SCHEDULE

CORONAVIRUS JOB RETENTION SCHEME

Introduction

1. This Schedule sets out a scheme to be known as the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme ("CJRS").

Purpose of scheme

2.1 The purpose of CJRS is to provide for payments to be made to employers on a claim made in respect of them incurring costs of employment in respect of furloughed employees arising from the health, social and economic emergency in the United Kingdom resulting from coronavirus and coronavirus disease.

2.2 Integral to the purpose of CJRS is that the amounts paid to an employer pursuant to a claim under CJRS are only made by way of reimbursement of the expenditure described in paragraph 8.1 incurred or to be incurred by the employer in respect of the employee to which the claim relates.

2.3 The claim must be made in such form and manner and contain such information as HMRC may require at any time (whether before or after payment of the claim) to establish entitlement to payment under CJRS.

2.4 Before making payment of a CJRS claim, HMRC must, by publicly available guidance, other publication generally available to the public, or such other means considered appropriate by HMRC, inform a person making a CJRS claim that, by making the claim, the person making the claim accepts that-

(a) a payment made pursuant to such claim is made only for the purpose of CJRS (and in particular as provided by paragraph 2.2), and (b) the payment must be returned to HMRC immediately upon the person making the CJRS claim becoming unwilling or unable to use the payment for the purpose of CJRS.

2.5 No CJRS claim may be made in respect of an employee if it is abusive or is otherwise contrary to the exceptional purpose of CJRS.

Qualifying employers

3.1 An employer may make a claim for a payment under CJRS if the following condition is met.

3.2 The employer must have a pay as you earn ("PAYE") scheme registered on HMRC's real time information system for PAYE on 19 March 2020 ("a qualifying PAYE scheme").

Employers with more than one PAYE scheme

4. If an employer has more than one qualifying PAYE scheme-

(a) the employer must make a separate claim in relation to each scheme, and

(b) the amount of any payment under CJRS will be calculated separately in relation to each scheme.

Qualifying costs

5. The costs of employment in respect of which an employer may make a claim for payment under CJRS are costs which-

(a) relate to an employee-

(i) to whom the employer made a payment of earnings in the tax year 2019-20 which is shown in a return under Schedule A1 to the PAYE Regulations that is made on or before a day that is a relevant CJRS day,

(ii) in relation to whom the employer has not reported a date of cessation of employment on or before that date, and

(iii) who is a furloughed employee (see paragraph 6), and

(b) meet the relevant conditions in paragraphs 7.1 to 7.15 in relation to the furloughed employee.

Furloughed employees

6.1 An employee is a furloughed employee if-

(a) the employee has been instructed by the employer to cease all work in relation to their employment,

(b) the period for which the employee has ceased (or will have ceased) all work for the employer is 21 calendar days or more, and

(c) the instruction is given by reason of circumstances arising as a result of coronavirus or coronavirus disease.

6.2 An employee has not ceased all work for an employer if the employee works for a person connected with the employer (see paragraph 13.4) or otherwise works indirectly for the employer.

6.3 Where Statutory Sick Pay is payable or liable to be payable in respect of an employee (whether or not a claim to Statutory Sick Pay is made) at the time when the instruction in paragraph 6.1(a) is given ("original SSP"), the period described in paragraph 6.1(b) in respect of the employee does not begin until the original SSP has ended (but any subsequent entitlement to Statutory Sick Pay by virtue of the employee becoming unfit for work again after the original SSP has ended must be disregarded).

6.4 If an employee was enjoying an unpaid sabbatical or other period of unpaid leave on 28 February 2020 ("relevant day"), the period described in paragraph 6.1(b) does not begin in respect of the employee until expiry of the period of leave agreed or contemplated at its commencement or, where the duration of the leave was uncertain on the relevant day because its duration is determinable by reference to a particular circumstance, completion of a particular purpose or occurrence of a specified event, the ending of the circumstance, completion of the purpose or occurrence of the event.

