PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS ACT) 1990

Notice is hereby given under section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 that the Peak District National Park Authority has reviewed the existing Conservation Area at Alport under section 69(2) of the above Act and resolved on 10 August 2012 that the boundary should be varied under section 69 of the above Act.

The Authority has approved one amendment to the Conservation Area boundary at Alport to include a north eastern extension. The extension includes a Scheduled Monument, the remains of the former Alport Lead Smelt Mill. The site is located on the southern riverbank of the Lathkill, on the side of a steep wooded valley, to the north-east Alport and is of historical significance.

The principal effects of the designation of a Conservation Area are as follows:

1. Planning permission will now be required to: totally or substantially demolish any unlisted building with a volume of 115 cubic metres or greater; to demolish a building constructed before 1914 and in use, or last used, for agricultural or forestry purposes; to demolish all or any part of a wall, fence, gate or other means of enclosure 1 metre or more in height next to a highway (including a public footpath or bridleway), waterway or public open space, or 2 metres or more in height elsewhere. Separate consent is required in respect of works to or which affect listed buildings;
2. Prior approval will now be required, from the Authority's Planning Service, to demolish a building between 50 and 115 cubic metres in volume;
3. Planning applications for development which would, in the opinion of the local planning authority, affect the character or appearance of the Conservation Area must be given publicity and representations received as a result of the publicity must be taken into account in determining the application;
4. In carrying out any function under the Planning Acts (and in particular, in determining applications for planning permission and listed building consent), the Authority and the Secretary of State are required to take into account the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character or appearance of the area;
5. It becomes an offence, subject to certain exceptions, to cut down, top, lop, uproot, willfully damage or willfully destroy any tree within the Conservation Area except with the consent of the local planning authority;
6. The local planning authority is now under a duty to formulate and publish proposals for the preservation and enhancement of the Conservation Area.

A map of the amended Conservation Area may be inspected, free of charge, during normal office hours, at the office of the Peak District National Park Authority, Aldern House, Baslow Road, Bakewell, Derbyshire DE45 1AE.

- a generating station (the ‘coal-fired power plant’) located in the northern part of the Project site, to the north of the existing Power Station site, primarily fuelled by coal, but with the ability to co-fire biomass, that would be capable of generating up to 448 MWe gross of electricity, including a boiler house, steam turbine, cooling towers, flue gas treatment systems, a flue gas emissions stack, air separation units and CO2 processing and compression facilities;
- laydown and construction areas for construction and maintenance;
- fuel intake, limestone and gypsum and fuel ash handling and transportation infrastructure, including connections with the existing Power Station site (located broadly along the western side of the Project site and existing Power Station site) for the delivery of fuel and limestone for the combustion and flue gas desulphurisation processes and the export of fuel ash for storage at the existing Barlow Mound (used for the long-term storage of fuel ash from Drax Power Station) and for the transport of gypsum;
- fuel ash storage on part of the existing Barlow Mound forming the north-western part of the Project site and located to the north-west of the existing Power Station site;
- a primarily underground connection to the electricity grid which would comprise one of three options. The first two are either a 132kV or 400kV cable and associated infrastructure running along the eastern side of the Project site to the existing substations located in the south-eastern part of the existing Power Station site. The third option is a 132kV cable and associated infrastructure which links to an existing overhead cable in the northern part of the existing Power Station site;
- connections for cooling water, potable water and sewerage and related facilities between the Project site and the northern part of the existing Power Station site;
- vegetation clearance and the creation of a new hardstanding area immediately adjacent to the existing jetty on the River Ouse, located to the east of the main Project site and the existing Power Station site, for the unloading and storage of equipment and materials delivered by barge and parking and circulation space for vehicles transporting items from the jetty to the Project site;
- the underground diversion of an existing 11kV overhead electrical cable on the north-eastern edge of the Project site; and
- works to the existing substations located in the south-eastern part of the existing Power Station site to facilitate the 132/400kV grid connection.

The ‘associated development’, for the purposes of Section 115 of the 2008 Act comprises the new hardstanding area adjacent to the existing jetty.

The DCO will if granted authorise the construction, operation and maintenance of the Project and would, as part of and related to the above components, make provision for the following:

- site clearance, vegetation removal, demolition of existing structures and buildings, soil stripping and storage, bunds, embankments and earthworks;
- drainage works, culverts and wing walls;
- temporary de-watering and drainage facilities;
- lighting;
- site fencing, gates, and CCTV;
- landscaping, habitat creation and ecological mitigation;
- site compounds;
- construction-related buildings, structures, laydown, storage, plant, machinery, utilities, welfare facilities and haulage roads;
- electricity, water, wastewater, waste, gas, telecommunications and other services;
- site roads and parking areas, site access works, new site access points, and works required for the strengthening, improvement, maintenance or reconstruction of any street; and
- temporary and permanent footpaths.

