Madrid, August 19, N. S.

IT is said the Infant Don Manuel of Portugal, who is with their Catholick Majesties at St. Ildefonso, will soon receive from Rome a Cardinal's Hat; he having desired it of the Pope, and of late given himself up intirely to spiritual Exercises and Devotions. On the 15th Instant Count Konigseck, the Imperial Ambassadour, dispatched a Courier from St. Ildefonso to Vienna, with Bills of Exchange and Letters of Credit for 400,000 Pistoles, which this Court remits to the Emperour. Since the 15th several Couriers have arrived at St. Ildefonso from St. Ander and other Ports in Biscay, with an Account of the Arrival of the Squadron under the Command of Sir John Jennings, which had anchored before St. Ander, and some Ships of that Squadron had been in the Port of Santone and taken in Water and other Refreshments: The People in those Parts were under so great Apprehensions, that they retired several Leagues up into the Country, and the Militia and Troops were posting themselves in several Places along that Coast. Letters from Cadiz of the 13th advise, that the Garrison there is put into the strongest Posture of Defence; and that the Militia of the Province had marched from Xeres to Port St. Mary's, and were employed in making additional Works to the Forts there. The two Spanish Men of War the Conquistador and St. Joseph, sailed for Malaga the 7th Instant, to convoy from thence the Provisions and Ammunition which the Spaniards are sending to their Garrisons on the Coast of Barbary. The Duke de Bournonville, a Flemish Nobleman and Grandee of Spain, Knight of the Golden Fleece, one of the Lords of the Bedchamber to his Catholick Majesty, and Captain of the Troop of Walloon Life-Guards, being appointed Ambassadour to the Court of Vienna, went this Day to St. Ildefonso: He is to return hither the 21st, and to set out for Vienna very speedily.
