Whitchall, July 26.

TO the Intent that no Person may through Ignorance of the Law or Inadvertency omit complying with the Directions of the Act herein after set forth, and incur the Penalties thereby inflicted, it is thought proper to insert the same at large in this Gazette; and all Persons whatsoever, both Men and Women, in England, Scotland, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, respectively, being of the Age of 18 or upwards, and not having taken the Oaths therein mentioned before the First Day of the last Session of Parliament, are to take Notice that they are obliged to take the said Oaths within the Time, and in some of the Courts prescribed for that Purpose, at their Peril, without any Summons or Notice for their so doing, or in Default thereof to Register their Names and real Estates in such Manner as the said Act requires, under the Penalty of forfeiting all such real Estate as they, or any Person or Persons in Trust for them, shall be seized of, or otherwise interested in, at the Time when they ought to have made such Register.

Anno Nono Georgii Regis.

An Act to oblige all Persons, being Papists, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and all Persons in Great Britain, refusing or neglecting to take the Oaths appointed for the Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, by several Acts herein mentioned, to Register their Names and Real Estates.

WHEREAS since His Majesty's Happy Accession to the Crown of these Realms, divers Rebellions, Insurrections, and Traiterous Conspiracies have been entred into, and carried on, for the Destruction of His Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, the overturning our Religious and Civil Rights, and for placing a Popish Pretender on the Throne: And whereas the Papists, and other Persons, refusing to take the Oaths appointed by Law to be taken to His Majesty, have enjoyed, and do still enjoy the Protection and Benefits of the Government, as well as the rest of His Majesty's Subjects, yet have been Notoriously concerned in Contriving, Stirring up, and Supporting the said Rebellions, Insurrections, and Conspiracies, by which it most manifestly appears, that they take themselves to be obliged, by the Principles they profess, to be Enemies to His Majesty and the present Happy Establishment; and forasmuch as it is highly reasonable, that the Government should be thoroughly acquainted with, and apprized of the Number, Names, and Real Estates of such disaffected Persons, as aforesaid, in order more effectually to prevent, disappoint or punish the like Traiterous Attempts for the future, in such Manner, as by the Wisdom of Parliament shall hereafter be thought proper; Be it therefore Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, inhabiting in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, who shall be at the Age of Eighteen Years or upward, not having already taken the Oaths appointed to be taken in and by an Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia being Protestants, and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors;] and who shall neglect or refuse to take the said Oaths on or before the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or at the General or Quarter-Sessions for the County, City, Town, Liberty, or Division, where such Person or Persons shall live or inhabit, all and every such Person or Persons, who shall neglect or refuse to take the said Oaths by the Time aforesaid, shall, on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, Register, or cause to be Registered, their respective Names and Real Estates, in such and the same Manner and Form, as Papists were obliged and directed to Register their Names and Real Estates, in and by an Act passed in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act to oblige Pa-

pists

[ Price Three Half-Pence. ]

