

The Company of Goldsmiths, London, being very sensible that great Frauds are and will be daily committed by evil disposed Persons selling Gold and Silver Wares of a coarser Alloy than the Standards appointed by Law, and not being market with one or more of the Marks following, viz. The Lyon's Head erased, and the Figure of a Woman called Britannia for new Sterling Silver; the Leopard's Head Crown'd and the Lyon passant for the old Sterling Silver; and the last two Marks for Gold Wares. The said Company being desirous carefully to discharge the Trust reposed in them, and to prevent (as much as in them lies) all Frauds and Abuses in the said Trade, have thought fit hereby to caution all His Majesty's Subjects from buying any Wares of Gold or Silver that have not one or more of the said Marks stamp'd thereon, if capable of bearing the same. And also advise all Buyers strictly to inspect the larger Plate, and see that the Marks are not fodered thereto, or counterfeited, both which are notorious Frauds and difficult to discover.

By Order of the Court of Assistants of the said Company.