6.5 No claim to CJRS may be made in respect of an unpaid sabbatical or other period of unpaid leave of an employee beginning before or after 19 March 2020 (whether agreed or otherwise arranged conditionally or unconditionally on, before or after that day).

6.6 Work undertaken by a director of a company to fulfil a duty or other obligation arising by or under an Act of Parliament relating to the filing of company accounts or provision of other information relating to the administration of the director's company must be disregarded for the purposes of paragraph 6.1(a).

6.7 An employee has been instructed by the employer to cease all work in relation to their employment only if the employer and employee have agreed in writing (which may be in an electronic form such as an email) that the employee will cease all work in relation to their employment.

6.8 Training activities directly relevant to an employee's employment agreed between the employer and the employee before being undertaken must be disregarded for the purposes of paragraph 6.1(a).

Qualifying costs – further conditions

7.1 Costs of employment meet the conditions in this paragraph if-

(a) they relate to the payment of earnings to an employee during a period in which the employee is furloughed, and

(b) the employee is being paid-

(i) £2500 or more per month (or, if the employee is paid daily or on some other periodic basis, the appropriate pro-rata), or

(iii) where the employee is being paid less than the amounts set out in paragraph 7.1(b)(i), the employee is being paid an amount equal to at least 80% of the employee's reference salary.

7.2 Except in relation to a fixed rate employee, the reference salary of an employee or a person treated as an employee for the purposes of CJRS by virtue of paragraph 13.3(a) (member of a limited liability partnership) is the greater of-

- (a) the average monthly (or daily or other appropriate pro-rata) amount paid to the employee for the period comprising the tax year 2019-20 (or, if less, the period of employment) before the period of furlough began, and
- (b) the actual amount paid to the employee in the corresponding calendar period in the previous year.

7.3 In calculating the employee's reference salary for the purposes of paragraphs 7.2 and 7.7, no account is to be taken of anything which is not regular salary or wages.

7.4 In paragraph 7.3 "regular" in relation to salary or wages means so much of the amount of the salary or wages as-

- (a) cannot vary according to any of the relevant matters described in paragraph 7.5 except where the variation in the amount arises as described in paragraph 7.4(d),
- (b) is not conditional on any matter,
- (c) is not a benefit of any other kind, and
- (d) arises from a legally enforceable agreement, understanding, scheme, transaction or series of transactions.

7.5 The relevant matters are-

- (a) the performance of or any part of any business of the employer or any business of a person connected with the employer,
- (b) the contribution made by the employee to the performance of, or any part of any business,
- (c) the performance by the employee of any duties of the employment, and
- (d) any similar considerations or otherwise payable at the discretion of the employer or any other person (such as a gratuity).

7.6 A person is a fixed rate employee if-

- (a) the person is an employee or treated as an employee for the purposes of CJRS by virtue of paragraph 13.3(a) (member of a limited liability partnership),
- (b) the person is entitled under their contract to be paid an annual salary,
- (c) the person is entitled under their contract to be paid that salary in respect of a number of hours in a year whether those hours are specified in or ascertained in accordance with their contract ("the basic hours"),
- (d) the person is not entitled under their contract to a payment in respect of the basic hours other than an annual salary,
- (e) the person is entitled under their contract to be paid, where practicable and regardless of the number of hours actually worked in a particular week or month in equal weekly, multiple of weeks or monthly instalments ("the salary period"), and
- (f) the basic hours worked in a salary period do not normally vary according to business, economic or agricultural seasonal considerations.

7.7 The reference salary of a fixed rate employee is the amount payable to the employee in the latest salary period ending on or before 19 March 2020 (but disregarding anything which is not regular salary or wages as described in paragraph 7.3).

