December, 1724.

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in His Privy Council.

WHETHERAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, Entitled, An Act for the more effectual punishing wicked and evil disposed Persons going armed in Disguise, and doing Injuries and Violence to the Persons and Properties of His Majesty's Subjects, and for the more speedy bringing the Offenders to Justice;
it is (among other Things) Enacted, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the 1st Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1723, being armed with Swords, Fire Arms or other offensive Weapons, and having his or their Faces blacked, or being otherwise disguised, should appear in any Forrest, Chase, Park, Paddock, or Grounds inclosed with any Wall, Pale, or other Fence, wherein any Deer had been or should be usually kept, or in any Warren or Place, where Hares or Conies had been or should be usually kept, or in any High Road, open Heath, Common or Down, or should unlawfully and willfully hunt, wound, kill, destroy, or steal any Red or Fallow Deer, or unlawfully rob any Warren or Place where Conies or Hares were usually kept, or should unlawfully steal or take away any Fish out of any River or Pond; or if any Person or Persons from and after the said 1st Day of June, should unlawfully and willfully

Willfully hunt, wound, kill, destroy, or steal any Red or Fallow Deer, fed or kept in any Places in any of His Majesty's Forrefts, or Chafes, which were or should be inclosed with Pales, Rails, or other Fences, or in any Park, Paddock, or Grounds inclosed, where Deer had been or should be usually kept, or should unlawfully and maliciously break down the Head or Mound of any Fish Pond, whereby the Fish should be lost or destroyed; or should unlawfully and maliciously kill, maim, or wound any Cattle, or cut down or otherwise destroy any Trees planted in any Avenue, or growing in any Garden, Orchard, or Plantation for Ornament, Shelter, or Profit, or should set Fire to any House, Barn, or Outhouse, or to any Hovell, Cock, Mow, or Stack of Corn, Straw, Hay, or Wood, or should willfully and maliciously shoot at any Person in any Dwelling-House or other Place, or should knowingly send any Letter without any Name subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious Name, demanding Money, Venison, or other valuable Thing, or should forcibly rescue any Person, being lawfully in Custody of any Officer or other Person for any of the Offences beforementioned; or if any Person or Persons should, by Gift or Promise of Money or other Reward, procure any of His Majesty's Subjects to joyn him or them in any such unlawful Act, every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, should be adjudged Guilty of Felony, and should suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy. And whereas it is by the said Act further Enacted, That for the more easy and speedy bringing the Offenders against the said Act to Justice, That if any Person or Persons should be charged with being Guilty of any of the Offences aforesaid, before any two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County where such Offence or Offences were or should be committed, by Information of one or more Credible Person or Persons upon Oath by him or them to be subscribed, such Justices before whom such Information should be made as aforesaid, should forthwith certify under their Hands and Seals, and return such Information to one of the principal Secretaries of State of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, who is by the said Act required to lay the same as soon as conveniently might be before His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in his or their Privy Council; whereupon it should and might be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to make His or their Order in His or their said Privy Council, thereby requiring and commanding such Offender or Offenders to surrender him or themselves, within the Space of Forty Days to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of King's-Bench, or to any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to the End that he or they might be forthcoming to answer the Offence or Offences wherewith he or they should so stand charged, according to due Course of Law; which Order should be printed and published in the next London Gazette, and should forthwith be transmitted to the Sheriff of the County where the Offence should be committed, and should, within six Days after the Receipt thereof, be proclaimed by him or his Officers between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon in the Market Places, upon the respective Market Days of two Market Towns in the same County near the Place where such Offences should have been committed, and a true Copy of such Order should be affixed upon some publick Place in such Market Towns; and in case such Offender or Offenders should not surrender him or themselves, pursuant to such Order of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to be made in Council as aforesaid, he or they so neglecting or refusing to surrender him or themselves as aforesaid, should, from the Day appointed for his or their Surrender, as aforesaid, be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be convicted and attainted of Felony, and should suffer Pains of Death as in case of a Person convicted and attainted by Verdict and Judgment of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy; and that it should be lawful to and for the Court of King's-Bench or the Justices of Oyer and Terminer, or General Goal-Delivery for the County where the Offence should be sworn in such Information to have been committed, upon producing to them such Order in Council under the Seal of the said Council, to award Execution against such Offender and Offenders in such manner as if he or they had been convicted and attainted in the said Court of King's-Bench, or before such Justices of Oyer and Terminer or General Goal-Delivery respectively, as by the said Act may more fully appear. And whereas in Pursuance of the Statute in that Case made and provided, the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, did this Day lay before His Majesty in His Privy-Council, the Information of John Russell, being a credible Person, taken upon his Oath, the 28th Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, in the County of Surry, before James Titchborne and Henry Wyatt, Esqrs; two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County of Surry, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided. Which said Information was, by Certificate in Writing under the Hands and Seals of the said James Titchborne and Henry Wyatt, bearing Date the said 28th Day of November, certified and by them returned to the said Lord Viscount Townshend, who is, and was at the Time of making such Certificate and Return, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and which Information is in the Words and Figures following.

