

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 1. to Tuesday April 4. 1727.

St. James's, April 4.

THE following humble Address of the Principal and Professors of the University of King James the Sixth at Edinburgh, has been presented to His Majesty by Charles Areskine, Esq; Solicitor-General for Scotland, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Principal and Professors of the University of King James the Sixth (of blessed Memory) at Edinburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

WHEN your Majesty reviews the Happiness derived to your People from your auspicious Reign, in a particular Manner distinguished by a mild Administration, you can have no Doubt of possessing the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects; and altho' it may therefore appear to be unnecessary for them upon any Occasion, by explicit Assurances of their Loyalty and Affection to your Person and Government, to convince your Majesty of that Truth; yet as it is a Pleasure at all Times to faithful and affectionate Subjects to speak out their Love and Gratitude to their Prince; so it is natural for them to lay hold of every fit Opportunity that offers of making a fresh Tender of their Duty: To which we are the rather called, as having the Care of the Education of Youth committed to us, that being timely initiated by Example, as by Precept, into the Practice as well as the Knowledge of those solid Principles of Civil Government which inspire an Attachment to the Succession in your illustrious House, they may in a more advanced Age be fitly qualified either to serve your Majesty in the more publick Functions with equal Affection and Fidelity, or be disposed to enjoy at Home in private Life the Blessings of your Majesty's Reign with grateful Sentiments of peaceable and dutiful Subjects.

Was there no other Motive to induce us now to approach the Throne, yet would the single Consideration of the Indignity lately offered in a Memorial to your Majesty by a Sovereign Power under the highest Obligations to the British Nation, alone be sufficient; at which it is hardly possible for private Men to express a just Repentment, without a Violation of those Rules which give Respect to a Person of such high Birth and Character, how much soever he may have offended against them himself. Be it therefore enough for us to say, that no Impressions which tend to lessen the Esteem of your sacred Majesty, how artfully soever disguised and covered; no Seeds of Jealousy and Distrust, how industriously soever dispersed and propagated; neither the more latent Surmises of designing Ministers, nor the more open and solemn Assertions of their Masters, shall ever avail to create the least Misunderstanding between your Majesty and your People, whose Minds we hope will be always as effectually guarded against such conceal'd Poyson by the Effects of your Wisdom, as their Persons and Estates will be preserv'd safe from more open Attacks, by those of your Arms.

As to your Majesty belong the two great Uses of the Sovereign Power necessary for the publick Tranquility, which consist in the repressing of all Violence and Injustice within the State, and defending it against the Attempts of those who would invade it from without; so we have observed with the great-best Pleasure in the Course of your Majesty's happy and successful Administration, your great Tenderness of your Subjects, in retrenching as much as possible the Expence which the first made necessary; and now that your Majesty is unavoidably drawn into the last, for the Safety of the whole Community, in its sacred as well as civil Interests, in no less Danger from the plain Meaning and Tendency of late Treaties, than from their more hidden and secret Stipulations in Favour of a Popish Pretender; your People cannot but contribute with the utmost Cheerfulness what is necessary for so great and good an End, when they know at the same Time that it will be dispensed with so frugal a Hand; and that to these ordinary Forces, necessary in the present Juncture, your Majesty will superadd that more invincible Power, which consists in the Wisdom that governs and regulates the Use of Arms, by a good Counsel, and which makes their Success by the Justice of the Undertaking, to depend upon that all-powerful Aid, without which the greatest Armies are but Weakness, and with which the smallest are victorious.

[Price Three Pence.]

By the propitious Influences of that Aid and Protection, be your Majesty's Person safe from Harm amidst the Hostilities of War; and may your glorious Struggle to preserve the Balance of Power in Europe, serve either timely to compose those Differences which threaten War and Confusion, and prevent their coming to a Head; or after a successful War, happily terminate in a profound and lasting Peace, which instead of Scenes of Blood, may give to your Majesty the more agreeable Prospect of seeing Trade in all its Branches, and Learning in all its Parts, flourish and prosper in their respective Nurseries and Seminaries.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most humble and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

Sign'd in our Presence and by our Appointment, by

Will. Wihart, Principal.

The following humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, and Gentlemen in Dublin and the South of Ireland, &c. has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To His most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers and Gentlemen in Dublin, the South of Ireland, and all associated with them.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects are deeply sensible of the manifold Blessings that all your extensive Dominions derive from your auspicious Government: And we regard your Majesty, as raised up by Divine Providence, to be the powerful Support of the Liberties of Europe, and of that due Balance of Power in it which the exorbitant Ambition of some aspiring Powers threatens to overturn.