7.8 In paragraph 7.6 "contract" means a legally enforceable agreement as described in paragraph 7.4(d).

7.9 In calculating an employee's reference salary in accordance with paragraphs 7.2 or 7.7 in the case of a person ("P") treated as an employee for the purposes of CJRS by virtue of paragraph 13.3(a) (member of a limited liability partnership) then, in addition to the matters described in paragraphs 7.3 to 7.5, no account is to be taken of an amount payable to P unless, by virtue of arrangements described in section 863B(5) of the Income Tax (Trading and Other Income) Act 2005, that amount-

- (a) is fixed,
- (b) is variable, but is varied without reference to the overall amount of the profits or losses of the limited liability partnership, or
- (c) is not, in practice, affected by the overall amount of those profits or losses.

7.10 In respect of a fixed rate employee, where a period by reference to which the reference salary is determinable ("reference salary period") includes a period of unpaid sabbatical or unpaid leave ("unpaid period"), the reference salary must be determined on the basis of what would have been paid to the employee during the unpaid period if the sabbatical or leave had been granted on the same terms as the employee's paid leave during the reference salary period taking account of the matters described in paragraphs 7.13 to 7.15 as are appropriate.

7.11 Where paragraph 7.12 applies, the sum of the original payment described in paragraph 7.12(a) and the further amount described in paragraph 7.12(c) must be treated as having been paid at the time of the payment of the original payment for the purposes of paragraph 7.1(b)(ii).

7.12 This paragraph applies where-

- (a) in the period beginning on 1 March 2020 and ending on the third day after the making this direction an amount by way of wages or salary is paid in respect of a period of employment ("the original payment") to an employee,
- (b) the original payment is less than the amount required by paragraph 7.1(b)(ii) for the purpose of claiming CJRS,
- (c) before making a CJRS claim in respect of the original payment the employer pays the employee a further amount ("the further amount") in respect of the period of employment to which the original payment relates, and
- (d) the sum of the original payment and the further amount meets the requirements of paragraph 7.1(b)(ii).

7.13 The provision made by paragraph 7.10 applies in relation to a fixed rate employee who is a relevant employee as if the references to unpaid sabbatical and unpaid leave also include references to social benefit leave.

7.14 A person is a relevant employee if-

- (a) the person is employed by an employer,
- (b) the person has been granted a period of social benefit leave beginning before the period mentioned in paragraph 12 (duration of CJRS),
- (c) at the time when it began, it was expected or considered likely that the period of social benefit leave would end at a time falling during the period mentioned in paragraph 12,
- (d) the period of social benefit leave ended during the period mentioned in paragraph 12, and
- (e) the period of furlough in respect of the person began after the end of the period of social benefit leave.

7.15 For the purposes of paragraphs 7.13 and 7.14, social benefit leave means a period of time in respect of which any of the benefits specified in paragraph 8.7 is payable in respect of the person described in paragraph 7.14(a).

7.16 Where paragraph 7.17 applies, a person making their first CJRS claim in respect of a fixed rate employee may make that claim as if paragraph 7.7 referred to 28 February 2020 in place of 19 March 2020.

7.17 This paragraph applies where, in anticipation of making the first CJRS claim in respect of the employee mentioned in paragraph 7.16 and before the publication of this direction, the person determined the employee's reference salary as if paragraph 7.7 referred to 28 February 2020.

Expenditure to be reimbursed

8.1 Subject to as follows, on a claim by an employer for a payment under CJRS, the payment may reimburse-

- (a) the gross amount of earnings paid or reasonably expected to be paid by the employer to an employee;
- (b) any employer national insurance contributions liable to be paid by the employer arising from the payment of the gross amount;
- (c) the amount allowable as a CJRS claimable pension contribution.

8.2 The amount to be paid to reimburse the gross amount of earnings must (subject to paragraph 8.6) not exceed the lower of-

- (a) £2,500 per month, and
- (b) the amount equal to 80% of the employee's reference salary (see paragraphs 7.1 to 7.15).

8.3 The amount to be paid to reimburse any employer national insurance contributions must not exceed the amount of employer's contributions that would have been assessed on the amount of gross earnings being reimbursed under CJRS.

8.4 The total amount to be paid to reimburse any employer national insurance contributions must not exceed the total amount of employer's contributions actually paid by the employer for the period of the claim.

