Stockholm, September 16, O. S.

THE King of Sweden went the 7th Instant from Ulricksdahl to the Palace of Ekolsund, where his Majesty still continues. The Queen remains at Ulricksdahl, but as there has already been some very sharp frosty Nights, it is thought her Majesty will come to this City in a Day or two, and that the King will come directly hither from Ekolsund. A Declaration made by the Czar the 6th of last Month has been published here, setting forth, that the three Years stipulated by the Treaty of Newstadt for all those who lay Claim to any Lands in the Provinces of Estonia and Livonia to take the Oath of Allegiance to the Czar, or sell their Lands, is prolonged to the End of the Year 1726.

Ratisbon, Oct. 5, N. S. We had Advice from Wurtzburg, that a new Competitor for that Bishoprick was lately set up, viz. Baron Sickengen, the Elector of Mentz's Chamberlain, who had been by his Master earnestly recommended to the Emperour, upon his seeing that the Vice-Chancellor Count Schonborn was not like to succeed: But by the last Letters we have an Account, that the Election at Wurtzburg was over on the 2d Instant, in favour of M. de Hutten.

Berlin, Oct. 10, N. S. The Prince of Anhalt arrived here some Days ago, having been in Prussia for some Months, settling private Affairs. His Prussian Majesty was to be at Potsdam this Day at Noon; but will return to Wusterhausen before he comes hither. The Marsgrave Lodowick is perfectly recovered, contrary to Expectation.

Lisbon, Oct. 7, N. S. Yesterday the three Maltese Men of War, that arrived here the 25th past, sailed for Malta with the Grand Master's Nephew on Board: And this Evening the Conde de Pinos, his Imperial Majesty's late Minister at this Court, imbarks on Board an English Merchant-Ship bound for Naples, from whence he designs to proceed to Vienna. To-Morrow his Portuguese Majesty, attended by the Lords in waiting, goes to Maasra, to see what Progress has been made this Summer in the Cathedral building there; which, it is agreed, when finished, will be one of the best Pieces of Architecture in Europe.

Hague, Oct. 17, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland have been for some Days assembled. They have had again under Consideration the Project for augmenting the Troops of this Republick: But it is still uncertain whether they will come to any Resolution this Session upon it. In the mean time a Deputation from the States General and the Council of State is going to Friseland and Groeninghen, in order to press those Provinces to satisfy their Contingents, both as to the compleating the Troops on their Repartition, and paying the Arrears due to the common Treasury, which are very considerable; these being held by some to be necessary Preliminaries, before concluding any thing about the Augmentation.
