submitted to the Secretary of State for Energy and Climate Change (the appropriate authority) an application pursuant to Section 36C of the Electricity Act 1989 to vary the consent granted on 15 June 2006 (reference GDBC/003/00001C-06) under Section 36 Electricity Act 1989 ("the Section 36 Consent") and issue a direction under Section 90 (2) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 for a new Deemed Planning Permission.

RRRL has since received notice under Regulation 4(6) of the Variation Regulations that the Secretary of State for Energy and Climate Change, considers that the variation application is suitable for publication.

The variation application is made in respect of the Riverside Resource Recovery Facility energy from waste generating station ("the Facility") which is located at Norman Road, Belvedere, in the London Borough of Bexley. The Section 36 Consent authorised the construction of a new energy from waste electricity generating station to treat a maximum of 670,000 tonnes per annum (tpa) of waste with the capacity to generate up to 72MW. The Facility has been operating since 2013 (following commissioning which began in 2011), treating and recovering energy from municipal solid waste and commercial and industrial waste.

The variation application is accompanied by an Environmental Statement which describes the main respects in which RRRL considers that the likely significant effects of the proposed changes sought in the variation application ("the Proposed Changes") would differ from those described in the Environmental Statement submitted in 2002 in connection with the Section 36 Consent.

The Proposed Changes include a request for approval for:

- An increase in the maximum throughput of the Facility from 670,000tpa to 785,000tpa of waste; and
- The option for river borne waste to be transported to the Facility from the Port of Tilbury in addition to the riparian waste transfer stations in Greater London.

No physical works or alterations to the existing Facility are proposed as part of the variation application, and no change is proposed to the consented application boundary approved under the original Section 36 Consent and associated Deemed Planning Permission (approved plan D1.2).

Further information on the variation application and a copy of the supporting material can be found on the application website at:

Copies of the variation application and the Environmental Statement prepared in connection with the application may be inspected within normal opening hours at:

Hard copies of the variation application and the Environmental Statement may be obtained from RRRL at a cost of £175, electronic versions on CD are available at a cost £10. Please contact RRRL by sending an email to: info@coryenvironmental.co.uk.

Any person wishing to make objections to, or other representations about, the variation application to the Section 36 Consent and the issue of a direction for a new Deemed Planning Permission should do so in writing to the Secretary of State for Energy and Climate Change, c/o FAO Mr Robert Lilly, at:

Or by email to: deccnic@decc.gsi.gov.uk

All representations received should be received by no later than 14 November 2014. Unless otherwise indicated, copies of any objections or representations will be regarded as public documents and will be copied to RRRL and the London Borough of Bexley.

During the consideration of the variation application the Secretary of State may formally request further information from RRRL to supplement the Environmental Statement, and materially relevant additional information may also be generated. If that happens, further public notices will give advice on how representations may be made to the Secretary of State on this material.

Following receipt of all views and representations the Secretary of State will either refuse consent for the variation application or will grant it and make such variations to the Section 36 Consent as appear to him appropriate. The Secretary of State may decide to exercise his discretion to call a public inquiry before making a decision on the variation application in the light of any objection by the relevant planning authority and/or other persons. NATURAL RESOURCES WALES

Notice of publication on the consultation document to update the River Basin Management Plans, under Regulation 12(1)(c) of the Water Environment (Water Framework Directive) (England and Wales) Regulations 2003

Natural Resources Wales has today published consultation documents for River Basin Districts in Wales. The updated plans are the third in a series of three publications for public consultation, allowing anyone with an interest in the water environment or the River Basin Planning process the opportunity to comment. Natural Resources Wales and the Environment Agency are updating the plans that were published in 2009. The revised plans will be published on 22 December 2015.

Each document is accompanied by a Strategic Environmental Assessment scoping document that provides the opportunity for people to tell us about the information they think we should consider when addressing the environmental effects of the revised River Basin Management Plans.