8.5 For the purposes of CJRS, “employer national insurance contributions” are the secondary Class 1 contributions an employer is liable to pay as a secondary contributor in respect of an employee by virtue of sections 6 and 7 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 (“SSCBA”) or sections 6 and 7 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 (“SSCB(NI)A”).

8.6 No claim under CJRS may include amounts of specified benefits payable or liable to be payable in respect of an employee (whether or not a claim to the relevant specified benefit is actually made) during the employee’s period of furlough and the gross amount of earnings falling for reimbursement as described in paragraph 8.2 must be correspondingly reduced.

8.7 The specified benefits for the purposes of paragraph 8.6 are-

- (a) Statutory Sick Pay pursuant to section 151 of SSCBA or section 147 of SSCB(NI)A;
- (b) Statutory Maternity Pay pursuant to section 164 of SSCBA or section 160 of SSCB(NI)A;
- (c) Statutory Adoption Pay pursuant to section 171ZL of SSCBA or section 167ZL of SSCB(NI)A;
- (d) Statutory Paternity Pay pursuant to sections 171ZA and 171ZB of SSCBA or sections 167ZA and 167ZB of SSCB(NI)A;
- (e) Statutory Shared Parental Pay pursuant to sections 171ZU and 171ZV of SSCBA or sections 167ZU and 167 ZW of SSCB(NI)A;
- (f) Statutory Parental Bereavement Pay pursuant to section 171ZZ6 of SSCBA or any provision made for Northern Ireland which corresponds to that section.

8.8 A payment by an employer of a pension contribution in respect of an employee to a registered pension scheme is a CJRS claimable pension contribution if it is paid in respect of an amount of gross earnings as described in paragraph 8.1(a).

8.9 The amount allowable as a CJRS claimable pension contribution under paragraph 8.1(c) is the lower of-

- (a) the contribution payable by the employer in respect of the employee to the registered pension scheme for the relevant CJRS period, and
- (b) 3% of the part of the gross earnings paid to an employee in a pay reference period as applicable to the employee of 12 months that are-
 - (i) more than the lower limit for qualifying earnings in that pay reference period (as set out in section 13(1)(a) of the Pensions Act 2008), and
 - (ii) not more than the amount claimable by the employer under CJRS in respect of an amount of gross earnings as described in paragraph 8.1(a) in the same pay reference period.

8.10 In the case of a pay reference period of less or more than 12 months, paragraph 8.9(b) applies as if the amounts described in that paragraph were proportionately less or more as appropriate.

8.11 For the purposes of determining whether sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) is applicable in paragraph 8.9-

- (a) the same duration of relevant CJRS period and pay reference period shall be used to compare the lower of the amounts under sub-paragraphs 8.9(a) and 8.9(b),
- (b) whichever sub-paragraph produces the lower of these two amounts shall be the relevant sub-paragraph for the purposes of determining the amount allowable to be paid as a CJRS claimable pension contribution under paragraph 8.1(c), and
- (c) the duration of the period used to compare sub-paragraphs 8.9(a) and 8.9(b) is not required to be identical to the period for determining the actual amount allowable that is to be paid under paragraph 8.1(c).

8.12 For the purposes of paragraphs 8.8 to 8.11-

- (a) “registered pension scheme” means a pension scheme for the purposes of Part 4 of the Finance Act 2004;
- (b) “pay reference period” has the meaning given in section 15 of the Pensions Act 2008 and regulations made thereunder;
- (c) “relevant CJRS period” means the period, part-period or periods over which the employer is required or accustomed to pay pension contributions in respect of the employee that fall within the period of the claim for a payment under CJRS.

Succession to a business – new employer has no qualifying PAYE scheme

9.1 A new employer may make a claim for a payment under CJRS in respect of a relevant employee as if the new employer had-

- (a) a qualifying PAYE scheme, and
- (b) made a payment of earnings in the tax year 2019-20 which is shown in a return under Schedule A1 to the PAYE Regulations made on or before 19 March 2020.

