Madrid, December 23, N.S.

N the 19th Instant being his Catholick Majesty's Birth-Day, when he entered in-to his 47th Year, all the Grandees and Nobility appeared at Court, and had the Honour to kiss their Catholick Majesties Hands. The Troops that are affembling in Andalusia having lost a great many Men on their Marches by Defertion and Sickness, Orders have been given to supply them with Recruits out of the Men that are levying in all the Provinces of Spain, by preffing every fifth Man (which is a Method formerly made use of in the last Extremity;) the said Troops are all to be at their Rendezvous in the Neighbourhood of Gibraltar, and to be reviewed in the Beginning of January next. It is now no longer doubted of the Deligns being formed to beliege that Place in a few Weeks by the great and expensive Preparations that are making, fit for fuch an Enterprize, which as is computed will cost 3000000 Pieces of Eight. 120 battering Cannon and a proportionable Quantity of Cannon-Ball have been ordered forthwith to Algezira, as also eight Engineers, and a good Number of Miners and Bombardiers. Lieutenant-General Verboom the chief Engineer, fet out Yesterday for Andalusia, and most of the General Officers are also gone, some to Algezira, and others to San Roque. The late Duke of Ormond continues to have frequent Audiences of their Catholick Majesties, as also Conferences with Count Conigseck, the Marquess de la Paz, and Don Jofeph Patinno, from which the Jacobites here conceive great Hopes that Matters will foon be concerted for an Enterprize in Favour of the Pretender. The late Lord Marishal, who intented to go to the Army in Andalusia, has suspened his Jour

War-Office, Dec. 22, 1726.
Whereas the General Officers of the Army to whom the Examination of the Reduced Officers of the LandForces and Marines upon Half Pay in Great-Britain was referred by His Majefly, have in their Report to Him, gmong other Things, proposed the following Rules, viz.

That every Reduced Officer on Half-Pay

"That every Reduced Officer on Half-Pay
"in Great-Britain, shall for the future write to "the Secretary at War for the Time being,
"twice every Year, viz. in the Months of Ja"nuary and July, declaring he is the same Offi"ter who was approved of in the last Exami-

"nation, and no otherwise provided than by "His Majesty's Half-Pay; which Letter must be signed by the said Officer, mentioning therein the Regiment to which he did belong.

"in the Regiment to which he did belong.

"And also, that no Reduced Officer on the British Establishment of Half-Pay shall presume for the future to go out of any of His Majesty's Dominions into foreign Councitries without a particular Leave of Absence.

These are therefore by His Majesty's special Coma

These are therefore by His Majesty's special Command, to direct and require all Persons concerned herein, to conform themselves to the said Rules, as they, shall answer the same at their Peril.