Your Majesty's vigilant Care and Sagacity in penetrating into the secret pernicious Designs of those Foreign Powers, (so contrary to the highest Obligations of Gratitude, and to the Faith of Publick Treaties) which now plainly appear to have been levell'd against the rightful Possessions of Great Britain, the beneficial Commerce of your Subjects, and happy Establishment of the Crown in your illustrious Family; your consummate Wisdom in entering-into proper Alliances; taking such early and necessary Measures to render those destructive Designs abortive, and steady Firmness in the Prosecution of them, have been deservedly approved and applauded by your British Parliament; and these renew'd Instances of your tender and ever watchful Concern for the Security and Welfare of your People, give you a just Title to reign in their Hearts.

And as we doubt not of the cheerful Concurrence of all your faithful Subjects with your Majesty, in the Measures your Wisdom shall think needful, to frustrate the Counsels and Enterprizes of ungrateful and perfidious Powers; so we for ourselves and those of our Perswasion, can with Confidence assure your Majesty of our unanimous Resolution, to the utmost of our Power, in our several Stations, to oppose all the Enemies of your Government Abroad or at Home; and particularly all their detestable Projects in Favour of an attainted Popish Pretender.

And we are fully perswaded, that the late insolent Indignities offer'd to your sacred Majesty by the Imperial Resident, in the Name of his Master, will be so far from answering the evil Intentions propos'd by them, as rather to excite in all your loyal Subjects a just Resentment of such injurious and provoking Usage, and to unite their Zeal for the Honour and Service of your Government, in which their own Interest and Happiness is so visibly bound up.

And that the Almighty God (the Supreme Guarantee of the Faith of Publick Treaties) may direct and prosper all your Undertakings in so laudable and righteous a Cause; that He may honour your Majesty to be the happy Instrument of re-establishing the indanger'd Peace of Europe upon more solid and lasting Foundations, of strengthening and enlarging the Protestant Interest in it, and of rendering all your Subjects a safe and flourishing People under your wise and gracious Government; and that He may, to crown all his other Blessings, perpetuate that great and comprehensive one of the Protestant Succession in your Royal Line to our latest Posterity, and blast all the wicked wicked Attempts that may be formed against it, shall be the earnest and constant Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your most obedient faithful Subjects and Servants.

Subscribed in the Name and by the Direction of the Ministers and Gentlemen above-mentioned.

The following humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by Henry Heron and Robert Vyner, Esqrs; Knights of the Shire for the said County, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ancaiter Lord Great Chamberlain of England, and Lord-Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Lincoln. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders, assembled at the Assizes held at Lincoln, this 13th Day of March, 1726-7.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IT is with Astonishment and great Concern we hear, that Treaties are formed to disturb the Peace and Quiet of Europe, threatening your Majesty's Dominions with new Dangers, notwithstanding the many unparalleled Victories obtained by the Arms of our late Queen (of glorious Memory), and her pious Care and unwearied Endeavours to establish the Balance of Power, so remarkably effected by separating the Interest of the most formidable Monarchs.

We cannot sit as idle and unconcerned Spectators whilst Gibraltar is attack'd, and Port-Mahon (won in lawful War, and since yielded and confirmed by Treaties) is demanded by a Prince whose Subjects have enjoyed Advantages in Commerce from this Nation, and must soon feel the Loss of its Friendship.

Nor can we without Wonder and Indignation see Encroachments made upon our Trade, contrary to solemn Leagues, by an old Ally, whose Obligations to Britain must be of the highest Nature.

The private and separate Articles entered into by the Emperour and Spain, to place the Pretender on your Majesty's Throne, fill our Hearts with the warmest Repentments.

Whatever Politicks may actuate the one, or seeming Interest push the other into Measures contrary to former Engagements, we know not; but when we consider your Majesty's Royal Navy, the Walls and Bulwark of this Island, riding triumphant in different Parts of the World, without Controul, asserting the Sovereignty of the Sea, the ancient Pride and Glory of this Nation, we cannot but admire your Majesty's great Goodness and perpetual Care in making such early Preparations by Sea, as must, next under God, re-establish the Blessings of Peace and Commerce, so essential to the Welfare of your Subjects.