9.2 An employer is a new employer for the purposes of CJRS if the employer’s PAYE scheme-

- (a) is not a qualifying PAYE scheme solely because the employer’s PAYE scheme was registered on HMRC’s real time information for PAYE after 19 March 2020, and
- (b) has effect in relation to the relevant employee.

9.3 An employee is a relevant employee if-

- (a) on 19 March 2020, the employee was employed by an employer (former employer) who is not the new employer,
- (b) after 19 March 2020, there is a change in the employee’s employer from the former employer to the new employer while the employee remains in employment in the same business,
- (c) immediately before the change, the former employer’s PAYE scheme having effect in relation to the employee was a qualifying PAYE scheme, and
- (d) any of the circumstances in paragraph 9.10 apply.

10. The circumstances referred to by paragraph 9.3(d) are-

- (a) regulation 102 of the PAYE Regulations has effect so that the change of employer from the former employer to the new employer is not to be treated as a cessation of employment for the purposes of regulation 36 of those Regulations (cessation of employment: Form P45);
- (b) the transfer of the business or undertaking (or part thereof) resulting in the change in the employee’s employer from the former employer to the new employer does not operate so as to terminate the contract of employment of the employee by virtue of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006;
- (c) the transfer of the trade, business or undertaking resulting in the change in the employee’s employer from the former employer to the new employer does not operate so as to break the continuity of the period of employment of the employee by virtue of section 218 of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

Succession to a business – new employer already has a qualifying PAYE scheme

10.1 Paragraph 10.2 applies in a case where-

- (a) an employer is unable to make a claim to CJRS pursuant to paragraphs 9.1 to 9.3 solely because the employer has a qualifying PAYE scheme, and
- (b) that qualifying PAYE scheme has effect in relation to a relevant employee.

10.2 Where this paragraph applies, entitlement to a claim to CJRS must be determined as if the employer had made a payment of earnings to the relevant employee in the tax year 2019-20 which is shown in a return under Schedule A1 to the PAYE Regulations that is made on or before 19 March 2020 (as required by paragraph 5.(a)(i)).

PAYE scheme reorganisations

11.1 A PAYE scheme registered on HMRC’s real time information system for PAYE after 19 March 2020 (“new scheme”) is a qualifying PAYE scheme if-

- (a) the purpose of the new scheme is to replace at least two (but not necessarily all) of the employer’s qualifying PAYE schemes (“the transferred schemes”) in consequence of a reorganisation of the employer’s business, and
- (b) the new scheme only has effect in relation to employees who are former members of one of the transferred schemes before the new scheme has effect in relation to any other employee.

11.2 An employee is a former member of one of the transferred schemes if-

- (a) the new scheme has effect in relation to the employee, and
- (b) one of the transferred schemes has effect in relation to the employee immediately before the new scheme has effect in relation to the employee.

11.3 Where a new scheme is a qualifying PAYE scheme by virtue of paragraph 11.1, a payment of earnings to a former member of one of the transferred schemes in the tax year 2019-20 which is shown in a return under Schedule A1 to the PAYE Regulations made on or before 19 March 2020 in respect of one of the transferred schemes must be treated for the purposes of paragraph 5.(a)(i) as if the new scheme had effect in relation to the payment of earnings and had been shown in a return under Schedule A1 to the PAYE Regulations made on or before 19 March 2020 in respect of the new scheme.

Duration of CJRS

12. CJRS has effect only in relation to amounts of earnings paid or payable by employers to furloughed employees in respect of the period beginning on 1 March 2020 and ending on 31 May 2020 and employer national insurance contributions and directed pension payments paid or payable in relation to such earnings.

