St. James's, May 9.

THE following humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, and Gentlemen of the County of Anglesea, has been presented to His Majesty by Hugh Williams, Esq; Representative for that County, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, and Gentlemen of the County of Anglesea.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THough we are so unfortunate as to be remote from your Royal Person; yet we abundantly feel the happy Influence of your auspicious Reign; and when we find some Powers (whom the greatest Favours and most solemn Treaties are too feeble to bind) openly attacking our Properties, so gloriously purchased, and undermining our Trade, on which the Being of this Nation depends; and our very Religion and Liberties already attempted to be destroy'd, Silence would be a Crime; give us Leave then humbly to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Loyalty and inviolable Zeal for your Majesty's Prosperity.

When some Parts of your Dominions ungratefully took Arms against your Majesty, your faithful Britons remained untainted without Troops to deter us, sufficiently restrained by our sincere Affection to the best of Kings, and best of Princes; but we cannot pretend to any Merit in doing our Duty, when we must have become our own Enemies the Moment we commenced yours.

Great Sir, we are sensible that Peace is a Blessing highly to be valued, but it degenerates into a Curse, when our Religion, Properties and Liberties must be the Sacrifice to procure it; and your Majesty's tender Regard for those inestimable Benefits, will convince the World that you (the true Father of your People) think the Repose of your Reign too dearly bought at the Expence of your Subjects Welfare; and we should make a very poor Return to so much Goodness; were we not ready to undergo all Hazards in the Defence of your Majesty and your Royal Issue, and those invaluable Blessings that attend them. These are the hearty Prayers and sincere Wishes of your Majesty's most loyal Subjects.

The following humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Corporation of Morpeth in the County of Northumberland, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Morpeth, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Morpeth in the County of Northumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's great and consummate Wisdom, most signally shewn to all Europe, by the early and seasonable Equipment of your Royal Navy, together with your prudent Distribution thereof into proper Stations, thereby to secure to us and your Majesty's Allies the desirable Blessings of Peace and Trade, are such signal Instances not only of your Majesty's paternal Affection to your own People, but also of your Majesty's unparalleled Sagacity in Matters of State, that should we be silent in returning your Majesty our most unfeigned Thanks for the same, (which in the most dutiful Manner we hereby do) we should think ourselves wanting in our Duty to so good and gracious a Sovereign.

We therefore, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as it is with the greatest Pleasure and Satisfaction, we enumerate the many inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most wise and gracious Administration; so we cannot without the utmost Abhorrence think upon the unjust and ungrateful Designs formed by some crowned Heads against your sacred Majesty and your Dominions, not only contrary to firm and solemn Treaties then subsisting, but to all known Maxims of Justice and Gratitude.

Permit us, dread Sovereign, in the most dutiful Manner, to assure your Majesty, that we will with our Lives and Fortunes support and defend your Majesty's sacred Person and Government against all your Enemies both at Home and Abroad; and that we will never cease to implore the Divine Providence to bless and preserve to us, not only your Royal Person, together with our happy Constitution both in Church and State, but that there may never be wanting to us one of your most illustrious Family to sway the Scepter of those your Kingdoms now under your Majesty's most wise and prudent Administration.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Minister, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Warwick, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord William Pawlet and Nicholas Rothwell, Esq; Mayor of the Town of Warwick, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Minister, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Warwick.

May it please your Majesty,

WE beg Leave to joyn with the rest of your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, in expressing both our utmost Abhorrence of the base Attempts that are made against your Majesty and your Dominions, and our just Sense of your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness in making such early Discoveries of the Designs of your Enemies, and such seasonable and vigorous Preparations for the Good and Security of your People.

We hope that the Spaniards will once more find the Bravery of a British Garrison, as impregnable as the Fortres of Gibraltar; and that the Emperour, if he persists in his unreasonable Schemes, will rouse the Spirit of a People, to whom he owes his very Power and Capacity of opposing them.

Your Majesty hath shewn a religious Regard to your Alliances, and remarkable Unwillingness to have them dissolved; and we don't doubt, but the open Violation of solemn Treaties, and the most shameful Instances of Ingratitude, as well as your Majesty's Honour and Integrity, will meet with their just Reward.