Surry ff. The Information of John Russell, of the Parish of Crondall, in the County of Southampton, Labourer, being a credible Person, taken upon his respective Oath the twenty eighth day of Novemb^r. in the Year of our Lord 1724. Before James Titchborne and Henry Wyatt, Esqrs; two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, and then and there subscribed by the said John Russell in the presence of the said Justices.

The said John Russell upon his Oath informs and saies, That he this Informant, together with James alias Batt Heath, Thomas Kemp alias Kent, John Fielder, Henry Fielder the Younger, and William Moth the Younger, Labourers, all residing within the said Parish of Crondall, with others unknown to this Informant, being then disguised, did, after the 1st Day of June in the Year of our Lord 1723, (viz.) on or abt^e the 1st Day of Septemb^r. 1724, in the Parish of Farnham, in the said County, being then armed with certain offensive Weapons, and disguised, enter and appear in the Park of the Rt^e Reverend Father in God the Lord Bishop of Winchester, at Farnham, in the said County, wherein Deer then were, and for a long time then past had been usually kept; and being so armed and disguised, did then and there unlawfully and willfully hunt and kill two Fallow Deer: And this Informant further saies, That on or abt^e the 1st Day of Novemb^r. Instant, he, together with the Persons above-mentioned, did in like manner enter the aforesaid Park, and did then and there unlawfully and willfully hunt and kill one other Fallow Deer.

*Capi^o & Jurat^o Die & Anno supradicti^o
James Titchborne,
Hen^r. Wyatt;*

The Mark of
John Russell.

Upon reading which Information and Certificate, His Majesty in His Privy Council is pleased to Order, Require, and Command, as it is hereby Ordered, Required, and Commanded, according to the Act of Parliament in that Case made and provided, that the said James alias Batt Heath, Thomas Kemp alias Kent, John Fielder, Henry Fielder the Younger, and William Moth the Younger, and every of them, do and shall respectively surrender themselves within the Space of Forty Days to one of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of King's Bench, or one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to the End that they and every of them may be forthcoming to answer the Offences wherewith they stand charged by the said Information according to due Course of Law. And His Majesty is pleased further to order, as it is hereby ordered, that this Order shall be printed and published in the next London Gazette, and shall be forthwith transmitted to the Sheriff of the said County of Surry, and that the said Sheriff shall, within six Days after the Receipt thereof, by himself or his Officers, proclaim the same Order, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon, in the Market-Places, upon the respective Market-Days of Two Market-Towns in the said County of Surry, near to the Place where the said Offence was committed, and shall cause a true Copy of this Order to be affixed upon some publick Place in each of such Market-Towns, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the Act of Parliament in that Case made and provided.

Ja. Vernon.

Lisbon, Dec 4, N. S. On the 30th past His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Sea-Horse arrived here from New-England. The same Day five Ships arrived here from Maranham, laden with sugars, Cacao, and Spices: They bring Advice, that not only that Province, but all the adjacent Provinces of Brasil, were in a State of Peace and Plenty; and that the homeward bound Fleet from the Rio de Janeiro may be expected in January next. His Portuguese Majesty having appointed the Victoria Man of War to carry Sig. Luis Vahia Monteiro to his Government of the Rio de Janeiro, instead of His Majesty's Ship the Rosario which was first appointed for that Service, but suffered considerably in the late Storm; the said Ship Victoria sailed out of this Harbour To-Day, having seven Merchant-Vessels under her Convoy. The Nossa Senhora da Conceição, a Portuguese Man of War, which in the late Hurricane was driven ashore, is since got off and set afloat.

Whitehall, Dec. 9. This Day the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London waited on His Majesty at St. James's, and Mr. Recorder made their Compliments of Congratulation to His Majesty upon the Increase of His Royal Family, by Her Royal Highness's being happily delivered of a Princess: His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Joseph Eyles, Esq; one of the Sheriffs. They also waited on His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales at Leicester-House, and Mr. Recorder made their Compliments of Congratulation to His Royal Highness on the same happy Occasion.

On the 8th Instant the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Exeter having assembled pursuant to His Majesty's Congé d'Elire, chose the Reverend Dr. Stephen Weston Bishop of that See, which became vacant by the Translation of the Most Reverend Father in God Dr. Lancelot Blackburn to the See of York.

Whitehall, Dec. 11, 1724.

Whereas on Sunday the 29th of the last Month, in the Night-time, there were above fourscore young Trees of Ash and Elm cut off and destroyed in a Walk leading from the Chelsea Road to the House of Mr. William Green, Brewer: His Majesty, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in the Crime above-mentioned; is pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any Person concerned in the same, who shall discover his Accomplices, so as they or either of them be apprehended and convicted.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Navy-Office, Dec. 4, 1724.

It is recommended to all Persons that have any Bill assigned by the Navy-Board upon the Treasurers of the Navy, and have not yet received their Money for the said Bills, to call for the same.