 Notice is hereby given, pursuant to Rule 15.13 of the INSOLVENCY (ENGLAND AND WALES) RULES 2016 that the Director of the above-named Company (the 'convener') is seeking deemed consent from creditors on the nomination of Joint Liquidators. A resolution to wind up the Company is to be considered on 30 April 2020.
 The decision date for any objections to be made to this proposed decision is 30 April 2020. In order to object to the proposed decision a creditor must have delivered a notice, stating that the creditor so objects, to the Director not later than 23.59 hours on the decision date. If less than the appropriate number (10% in value) of relevant creditors (defined as those who would be entitled to vote in a decision procedure, if the decision had been sought in that way) object to the proposed decision, the creditors are to be treated as having made the proposed decision.
 Samuel Talby and Stratford Hamilton of PCR (Bristol) Limited are persons qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the Company who, during the period before the decision date, will furnish creditors free of charge with such information concerning the Company's affairs as they may reasonably require.

The notice of objection must be delivered together with a proof in respect of the creditor's claim in accordance with the Rules failing which the objection will be disregarded. Proofs may be delivered to PCR (Bristol) LLP, 77A Alma Road, Clifton, Bristol, BS8 2DP. A creditor who has opted out from receiving notices may nevertheless make an objection if the creditor provides a proof of debt in the requisite time frame.

It is the convener's responsibility to aggregate any objections to see if the threshold is met for the decision to be taken as not having been made. If the threshold is not met the deemed consent procedure will terminate and a physical meeting will be convened and held to seek a decision on the nomination.

Name and address of nominated Liquidators: Samuel Talby (IP No. 9404) and Stratford Hamilton (IP No. 12212) both of PCR (Bristol) LLP, 77A Alma Road, Clifton, Bristol, BS8 2DP

Terms and conditions relating to submission of notices

The Gazette (which includes the London, Belfast and Edinburgh Gazette) is an official public record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It is managed by The National Archives (a non-ministerial government department) under a concessionary contract with The Stationery Office Limited ("TSO" or the "Publisher", as defined below). Any capitalised terms referred to in these terms and conditions relating to submission of notices are defined below.

By placing a Notice in The Gazette you are consenting to put official information permanently on the public record and in the public domain, online (in The Gazette website or via The Gazette mobile app), in print, and via a data service (rather than by having to search for notices on The Gazette website, customers can either create a pdf of the Notices that they are interested in, or subscribe to an electronic version of The Gazette (in full or in part) which is provided as a data service).

These terms should be read in conjunction with:

1 The Publisher's privacy policy www.thegazette.co.uk/privacy

2 The Publisher's policies relating to submission of notice www.thegazette.co.uk/place-notice/policy which together govern the submission of Notices.

Advertisers, as defined below, may place a Notice in The Gazette either because there is a statutory requirement to do so, or to do so voluntarily to put information in The Gazette in order to create an official record of fact. All Advertisers must have the authority to place the notice that they submit for publishing. TSO, as the Publisher, is required to verify the authority of Advertisers who place Notices and has the authority to refuse to publish Notices from Advertisers whose authority cannot be effectively verified.

Notices received for publication usually fall under the following broad headings:

Church, Companies, Environment and Infrastructure, Health and Medicine, Honours and awards, Money, Parliament and Assemblies, People, Royal Family and State. Further information can be found at www.thegazette.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to The Gazette. By submitting Notices, howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.thegazette.co.uk (the "Website") or by email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Where the Advertiser is acting as an agent or as a representative of a principal, the Advertiser warrants that the principal agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication. By submitting Notices to The Gazette after the Publisher has published such modifications, the Advertiser, including any principal, agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions: "Advertiser" means any agency, company, firm, organisation or person who has requested to place a Notice in The Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal; "Authorised Scale of Charges" means the scale of charges set out at in the printed copy of the Gazette or at www.thegazette.co.uk/place-notice/pricing, as modified from time to time; "Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges; "Forwarding Service" means the service provided to use The Gazette's postal box for correspondence in relation to deceased estates Notices; "Local Newspaper Notice" means any notice placed in a local newspaper other than The Gazette; "Notice" means all advertisements and state, public, legal or other notices (without limitation) submitted for potential publication in The Gazette by the Advertiser, save in respect of any Local Newspaper Notice, to which other terms may apply where indicated in these Terms and Conditions; "Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited or TSO, with registered company number 03049649, acting in accordance with the concessionary contract awarded by The National Archives.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which, unless stated otherwise in these Terms and Conditions, represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions, amendments or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 subject to clause 5 below, no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4(i) - (v) above) shall be made without confirmation from the Advertiser.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Advertiser agrees and accepts that, subject to the limited rights to edit any Notice referred to above, it is the Advertiser that shall be solely responsible for the content of any Notice, including its validity and accuracy and that the Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor shall have any liability in respect of such content in any way whatsoever.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication; whether to publish it (including after acceptance); the timing of any publication of a Notice; or whether to remove or withdraw the Notice after publication, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish or withdraw from publication (if already published) any Notices where the content of the Notice, in the Publisher's sole and absolute opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. In instances where publication has not yet taken place, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of any action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser. Where publication has taken place the Notice placer will be contacted with the proposed remedy which may include, but is not limited to, removal, reinsertion, retraction or substitution notice.