And we do assure your Majesty, that no artful Insinuations in favour of a Popish Pretender, much less any scandalous Memorials dispersed amongst us, shall lessen our dutiful Esteem for your Majesty: But that you may be always possessed of the best humane Security, the Affections of your People; that you may still hold the Balance of Europe in a glorious Peace or a successful War; and that the like valuable Blessings, after a long Continuance to your Majesty, may be transmitted down to your latest Posterity, shall be faithfully promoted and endeavoured by our Prayers to the Disposer of all Things, by our Interest with our Fellow-Subjects, and by all that our several Stations and sincere Hearts can enable us to do.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick, at a General Assizes and General Goal Delivery, held in and for the said County, the 4th Day of April, 1727.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of the repeated Insults and Indignities which have been lately offered to your most sacred Majesty and your People.

But what creates in us the greatest Desolation and Astonishment, is the insolent Memorial lately delivered by the Imperial Resident to your Majesty; the Folly, Audaciousness, and Falsities of which nothing can parallel but the Ingratitude of that Prince to the British Nation.

The seasonable Discovery made by your Majesty of the destructive Schemes concerted by some ambitious Powers for the Enlargement of their Trade and Dominions, by the Destruction of these Nations, indispensibly require our most grateful Acknowledgements and the utmost Assurances of a determined Resolution in your faithful Subjects of this Country, to sacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in the Vindication and Support of your Honour and sacred Person, against the Attempts and Designs of all your Enemies either at Home or Abroad.

St. James's, May 9. This Day Sir Hans Sloane President, accompanied by the Duke of Richmond, the Duke of Queensbury, the Lord Cadogan, with several of the Council and other Fellows of the Royal Society, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, presented to His Majesty the following most humble Request.

May

May it please your Majesty,
THE President, Council and Fellows of your Majesty's Royal Society of London for improving Natural Knowledge, your most dutiful Subjects, presume to approach your sacred Person with the deepest Sense of Gratitude for the many inestimable Blessings they enjoy under the Influence of your Majesty's wife and gentle Government.

The numerous Instances of your Royal Favour extended to other Societies founded for the Advancement of Learning, have also encouraged them to beg of your Majesty that they may have the Honour of seeing your august Name inscribed in their Book of Charters and Laws, as their most gracious Patron.

This great Honour, added to the like they have received from some of your Royal Predecessors, will increase the Reputation of the Society; and as it shews them they have the Happiness of being more immediately under your Royal Protection, will yet more strongly incite them to the Pursuit of the great End of their Institution, the Advancement of all Sorts of useful Knowledge, and that particularly by such Observations and Experiments, as may tend to the Improvement of the Natural Produce, the Manufactures, and Navigation of your Majesty's Kingdoms; by which the Riches of the Nation may be increased, and many Benefits they hope be derived to latest Posterity.

They were most graciously received by His Majesty, who was pleased to write his Name in their Book as Patron of the Society, and the said Noblemen and Gentlemen had all the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

Whitehall, May 9.

Sir John Norris with the Squadron of His Majesty's Ships of War under his Command, sailed the 5th Instant from the Mouth, three Leagues below the Nore, for the Baltick.

His Majesty has been pleased to order Letters Patents to be passed under the Great Seal of Ireland for granting the Dignity of Baronet of that Kingdom to John Dickson Hamman of Woodhill in the County of Cork.

Admiralty-Office, May 4, 1727.

Whereas at the Time of sitting out His Majesty's Fleet, there were Protections granted from and after the 14th Day of February last, not only to outward-bound Ships, but to Ships and Vessels trading Coastways, Fishing-Vessels, Peter-Boats, and others, several of which are now almost expired; The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby give Notice, That all such Protections as have been so granted by them, as aforesaid, or to and for other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, notwithstanding the respective Dates thereof, continue in Force for Three Months longer, from this Day, without Renewal; and their Lordships have strictly directed all Captains, Commanders, Lieutenants, and other Officers of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels who now are, or shall be employed in impressing Men, to have a particular Regard thereunto. By Command of their Lordships,