pists to Register their Names and Real Estates; ] and also by another Act made and passed in the Third Year of His said Majesty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for explaining an Act pass'd in the last Session of Parliament, Intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and Real Estates, and for enlarging the Time for such Registering, and for securing Purchases made to the Protestants; ] and the respective Officers, appointed by the said last mentioned Acts pass'd in the First and Third Years of His Majesty's Reign, appointed and directed to take and receive the Registers of the Names and Real Estates of such Papists, are hereby authorized and required to take and receive the Register of the Names and Real Estates, which are by virtue of this Act appointed to be Registered, in such and the same Manner and Form, as by the said last mentioned Acts are prescribed in relation to Papists; and shall sign and return true Copies of the same into His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, on or before the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That every Article, Clause, and Thing, in the said last mentioned Acts contained, relating to the Registering of the Names and Real Estates of Papists, or to receiving or taking the said Registers, and the examining upon Oath, or otherwise, into the Truth and Reality of the same, shall extend and be construed to extend to all and every the Registers required and directed to be made and received, by and in pursuance of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if the same were herein again particularly recited and enacted.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Papist, or reputed Papist, or other Person or Persons professing the Popish Religion, and all and every other Person or Persons whatsoever, inhabiting in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, who shall be at the Age of Eighteen Years or upwards, not having already taken and subscribed the Oath of Allegiance, subscribed the Assurance, and taken and signed the Oath of Abjuration, as directed to be taken and subscribed by such Persons, who bear any Office under His Majesty, by the aforesaid Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia being Protestants, and for extinguishing the Hopis of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors; ] and who shall neglect or refuse to take and subscribe the said Oaths, and subscribe the said Assurance on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, before and in the Court of the Lords of Session, or the Court of Justiciary, or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or before the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter-Sessions held for the County, Shire, Stewartry, City, Burgh, Town, or Liberty, where such Person or Persons shall live or inhabit, or before Sheriffs or Stewarts, or their Deputies, in open Court held for such Shire, Stewartry, City, or Borough respectively, where such Person or Persons shall live or inhabit, as aforesaid, every such Papist, reputed Papist, or Person professing the Popish Religion, and all and every such other Person or Persons, who shall neglect or refuse to take and subscribe the said Oaths, and subscribe the said Assurance by the Time aforesaid, shall, on or before the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, Register, or cause to be Registered, their respective Names and real Estates in the Sheriff's Court, of such Shire or County wherein their Estates do respectively lie, in the same Manner and Form, as Papists in that Part of Great Britain called England were obliged and directed to Register their Names and Real Estates, in and by an Act passed in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and Real Estates; ] and also by another Act, made and passed in the Third Year of His Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for explaining an Act pass'd in the last Session of Parliament, Intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and Real Estates, and for enlarging the Time for such Registering, and for securing Purchases made by Protestants; ] and the said respective Sheriffs, or Sheriffs Deputies, are hereby directed and required to take and receive such Registrations, as are hereby required to be made, and keep such Books, and make such Entries, as the Clerks of the Peace of the several Counties within that Part of Great Britain called England are, by virtue of the aforesaid Act of the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and Real Estates; ] directed and required to keep and make; and shall sign and return true Copies of such Registrations into His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, on or before the Twenty fourth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Article, Clause and Thing, in the said last mentioned Act contained, relating to the receiving, taking and entering the Registers of the Names and Real Estates of Papists, and the examining upon Oath, or otherwise, into the Truth and Reality of the same, shall extend and be construed to extend to all and every the Registrations required and directed to be made and received in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by and in pursuance of this Act, and to give the same Powers, Authorities, and Directions, to the said Sheriffs, or Sheriffs Deputies respectively, as by the said last mentioned Act are or were given to the Justices of the Peace in their open Quarter Sessions, and Clerks of the Peace of the several Counties in that Part of Great Britain called England, in as full and ample Manner, as if the same were herein again particularly recited and enacted.

And be it further Enacted, That in case any Person or Persons, who is or are hereby directed and required to take and subscribe the Oaths and Assurance respectively, as aforesaid or for want thereof, to Register his, her, or their Names and Real Estates, shall not take and subscribe such Oaths and Assurance respectively, or Register, or cause to be Registered, their Names and Real Estates, in such Manner, as in this Act before is directed, within the respective Times therein before limited and appointed for the doing thereof, then, and in every such Case, the Person or Persons neglecting or refusing to take and subscribe such Oaths and Assurance respectively, or for want thereof, to make such Registry, as aforesaid, shall forfeit the Fee-Simple and Inheritance of, or such Estate and Interest in all such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments not Registered, whereof he, she, or they, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him, her, or them, was or were seized in Fee-Simple, or otherwise interested in at the Time of such Default, as aforesaid;

