Messina, August 2, N. S.

MR. Chamberlaine, the British Consul here, having represented to our Viceroy at Palermo, that at Leghorne and Naples all Ships coming directly from Great Britain, are admitted to free Pratick, in the same Manner as before the Plague happened in France; has obtained an Order, that all Ships from Great Britain shall be admitted into any Port of this Kingdom as formerly: And three English Ships now in this Port, laden with Woollen Goods and other Merchandize for the Fair here, which began Yesterday, are the first that enjoy this Benefit.

Hague, Sept. 10, N. S. Rear-Admiral Godin, of the Admiralty of Zealand, is nominated by the States General to command the Squadron which is to sail the End of this Month for the Mediterranean. The States General have passed a Resolution to send an Ambassador to the Court of Spain, for which Employment the States of the Province of Holland have proposed M. Vander Meer, who 'tis believed will be approved by their High Mightinesses.

His Majesty has been pleased to order the proper Instruments to pass the Seals for translating the Right Reverend Dr. Richard Willis Lord Bishop of Salisbury to the Bishoprick of Winchester, vacant by the Death of Dr. Charles Trimnel: And for translating the Right Reverend Dr. Benjamin Hoadley Lord Bishop of Hereford to the See of Salisbury: As also for translating the Right Reverend Dr. Thomas Green Lord Bishop of Norwich to the See of Ely, vacant by the Death of Dr. William Fleetwood.

His Majesty has likewise been pleased to order the proper Instruments to pass the Seals for Electing the Reverend Dr. John Leng, into the See of Norwich, and Dr. Egerton, into that of Hereford; when the same shall become vacant by the Translations above-mentioned.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Reverend Dr. John Holland, Warden of Merton College in Oxford, to be a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Worcester, in the Room of Dr. John Laughton, deceased.