The consultation runs until 10 April 2015 and asks everyone to consider the issues impacting upon the water environment, what actions need to happen, where and by when. These views will be essential to shape and develop these statutory River Basin Management Plans. A response can be submitted to <http://naturalresourceswales.gov.uk/about-us/Consultations/our-own-consultations/?lang=en> or you can contact our Customer Contact Centre on 0300 065 3001. Alternatively, representation can be made in writing to Ceri Jones, Natural Resources Wales, Cambria House, Newport Road, Cardiff CF24 0TP.

The consultation on the flood risk management plans coincides with the launch of this consultation and runs until 31 January 2015. The draft flood risk management plan can be accessed on the 10 October 2014.

WATER FOR LIFE AND LIVELIHOODS.

REVIEW OF RIVER BASIN MANAGEMENT PLANS FOR ENGLAND

Notice of draft revised river basin management plans, under Regulations 15 and Regulation 12(1)(c) and 12(2)(b) of the Water Environment (Water Framework Directive) (England and Wales) Regulations 2003 and the draft flood risk management plans, under the Flood Risk Regulations (2009).

The first river basin management plans for England ("the plans") were published in 2009. The Environment Agency has reviewed the plans and has published for consultation its proposals to update them.

The Environment Agency alone cannot make all of the improvements needed to protect and improve the water environment. This is the third of three Environment Agency consultations, providing anyone with an interest in the water environment or river basin planning the opportunity to comment, and by doing so influence the way the water environment is managed.

This consultation runs until 10 April 2015 and thereafter revised plans will be published on 22 December 2015.

Each revised river basin management plan ("the draft plans") are accompanied by a Strategic Environmental Assessment environmental report which identifies the significant effects that would be associated with implementing the draft plans and also asks for comment on them.

The draft plan for each river basin district is available for public inspection free of charge at www.gov.uk/government/consultations/update-to-the-draft-river-basin-management-plans, at our principal office at Bristol and at each of our local area offices, or by contacting our National Customer Contact Centre on 03708 506506.

Any person wishing to make representations in relation to any of the draft plans may do so at the website above, or via email to WaterForLife@environment-agency.gov.uk, or in writing to David Baxter at the address below.

(The consultation on the draft flood risk management plans coincide with the launch of this consultation and runs until 31 January 2015. These plans describe the risk of flooding from rivers, the sea, surface water, groundwater and reservoirs and how to manage that risk. The draft flood risk management plan and response form are available at www.gov.uk/government/consultations/draft-flood-risk-management-plans from the 10 October 2014. If you have any queries about flood risk management planning, please contact Joss Carter on 01903 832280 or at frmpshelpdesk@environment-agency.gov.uk.)

DEPARTMENT FOR TRANSPORT THE CENTRAL BEDFORDSHIRE COUNCIL (WOODSIDE LINK HOUGHTON REGIS) DEVELOPMENT CONSENT ORDER 2014 THE PLANNING ACT 2008 AND THE INFRASTRUCTURE PLANNING (ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT) REGULATIONS 2009

NOTICE OF A DECISION ON AN APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER GRANTING DEVELOPMENT CONSENT

The Secretary of State for Transport gives notice under regulation 23 of the Infrastructure Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations 2009 that a decision has been made on an application by Central Bedfordshire Council of Priory House, Monks Walk, Chicksands, Bedfordshire SG17 5TQ, for an Order granting development consent under the Planning Act 2008 ("the application").

The application was for development consent to construct a new road linking the Woodside Industrial Estate in Houghton Regis to the planned Junction 11A of the M1, and to carry out all associated works. The Order permits the Council to acquire, compulsorily or by agreement, land and rights in land and to use land for this purpose. The Order also makes provision in connection with the maintenance of the new section of highway.

The Secretary of State has decided, following consideration of the report of the Examining Authority who conducted an examination into the application that development consent should be granted for the project, and has therefore made the above Order under section 114(1) of the Planning Act 2008.

