Lisbon, September 20, N. S.

ON the 8th Instant arrived here, on Board the Packet-Boat from England, the Conde de Pinos, who brings Letters of Credence from the Emperour, as Envoy Extraordinary to this Court, but has not yet taken upon him the Character: He is a Spanish Nobleman, who followed the Emperour's Party in the late War, was created Conde by his Imperial Majesty, when at Barcelona, and has now a Regiment of Horse in his Service. By a small Vessel from St. Michael one of the Islands of the Azores, it is advised, that the Pyrates do very much infest those Islands, and have the Boldness to send their Boats in the Night-Time, and carry off Merchant-Ships which are riding in their Harbours. Her Portuguese Majesty is Hourly expected to be brought to Bed.

Turin, Sept. 29, N. S. Madame Royale having been for some Days past in a Way of Recovery beyond all Expectation, the King and Prince have passed that time at the Veneria in Shooting and Stag-hunting. There is a Talk of a great Reform in this King's Troops; viz. two Regiments of Dragoons to be dismounted, three or four Battallions to be broke, and five Men of a Company of the rest of the Infantry reduced.

Hanover, Oct. 5, N. S. M. Wallenrodt, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia, received on Friday last His Majefty's Resolution to go to Berlin, and on Saturday in the Afternoon set out for his Court to carry that News. The Lord Viscount Townshend and the Lord Carteret will set out from hence Tomorrow Morning to go by the Way of Gyfhorn, Tangermunde and Spandau, in order to be at Berlin next Friday Night. The King takes the same Route, but does not set out till Thursday, and makes only two Days Journey of it. After a short Stay at Berlin, His Majesty will go from thence directly to the Gohre. Prince Frederick goes thither also, and it is said will set out next Monday.

Hague, Oct. 8, N. S. On the 4th Instant the States General took into Consideration the Nomination, made by the States of Zealand, of M. Hop to go Envoy to the Court of Great Britain, which was approved. The Nomination of M. Vander Meer to the Embassy of Spain was likewise approved. The States sent some Days ago a Deputation to the Marquess de Monteleone, to give him Notice, that the Squadron for the Mediterranean is very near ready to sail, and to desire him to write to his Court, that the said Squadron may be received into the Spanish Ports, and supplied with the Necessaries they may want. Deputies are come hither from all the Chambers of the East-India Company, to settle Instructions for their Governours and Officers in the Indies, which are to be sent thither by the next Ships. M. Baerle, a Relation of the great Pensionary, is made Secretary of the Admiralty of Rotterdam.