Your Majesty's consummate Wisdom does still appear in forming such prudent Alliances, as must greatly contribute to settle the Repose of Europe, and prevent the Effusion of Blood and Treasure by a consuming War.

We are likewise truly sensible of your Majesty's great Condescension in communicating to your People your wise and just Thoughts of making no Acquisitions by Conquest, and that preventive and defensive Measures are taken to support the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and maintain the undoubted Rights and Liberties of the Subject.

May your Majesty still continue to be the Arbitrer of Europe, and contrive such a Peace as may enlarge our Trade, and promote our Manufactures, so necessary to the Good of your People in general, and of this your loyal County in particular; while we, deeply affected with your Majesty's singular and unbounded Goodness, do resolve to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government, and our excellent Constitution in Church and State, against all Invaders and Pretenders whatsoever.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Corporation of Beverley, in the County of York, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Michael Newton, Knight of the Bath, and Sir Charles Hotham, Bart. their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of ancient Corporation of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,
AMIDST the Crowds of your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, who approach the Throne with Expressions of Zeal for your Majesty's Service, of Thankfulness for your watchful Providence over the Interests of your People, and Repentment against the pernicious and ungrateful Attempts of our Enemies; permit us, Great Sir, to declare, that as we look upon the Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberty, our Trade and Prosperity, to be intirely owing to your Royal Care and Vigilance to preserve these valuable Blessings to us; as we securely confide in the Justice and Wisdom of your Conduct to bring to a happy

Issue

Issue those Measures which the Designs of your Enemies have made necessary; so we think ourselves obliged most readily and heartily to concur in contributing what is in our Power to the Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Preservation of those Advantages which have been acquired with Honour, and confirmed by solemn Treaties; both which are threatened, in manifest Violation to the just Rights of our Sovereign and his People.

We beg Leave to observe, that the Schemes of our Enemies (which we hope to see quickly and effectually disappointed) are a plain Demonstration of the Excellency of that Government which they presume to attack; they despair (and with Reason) to succeed in any Attempts, so long as your Wisdom, Resolution and Goodness preside over and guard the Nation: For this Cause they would obtrude upon us a Popish Pretender, under whom they might boldly own and easily execute their worst Designs, because it would be permitted them to seize what your Majesty refuses to sacrifice to their unreasonable Demands.

This Design they seem to disclaim, but the Memorial which pretends it, does but confirm all that has been imputed to them; a most insolent, but weak Attempt, to divide your Majesty and your dutiful Subjects, which shews as well their past Malice, as future evil Intentions.

If still there be any Enemies to your Majesty's Government who live under the auspicious Influence of it, we doubt not but the Politicks of Vienna and Madrid will at last convince them, that the present Security of our common and dearest Blessings depend (under God) upon your Majesty's Protection, and that the future Establishment and Perpetuity of them must be derived from the Protestant Succession in your Royal and Illustrious House.

*Given under our common Seal this
29th Day of March, Anno
Dom. 1727.*

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk and Burgesses, with the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Corporation and Borough of Doncaster, in the County of York, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Sanderson, Knight of the Bath, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk and Burgesses, with the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Corporation and Borough of Doncaster, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk and Burgesses, with the Freeholders and Inhabitants of your Antient Corporation and Borough of Doncaster, do humbly presume upon this Occasion to declare before your Majesty our most unalterable Affections and resolute Adherence to your Majesty's Person and Government, in utter Defiance of all your open and secret Enemies.

It is a triumphant Pleasure to us, to behold your Majesty firmly settled on the Throne of Great Britain, your undoubted Right; and that Throne surrounded and supported with every Blessing that can concur to make a Monarch truly Great and Powerful.

We are supremely happy in his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, your Heir Apparent; in the Princess and their numerous Royal Progeny, in whom God gives us the Earnest of an hereditary Continuance of our old Establishment both in Church and State, which we at present do most securely enjoy in your Majesty.

We Congratulate your Majesty in the Trustiness and great Abilities of your Council, the Unanimity and Wisdom of your Parliament, in the Fidelity and Vigilance of your Ministry, the victorious Bravery of your Forces by Sea and Land, and especially in the willing Obedience of a loyal People.

All which may justly give Despair to the expiring Hopes of the Pretender and his Adherents; and do encourage our Assurances, that no Attack of Spain, or of any other Power not in Amity with your Majesty, shall ever be able to make any dangerous Impression upon the Tranquility and Repose of these Realms, so happily at Ease under your Majesty's most gracious Administration.