The Gazette (which includes the London, Belfast and Edinburgh Gazette) is the Official Public Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been published by Authority since 1665. The Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "The Gazette" shall include the London, Belfast and Edinburgh and any supplements to the Gazette, as well as all mediums, including the online and paper versions of the Gazette.

The Gazette is published by the Publisher (as defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office at The National Archives. Notices received for publication can fall under the following broad headings:

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to The Gazette. By submitting Notices, howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.thegazette.co.uk (the "Website") or by email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Where the Advertiser is acting as an agent or as a representative of a principal, the Advertiser warrants that the principal agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified terms and conditions. By submitting Notices to The Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser, including any principal, agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion, edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

For the avoidance of doubt, the Advertiser agrees and accepts that, subject to the limited rights to edit any Notice referred to above, it is the Advertiser that shall be solely responsible for the content of any Notice, including its validity and accuracy and that the Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor shall have any liability in respect of such content in any way whatsoever.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication or the timing of any publication of a Notice, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice, in the publisher's sole opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of any action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 Neither the Publisher nor The National Archives (or any successor organisation) (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) shall be liable for any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs (including on a full indemnity basis) and other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error including which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon becoming aware of such error, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and full extent of the limit of the Publishers liability in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading, nor does it contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise) nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice (as amended and updated from time to time), nor is it subject to any court order prohibiting such publication.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise, relating to the placing of any Notices.

13 The Advertiser agrees to fully indemnify and hold the Publisher and The National Archives (or any successor organisation), including any affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and employees harmless from all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, without limitation) any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special losses and/or damage, loss of profit, loss of reputation and/or goodwill and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and/or expenses (including legal costs) suffered or incurred (including negligence) in respect of any matter arising out of, in connection with or relating to any Notice, including (without limitation) in respect of any claim and/or demand (including threatened and/or potential claims or demands) made by any third party which may constitute a breach, threatened and/or potential breach by the Advertiser (or their principal) of these Terms and Conditions or any breach and/or potential breach by the Advertiser of any law and/or any of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including, without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final. Other than withdrawal of a Notice following a claim or threatened claim, withdrawal of a Notice post-publication shall take place only upon the written instructions of The National Archives (or any successor organisation) or if there is a credible claim that the continuing presence of a Notice endangers an individual's personal safety or a request is received from any applicable regulatory and/or enforcement authorities.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in The Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher for and on behalf of the Crown, all rights, including but not limited to, copyright and/or other such intellectual property rights (as applicable) in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity in respect of any Notice (including any activity in the preparation of such Notice for publication in The Gazette) by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, all Notices and any content therein shall be Crown copyright and may be subject to the Open Government Licence (or any variation thereof).

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of The Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible in the public interest and that the information contained in the Notices published in The Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose and that such use may be beyond the control of The Gazette. In such instances, the Publisher accepts and the Advertiser agrees that the Publisher shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of such use by third parties.

17 The Advertiser acknowledges and agrees that the publication of any Notice is subject to any court order and/or direction of the court or such other regulatory and/or enforcement authorities including the Information Commissioner's Office, the police, the Financial Conduct Authority (and such other related regulatory organisations), the Solicitors Regulation Authority and such other authorities as may be applicable (without limitation) and that the Publisher may delay, refuse to publish or withdraw from publication if it has received evidence to that effect and may not publish such notice until it has received written evidence from the court (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) that demonstrates that any previous order and/or direction has been withdrawn and/or is no longer applicable (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) and/or, subject to any statutory and/or applicable laws, The Gazette may share information and/or data related to the Notice and/or the Advertiser's account related to such authorities and the Advertiser hereby consents to such disclosure(s).

18 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher in writing. The Charges must be paid in full by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher in respect of the payment of such Charges (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

19 If the Advertiser wishes to make a complaint, all such complaints shall be submitted in writing to customer.services@thegazette.co.uk

20 Save in respect of The National Archives (or any successor organisation), a person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

21 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