6 Save for any liability that cannot be excluded or restricted by law (including fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the negligence of either party or their agents, subcontractors and/or employees) which shall not be limited or excluded in any way, the Publisher, The National Archives, or any successor organisation's (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) total aggregate liability (including any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs and other professional costs and/or expenses), whether in contract (including under an indemnity or warranty), tort (including negligence), misrepresentation (other than fraudulent misrepresentation), equity, breach of statutory duty, strict liability or otherwise at law, and whether arising from the acts and/or omissions of the Publisher or The National Archives or arising out of or made in connection with any Notice or otherwise shall be limited to one hundred and fifty (150) per cent of the value of the Charge paid for such Notice under these Terms and Conditions.

6A Other than as set out in clause 6 above, neither the Publisher, nor The National Archives, shall have any liability in respect of any act and/or omission of the Advertiser and/or any third party or in respect of any Notice submitted by any Advertiser for potential publication in

The Gazette, which the Advertiser warrants and accepts is solely its responsibility.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above and save for the payment of the Charges, in no circumstances shall either party be liable for any losses including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or savings or anticipated savings, any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error or has published a Notice in error a, the Publisher shall at no charge to the Advertiser, either remove the Notice or publish a reinsertion, retraction or substitution Notice as appropriate at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and the full extent of the limit of the Publisher's liability in these circumstances.

9 . In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is true and accurate in all respects and does not mislead or contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise), nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or of any applicable advertising regulations, guidelines or codes of practice, nor is it subject to any court order prohibiting such publication.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise, relating to the placing of any Notices.

13 The Advertiser agrees to fully indemnify (as a debt) and hold the Publisher and The National Archives or any successor organisation, including any affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and employees harmless from all liabilities , costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, without limitation) any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special losses and/or damage, loss of profit, loss of reputation and/or goodwill and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and/or expenses (including legal costs) suffered or incurred (including negligence) in respect of any matter arising out of, in connection with or relating to any Notice (including, without limitation , clause 11 of the Terms and Conditions) and including (without limitation) in respect of any claim and/or demand (including threatened and/or potential claims or demands) made by any third party which may constitute a breach and/or potential breach by the Advertiser (or their principal) of these Terms and Conditions or of any law and/or any of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including , without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may (at its sole and absolute discretion) require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final.

In exceptional circumstances, for example if the Notice was found by the Publisher to have been submitted by an unauthorised Advertiser, the Publisher (upon receiving written approval from The National Archives) will remove a Notice in its entirety from www.thegazette.co.uk, but will retain the Notice identification online and include explanatory text saying why and when the Notice was removed.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in The Gazette for ongoing Gazette-related activity – for example to create a company profile page on The Gazette website and where you have also opted for a newspaper advertisement as well as a Gazette notice - and hereby assigns to the Publisher for and on behalf of the Crown, all rights, including but not limited to, copyright and/or other such intellectual property rights (as applicable) in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity in respect of any Notice (including any activity in the preparation of such Notice for publication in The Gazette) by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, all Notices and any content therein shall be Crown copyright and may be subject to the Open Government Licence (or any variation thereof).