That Almighty God will grant to your sacred Majesty in Health, Wealth and Glory, long to live; that he will prosper your whole Royal Family with all Happiness; and strengthen you to overcome all your Enemies, is the most hearty and incessant Prayer of,

Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The following humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Edward Digby, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the said County, and Sir Richard Gough, Kt. introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's ty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously, and the Gentlemen who presented it had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave with all humble Submission to express our grateful Sense of your paternal Care of this Church and Nation in general, and to return our sincerest Thanks for that distinguishing Instance of your great Goodness to us in particular, in affording us your Royal Bounty in so liberal and seasonable a Manner, towards finishing the New Church lately erected in this Town.

It is with the greatest Pleasure that we observe your Majesty's Concern for the Trade and Navigation of Great Britain, on the Prosperity of which the Welfare of the whole Nation principally depends, but of none more than of your loyal People of this Place. This justly calls both for the best Expressions of our Gratitude, and the utmost Cheerfulness in contributing our respective Quotas towards the supporting so valuable Privileges.

That any Prince or Combination of Princes should so far usurp upon us, as to pretend in any the least Degree to dispose of the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms, is an Instance of Arrogance and Presumption not to be born; but that they should imagine such a Disposition should ever take Place to the Prejudice of a Protestant King, and in favour of an attainted Pretender, from his Infancy bred up in, and now begot to the destructive Principles and Politicks of Popery, and whom we and all your faithful Subjects have so lately and freely Abjur'd, is such an Aggravation as will justify the highest Resentments; and which we hope no Policy will ever mitigate or forgive without a just and full Satisfaction.

With what Strength and Glory has your Majesty and your Royal Predecessors held the Ballance of Power amidst a Neighbourhood of ambitious Princes! And for our Enemies to fancy that your Majesty, who has been a common Guardian to the Princes of Europe, should be less so to your own People, shews they are unacquainted with your Royal Benevolence and Gracious Intentions towards us, and of the Strength and Firmness of your Majesty's Throne, Establish'd, as it is, in the Hearts and Affections of a free People.

Go on, glorious Prince, to perfect the good Work you have begun; rescue our Trade from the Clogs some ungrateful Princes have laid upon it; protect us in those few but useful Conquests of the last War; and assert your Majesty's most just Title to the Crown of these Realms against all Pretenders whatsoever: And after having effected these great and noble Ends, may your Majesty and your People sit down in the sweetest Tranquillity, cultivate the Arts of Peace, and enjoy the Blessings of honest Industry.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Higham-Ferrers, in the County of Northampton, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable John Finch, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Higham-Ferrers, in the County of Northampton.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, alarmed at the Dangers that threaten this Nation, should the fatal Schemes of Germany and Spain take Effect, which can end in nothing but reducing a free People to Slavery, and a Protestant Country to the Yoke of Popery, beg Leave to assure you, that we have too just a Value for the Benefits we reap from your mild Administration, not to contribute all in our Power for the Support of your Government.

We pray God that your wise and steady Counsels for the preserving the Ballance of Europe may be crowned with Success; that Trade may still flourish, and the Pride of Spain once more stoop to the Fleets of Britain.

The following humble Address of the Borough-Bailiff, Burgesses, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the Ancient and ever Loyal Borough of Malton, in the County of York, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Wentworth, Knight of the Bath, one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty's was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Borough-Bailiff, Burgesses, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the the Ancient and ever Loyal Borough of Malton, in the County of York.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, concerned that your Person and Government should be any Ways affronted, do however with Pleasure observe the wise and just Steps taken for the Security of your People, and doubt not but Providence will chastise those Princes whom Treaties cannot bind, nor Gratitude oblige.

The peaceful Enjoyment of our Religion, our Liberties, and our Properties, are the happy Effects of your most auspicious Reign; and we hope we may, without Offence to others, assume to ourselves the Glory of being unanimously sensible how great those Blessings are, and that the Continuance of them, does (under God) entirely depend upon your Safety, and that of your Royal House: Therefore what Taxes are Necessary for the Support of such a Cause, though by your Majesty demanded with Regret, shall by us be paid with Cheerfulness.

The following humble Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Council of the Burgh of Linlithgow, has been presented to His Majesty by John Murray, of Philiphaugh, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Council of the Burgh of Linlithgow, for themselves, and in Name of the whole Community thereof.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, beg Leave, with the highest Gratitude, to acknowledge the many and singular Blessings your Subjects do enjoy under your Majesty's just and merciful Government.