The Applicant is also seeking through the DCO powers of compulsory acquisition in interests and rights in land (including new rights) within the Order Limits.

Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA)

Due to its nature and size the Project is classified as an ‘EIA development’ under The Infrastructure Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations 2009. The Application therefore includes an Environmental Statement (an ‘ES’) documenting the findings of the EIA undertaken.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions: "Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has requested to place a Notice in The Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal; "Authorised Scale of Charges" means the scale of charges set out at in the printed copy of the Gazette or at <https://www.thegazette.co.uk/place-notice/pricing> as modified from time to time; "Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges; "Notice" means all advertisements and state, public, legal or other notices (without limitation) placed in The Gazette; "Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited, with registered company number 03049649.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion, edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions, amendments or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 subject to clause 5 below, no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1 - 4.5 above) shall be made without confirmation from the Advertiser.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Advertiser agrees and accepts that, subject to the limited rights to edit any Notice referred to above, it is the Advertiser that shall be solely responsible for the content of any Notice, including its validity and accuracy and that the Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor shall have any liability in respect of such content in any way whatsoever.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication or the timing of any publication of a Notice, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice, in the publisher's sole opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of any action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 Neither the Publisher nor The National Archives (or any successor organisation) (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) shall be liable for any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs (including on a full indemnity basis) and other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error including which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon becoming aware of such error, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and full extent of the limit of the Publishers liability in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading, nor does it contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise) nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice (as amended and updated from time to time), nor is it subject to any court order prohibiting such publication.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise, relating to the placing of any Notices.

13 The Advertiser agrees to fully indemnify and hold the Publisher and The National Archives (or any successor organisation), including any affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and employees harmless from all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, without limitation) any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special losses and/or damage, loss of profit, loss of reputation and/or goodwill and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and/or expenses (including legal costs) suffered or incurred (including negligence) in respect of any matter arising out of, in connection with or relating to any Notice, including (without limitation) in respect of any claim and/or demand (including threatened and/or potential claims or demands) made by any third party which may constitute a breach, threatened and/or potential breach by the Advertiser (or their principal) of these Terms and Conditions or any breach and/or potential breach by the Advertiser of any law and/or any of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including, without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final. Other than withdrawal of a Notice following a claim or threatened claim, withdrawal of a Notice post-publication shall take place only upon the written instructions of The National Archives (or any successor organisation) or if there is a credible claim that the continuing presence of a Notice endangers an individual's personal safety or a request is received from any applicable regulatory and/or enforcement authorities.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in The Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher for and on behalf of the Crown, all rights, including but not limited to, copyright and/or other such intellectual property rights (as applicable) in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity in respect of any Notice (including any activity in the preparation of such Notice for publication in The Gazette) by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, all Notices and any content therein shall be Crown copyright and may be subject to the Open Government Licence (or any variation thereof).

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of The Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible in the public interest and that the information contained in the Notices published in The Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose and that such use may be beyond the control of The Gazette. In such instances, the Publisher accepts and the Advertiser agrees that the Publisher shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of such use by third parties.

17 The Advertiser acknowledges and agrees that the publication of any Notice is subject to any court order and/or direction of the court or such other regulatory and/or enforcement authorities including the Information Commissioner's Office, the police, the Financial Conduct Authority (and such other related regulatory organisations), the Solicitors Regulation Authority and such other authorities as may be applicable (without limitation) and that the Publisher may delay, refuse to publish or withdraw from publication if it has received evidence to that effect and may not publish such notice until it has received written evidence from the court (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) that demonstrates that any previous order and/or direction has been withdrawn and/or is no longer applicable (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) and/or, subject to any statutory and/or applicable laws, The Gazette may share information and/or data related to the Notice and/or the Advertiser's account related to such authorities and the Advertiser hereby consents to such disclosure(s).

18 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher in writing. The Charges must be paid in full by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher in respect of the payment of such Charges (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

19 If the Advertiser wishes to make a complaint, all such complaints shall be submitted in writing to customer.services@thegazette.co.uk

20 Save in respect of The National Archives (or any successor organisation), a person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

21 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