foresaid; Two Third Parts thereof to the King, and the other Third Part thereof to such Person or Persons, being a Protestant or Protestants, who shall sue for such Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as shall lie in England, the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any such Court, and by such Ways or Means, as are directed by the said recited Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and Real Estates; and shall sue in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for such Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as shall lie in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Person or Persons now beyond the Seas, who by virtue of this Act ought to take and subscribe the said Oaths and Assurance respectively, or make such Registry, as aforesaid, so as such Person or Persons do, within Six Months after his, her, or their Return into Great Britain, take or subscribe the said Oaths and Assurance respectively, or make such Registry, as aforesaid, according to the Appointment of this Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, being Protestants, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, hath or have taken and subscribed, or shall, within the respective Times by this Act limited, take and subscribe the Oath appointed to be taken by Ministers and Preachers in Scotland, by an Act of the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for making more effectual the Laws appointing the Oaths for Security of the Government, to be taken by Ministers and Preachers in Churches and Meeting-Houses in Scotland] instead and in lieu of the Abjuration Oath, such Person or Persons shall be deemed and taken to have complied with the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if such Person had taken the said Oath of Abjuration, and shall not incur any of the Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted by this Act, or be obliged to Register his, her, or their Names, or Real Estates; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And for the better Discovery of Papists and reputed Papists in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Papists, reputed Papists, and Persons professing the Popish Religion in Scotland, as aforesaid, shall, at the time of taking and subscribing the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and repeating and subscribing the Assurance, as is herein before directed and required, make and subscribe the Declaration called the Formula, as the same is recited in an Act of Parliament of Scotland, passed in the Year One thousand seven hundred [Intituled, Act for preventing the Growth of Popery;] and in case such Papist, or reputed Papist, shall neglect or refuse to make and subscribe the said Formula, at such Time and Times as are herein before directed, such Papist, or reputed Papist, shall be obliged to Register, or cause to be Registered, his, her, or their Names and Real Estates, in Manner and Form, as is herein before directed, or for want thereof, shall be liable to and incur the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are by this Act inflicted and enacted against such Persons as shall neglect or refuse to take the several Oaths appointed by this Act to be taken, or in case of such Refusal, shall neglect to make, or cause to be made, such Register as aforesaid; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it enacted, That for taking and subscribing the Oaths and Assurance appointed by this Act, Three Pence shall be paid, and no more; and for any Certificate thereof, if required, One Shilling, and no more.

Gibraltar, May 14. The Spaniards are sending great Stores for Ceuta, where they have a Garrison at present of 13 Battalions, and it is said they design to send thither more Troops in order to dislodge the Moors, who have carried on their Intrenchments very near to their Works, but as yet we do not hear of the Motions of any Troops for that Service. Four Spanish Men of War passed by this Place about 14 Days ago, which are said to be gone to Genoa.

Barcelona, July 18. The Marquess Mari, a Spanish Admiral, arrived here some Days ago from Cruizing on the Coast of Barbary, and sailed from hence last Night in order to cruise on this Coast for some Days till Stores of Ammunition can be got ready, of which he is to take in a large Quantity of all Sorts, with 2000 Soldiers, for Porto-Longone.

Lisbon, July 25, N. S. On the 20th Instant his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Exeter, Captain Cockburn Commander, arrived in this Harbour from Goa, but last from Barbadoes. The same Day (the 20th) his Portuguese Majesty and the Infantes his Brothers were entertained at a Bull-Feast. A second is appointed the 27th Instant, which will be likewise honoured with the Royal Presence; but the Queen does not appear at this Diversion, because she is with Child. The Fleet from Pernambuco is daily expected.

Hanover, July 30. N. S. Mr. Scot, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Prussia, arrived here Yesterday Morning from Berlin. On Wednesday Night there was a Ball at Heerenhausen, at which His Majesty, the Queen of Prussia, and a great Number of Persons of Distinction were present. This Court will not go into Mourning for the Death of the Prince of Lorraine so soon as was expected, it being thought proper to put it off till the Queen of Prussia's Departure.

Trustees-Office at the Exchequer, July 16, 1723.

The late Trustees for circulating Exchequer Bills being making up their Accounts, and finding that four Exchequer Bills, viz. No. 2687, 2688, 2689, 2702 dated the 7th of June 1720, for 100 l. each, are not yet brought in to be paid off and cancelled, according to the publick Notices that have many Times been given in Relation to Exchequer Bills bearing the same Date, notwithstanding the Interest on them determined the 25th of March 1722; do hereby desire the Person or Persons possessed of the said four Exchequer Bills, (which are all that are now standing out and undischarged) to bring them Speedily to the Exchequer to be paid off and cancelled, so as the said Trustees Accounts to the Publick may not be stopped or delayed for want thereof.

The Letter dated from London the 22d Instant July, directed for John Effington, Esq; at Wandsworth, is come to Hand; if the Person that wrote the said Letter will come or send to the said Mr. Effington, or attend at the Petty Sessions at Putney, on Monday the 29th Instant, and make good his Allegations, the Persons accused, shall be proceeded against according to Law.