We cannot but observe with the greatest Pleasure, that as the Laws of the Land have been the constant Rule of your Administration, so the Peace, Ease, and Prosperity of your People, have been your Majesty's great Design during the whole Course of your glorious Reign; This, as it must engage the sincerest and warmest Affections of your loyal Subjects, so 'tis impossible that the Preservation of your sacred Person and Government can be indifferent to any, but those who despise the unvaluable Blessings of Religion, Liberty, and Property.

Were we not filled with the deepest Resentment at the Indignities which have been offered to your Majesty by the Menaces and Projects in favours of a Popish Pretender, by the Invasions upon the Rights and Privileges of your People, secured to them by the most solemn Treaties, we should be unworthy of all the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious and excellent Government.

But as your Majesty's consummate Wisdom and Vigilance hath timeously discovered the wicked Designs of your and your Peoples Enemies, so 'tis with the greatest Satisfaction that we have beheld the vigorous Methods that have been taken by your Majesty for the Protection of your own Subjects, and for curbing and restraining the boasted Projects of the Disturbers of the Peace of Europe.

Permit us, Great Sir, to take this Opportunity to declare our outmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the Abjur'd Pretender, and to assure your Majesty, that we will with all Cheerfulness sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes for maintaining your Majesty's undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of this Realm, being fully persuaded, that all that can be dear to us as Men or Christians; does, under God, depend upon the Preservation of our present happy Establishment. We are,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal,
most affectionate and faithful Subjects.

Lisbon, March 31, N. S. Letters from Corunna of the 17th Instant advise, that the Day before, by Virtue of an Order from the Court of Spain, the Boscawen Packet-Boat lying in that Harbour was seized with all the Effects on board her; and the same Day Consul Parker's Goods were all seized, without excepting any Thing but his Cloaths. By these and other Advices it appears, that a general Order has been issued by the Court of Spain, to the Governours of the maritime Provinces of that Kingdom, to seize all Effects belonging to Subjects of Great Britain, whether in Shipping or ashore. The said Letters from Corunna relate, that five Men of War which lately arrived there with the Flota from the Havana, were drawn into a Line, and lay with Springs upon their Cables. The Portuguese Fleet bound for the Rio de Janeiro, consisting of 24 Merchant Ships, under the Convoy of a Man of War of 60 Guns, sailed from hence on the 24th Instant. On the 27th Instant a Merchant Ship called the Pinniall, Alexander Baxter Master, arrived here from Faro; the said Master reports, that on the 20th and 21st Instant they heard there continual Firing off Cape St. Mary's, and were informed by a Fisher-Boat that they had seen seven or eight large Ships engaged off that Cape, but through the Haziness of the Weather could not distinguish what Ships they were. Yesterday terday the Betty Galley; Richard Blake Master, entered this River in nine Days Voyage from Portsmouth: The Master says he left the Torbay Man of War, with nine Transports, four Store-Ships, and a Fireship, off the Rock of Lisbon on the 25th Instant, making for Gibraltar with a fair Wind. The last Advices from the Camp before Gibraltar are of the 15th Instant; and only import that the Siege goes on slowly.

Whitehall, April 4.

Last Night arrived Mr. Zollman, Secretary to Mr. Poyntz His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at Stockholm, with the Instruments of the Accession of Sweden to the Treaty of Hanover; and Baron Sparre, Envoy Extraordinary from his Swedish Majesty to this Court, is expected in a few Days with the Ratifications on the Part of Sweden.

Richard Sutton, Esq; Brigadier General of His Majesty's Forces, and His Envoy Extraordinary to his most Serene Highness the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel, embarked the 30th past on board the Fubbs Yacht for Holland in his Way to the Court of Cassel.

His Excellency Mr. Stanhope landed Yesterday at Dover, and to Day arrived in Town.

Whitehall, April 4.

On the 28th past the Corps of Sir Isaac Newton lay in State in the Jerusalem Chamber, and was buried from thence in Westminster-Abbey near the Entry into the Choir. The Pall was supported by the Lord High Chancellour, the Dukes of Montrose and Roxburgh, and the Earls of Pembroke, Suffolk and Macclesfield, being Fellows of the Royal Society. The Honourable Sir Michael Newton, Knight of the Bath, was Chief Mourner, and was followed by some other Relations, and several eminent Persons intimately acquainted with the Deceased. The Office was performed by the Bishop of Rochester attended by the Prebends and Choir.