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of The Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible in the public interest. The Advertiser accepts that the information contained in the Notices published in The Gazette may be used for additional purposes by the Publisher or third parties after publication as stated above and that such use may be beyond the control of The Gazette. In such instances, the Advertiser agrees that the Publisher shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of such use by the Publisher or third parties.

17 The Advertiser acknowledges and agrees that the publication of any Notice is subject to any court order and/or direction of the court or such other regulatory and/or enforcement authorities including the Information Commissioner's Office, the police, the Financial Conduct Authority (and such other related regulatory organisations), the Solicitors Regulation Authority and such other authorities as may be applicable (without limitation) and that the Publisher may delay, refuse to publish or withdraw from publication if it has received evidence to that effect and may not publish such notice until it has received written evidence from the court (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) that demonstrates that any previous order and/or direction has been withdrawn and/or is no longer applicable (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) and/or, subject to any statutory and/or applicable laws, The Gazette may share information and/or data related to the Notice and/or the Advertiser's account related to such authorities and the Advertiser hereby consents to such disclosure(s).

18 In respect of any Local Newspaper Notice, this clause 18 shall apply. For the avoidance of doubt, all other terms of the Terms and Conditions shall apply to Local Newspaper Notices only to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms set out below. In the event of any conflict, the terms set out in this clause 18 shall prevail:

18.1 The Local Newspaper Notice may be placed in a local newspaper by any subcontractor and/or a third party organisation at the Publisher's sole and absolute discretion and the Advertiser hereby consents to such use (including any activity that is ancillary and/or reasonably necessary to such use). For the avoidance of doubt, this may include the processing of personal data in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation 2016/679), and any legislation which implements, amends , re-enacts or replaces it in England and Wales, Northern Ireland or Scotland ("GDPR"), by the Publisher, any subcontractor and/or third party organisation, together with the local newspaper and related organisations;

18.2 The placement of a Local Newspaper Notice shall be upon the standard terms and conditions of the local newspaper in question in addition to these Terms and Conditions. The Advertiser expressly agrees to such local newspaper terms and by submitting a Local Newspaper Notice to The Gazette, expressly consents to the Publisher, its subcontractors and/or any applicable third party organisation agreeing to such terms on behalf of the Advertiser;

18.3 To the extent that such local newspaper and the applicable terms allow, where the Publisher, any subcontractor, any third party acting on behalf of the Publisher and/or the local newspaper is responsible for any error including (without limitation), the Publisher, the Publisher shall arrange for the local newspaper to publish the corrected Local Newspaper Notice at no additional cost to the Advertiser. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and the full extent of the limit of liability in these circumstances;

In the event that a corrected Local Newspaper Notice is not published for whatever reason, the total aggregate liability of the Publisher and The National Archives, whether direct or indirect, and including (without limitation) all liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs and/or other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts and/or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise shall be limited to the value of the Local Newspaper Notice placed through The Gazette except that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or employees or third parties acting on behalf of the Publisher.

19 In respect of the use of the Forwarding Service, The Gazette will replace the Advertiser or executor's address with The Gazette's postal box address in the Notice, and Local Newspaper Notice if applicable. All correspondence received will be sent on from The Gazette to the Advertiser or executor (if different). The Forwarding Service will remain in place for a period of 10 months from publication of the Notice in The Gazette, or 10 months from publication of the Notice in a Local Newspaper, in line with the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975. After the 10 months period has lapsed any correspondence received will be returned to the sender where possible or securely destroyed, and the Advertiser or executor's name and address details will be removed from the Forwarding Service.

20 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher in writing. The Charges must be paid in full by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher in respect of the payment of such Charges (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

21 If the Advertiser wishes to make a complaint, all such complaints shall be submitted in writing to customer.services@thegazette.co.uk

22 Save in respect of The National Archives (or any successor organisation), a person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

23 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