His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant the Employment of Master and Worker of the Mint, which he enjoyed above 27 Years, to his Nephew John Conduitt, Esq;

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies late of His Majesty's Ships Anglesea and Fowey, that were present at the taking of a French Privateer, called the Caesar of Nantz, in or about the Month of January 1710, on the Coast of Guinea, that they may receive their respective Shares of the Bounty given by Act of Parliament in this Behalf, at Mr. Jasper's Office on Great Tower-Hill, on Tuesday the 9th of May next, where such Shares as are not then demanded, will continue to be paid on the first Tuesdays of every Month for three Years to come.

Advertisements.

TO be Sold by Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before Robert Holford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, the Mannor of Thoresway, (being pleasantly situated on the Wolds in Lincolnshire, 14 Miles from Litchfield, eight from Louth, and six from Great Grimsby) of the yearly Value of 600 l. The Estate is in very good Repair; being lately built or repaired. Particulars to be had at the said Master's Chambers in Symond's-Inn in Chancery-Lane.

WHereas the Commissioners in the Commission of Bankrupt against Nicholas Gray, late of the Parish of St. Sepulchre, London, Citizen and Haberdasher, met on the 29th of March last, at Guildhall, London, in order for the Sale to the best Bidder of all the said Bankrupt's Estate in Warwickshire, being one undivided Moiety of a Messuage and three Yard Lands thereto belonging, in the Parish of Birmingham, one Close of Pasture in Willington, in the Parish of Barfeton, alias Barcheston, and four Lots of Meadow Ground in the Parishes of Bailes and Birmingham, or one of them, in the County of Warwick, and the Sum of 550 l. was bid for the Purchase of the Premises, but the further Bidding for the Premises was, at the Desire and Consent of the Creditors, adjourn'd to Guildhall, London, on the 14th of April Instant, at Three in the Afternoon, when and where the Sale of the Premises will be peremptorily made, and the Person to be declared the best Purchaser is to deposit in the Hands of the Assignees Seventy Pounds in Part of the Purchase-Money within 14 Days after such Bidding, otherwise the Estate to be put up to Sale again.

WHereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded against Francis Irving, of Kettering, in the County of Northampton, Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt; is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners on the 14th and 15th Instant, and on the 4th of May next, at Twelve in the Forenoon, at the Red-Lion-Inn in West-Haddon, in the County of Northampton; at the second of which Sittings the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, pay Contribution-Money, and chuse Assignees.

WHereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded against John Warne, of the City of Norwich, Woited-Weaver, and he being declared a Bankrupt; is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners on the 14th and 21st Instant, and on the 4th of May next, at Three in the Afternoon, at the House of John Dunch, being the King's-Head Tavern in Norwich; at the first of which Sittings the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, pay Contribution-Money, and chuse Assignees.

WHereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded against Joseph Pedley, of St. Martin's in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Mason, and he being declared a Bankrupt; is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners on the 12th and 19th Instant, and on the 4th of May next, at Three in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London; at the second of which Sittings the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, pay Contribution-Money, and chuse Assignees. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any Goods or Effects of his in their Hands, are desired to give Notice thereof to Mr. Vincent Eyre, Attorney, at his Chambers, No 10, in Coney-Court in Gray's-Inn, London.

WHereas Robert Whitton, of Allenstreet, in the Parish of St. James Clerkenwell, in the County of Middlesex, Butcher, hath surrendered himself (pursuant to Notice) and been twice examined; This is to give Notice, that he will attend the Commissioners on the 17th Instant, at Three in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, to finish his Examination; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, pay Contribution-Money, and assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate.

WHereas the acting Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Walter Dymott, late of Drury-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Victualler, have certified to the Right Honourable Peter Lord King, Baron of Ockham, Lord High Chancellour of Great Britain, that the said Walter Dymott hath in all Things conformed himself according to the Directions of the several Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts; This is to give Notice, that his Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the said Acts direct, unless Cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 24th Instant.

WHereas the acting Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against William Taggart, late of Cirencester, in the County of Gloucester, Chapman, have certified to the Right Honourable Peter Lord King, Baron of Ockham, Lord High Chancellour of Great Britain; that the said William Taggart hath in all Things conformed himself according to the Directions of the several Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts; This is to give Notice, that his Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the said Acts direct, unless Cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 24th Instant.