St. James's, May 13.

THE following Humble Address of the Provost, Baillies and Town-Council of the Burgh of Innerkeithing, has been presented to His Majesty by Henry Cuninghame Esq; their Representative in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies and Town-Council of your ancient Burgh of Innerkeithing.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do, from a most sincere and grateful Sense of our Happiness and Security under your most gracious Government and wise Administration, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our warmest Wishes for the long Continuance of these inestimable Blessings; and to join with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, in expressing our highest Indignation, and just Repentment at the Designs framed and carrying on by a Potentate who owes his former Safety, and present Greatness, to the victorious Arms of Great Britain, and his new Ally the King of Spain, in Favours of a Popish Pretender, thereby to impose upon us the Yoke of Superstition and Arbitrary Power, manifestly tending to the Destruction of all that is dear and valuable to us as Christians and loyal Subjects.

The vigorous Resolutions of your Parliament have filled our Hearts with the greatest Joy, and we are firmly persuaded, that your Majesty's unwearied Care, the prudent Disposition of your Fleets abroad, and of your Troops at Home, will effectually check the lawless Ambition of those who are Enemies to your Majesty, and our most excellent Constitution both in Church and State.

We therefore beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are with one Heart and Mind ready and determined to shew our just Repentments for all Injuries done, or Indignities offered to your Majesty and your People, and at all Hazards are ready to support your Sacred Person and Government, and the Succession in your most illustrious House.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of your People; that the same good Providence which hath hitherto preserved your Majesty, may protect your Sacred Person, and grant you long Life and a prosperous Reign; and that the Succession of the Imperial Crown of these Realms may forever, continue in your most illustrious Family, is the sincere Wishes, and fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

Signed in the Name, and by the Appointment of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the said Burgh, by

Hen. Cuninghame, Provost.

The following humble Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, Town-Clerk and Burgeses of the Common-Council of the Burgh of Bury St. Edmonds, in the County of Suffolk, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Harvey, one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, Town-Clerk, and Burgesses of the Common-Council of the Burgh of Bury St. Edmonds, in the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEN the Peace and Repose of Europe is disturbed by one Sovereign Power, whose Ability to do so is chiefly owing to the Bravery and Success of the Arms of Great Britain, under the Conduct of one of your Majesty's Subjects the victorious Duke of Marlborough, and the Trade of your industrious and loyal People (yielded and secured to us by several Treaties) is interrupted by the same Power, who is but lately acquainted with the Benefit and Advantage of Commerce :

When your Fortrefs of Gibraltar is actually besieged, and Port Mahon (that Safeguard of your Fleets) is threatened to be attacked by the Force of another Power, and an abjured Pretender by their united Efforts designed to be set on your Majesty's Throne, whose Laws to a Protestant Nation will be wrote in Blood, and the Yoak of whose Religion our Fathers were not able to bear : Give us Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will support and maintain your Royal Person and Family, to your latest Posterity, in the Possession of the Imperial Crown of these Realms, by freely offering our Wealth in the Preservation of our Laws, and sacrificing our Lives in the Defence of our Religion, and in supporting your Majesty's rightful Title to these your Dominions.

It is no Wonder, that the Happiness we enjoy under your mild and gentle Administration, should derive upon us the Envy of those who are Strangers to such Blessings ; but we doubt not, but by the Wisdom of your Council at Home, who so timely discovered the Contrivances of your Enemies, and by the Valour of your Armies, and those of your Allies Abroad, they will be obliged to sue to your Majesty for that Peace, which in Breach of the most solemn Treaties they have ingloriously disturbed.

Given under our common Seal at the Guild-hall within the said Burgh, this 4th Day of May, Anno Dom. 1727.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Cork, in the Kingdom of Ireland, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Corke, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of this City, beg Leave to approach your most sacred Majesty with Hearts full of Gratitude for the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most wise and glorious Administration, and in a more especial Manner for your paternal Care of the darling Interests and Privileges of your People, at this Time when the Enemies of your Majesty and these Nations have entred into clandestine and unjustifiable Engagements to disturb your Majesty's Government and the Peace and Tranquility of Europe.

All your Majesty's Subjects must highly resent the King of Spain's unjust Attempt upon Gibraltar, and the Emperour's usurped and extended Exercise of Trade and Commerce ; but when we reflect, that to these great Injuries they have superadded that of combining to impose a Popish Pretender on your Majesty's Kingdoms, we cannot find Words to express our-Resentment and Indignation.

This open Violation of all national Faith, and the most solemn Treaties, committed by both these Princes, and the particular and unparalleled Behaviour of the latter of them, whose present Greatness was principally purchased with the Blood and Treasure of Great Britain, fill us with Amazement ; but we comfort ourselves, in that we make no doubt but the Arms and Influence of Britain will soon reduce them both to sue for the Re-establishment of that Repose which they have disturbed, and prove as effectual in bringing the Emperour to Reason, as they were instrumental in raising him to Power.

As we are by Duty, by Gratitude, and by Interest bound, so are we by the most ardent Affection and Inclination, led readily and cheerfully to offer unto your Majesty our utmost Assistance on this great Emergency : And we shall not cease to pray, that all Designs formed against your Majesty's most sacred Person or Government, may be confounded and brought to nought, and that all your Enemies may fall before you.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed the common Seal of this City, the 29th Day of March, Anno Domini 1727.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Grand Jury, and Citizens of the City of Waterford, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address

Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Grand Jury, and Citizens of the City of Waterford, at an Assizes held in and for the County of the said City, the 8th Day of March 1726.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE most humbly beg Leave to approach your most sacred Majesty, to repeat the Tenders of our Allegiance to your Royal Person and Government, our affectionate Regard to the true Interest of your Dominions, and our just Resentment of the Counsels and Measures entered into by some foreign Powers then engaged in the Common Cause, and in whose Favour the Zeal and Valour of Great Britain was most eminently distinguished, so soon to enter into Measures which appear to be manifestly injurious to the Honour of your Majesty, and Subversion of the Trade, Peace and Happiness of your People.

When we remember the Expence of Blood and Treasure, under which Europe groaned, and which lay particularly heavy on these Kingdoms, in order to settle a just Balance of Power and Trade, and at the same Time to support our Neighbours most exposed, we cant but be surprized to see any of the Powers evidently shew they have lost their Regards to the just Rights of their ancient Friends, as well as to the most generous Obligations.

And as we think ourselves bound with Hearts full of Thankfulness and Joy to acknowledge the superior Wisdom and Penetration of your Majesty's Counsels, and your unwearied Endeavours for the Good of your People, hitherto highly favoured of Heaven, and blest'd with the most agreeable Success, particularly in the Conduct of the last Year, so we take Leave to assure your Majesty, that till such Time as we can find it practicable to reconcile the Interests and Passions of a Popish Pretender and a Protestant Church, an arbitrary Tyrant and a free People, Slavery and Liberty, Poverty and Baseness with Plenty and true Glory, it is impossible but that your Majesty must be possessed of our Hearts, and all that's in our Power to contribute toward the Support of your undoubted Right to the Crown of these Kingdoms, and the Felicity and Glory of your Reign.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Grand Jury, of the City of Limerick, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Grand Jury, of the City of Limerick, at the Assizes held the 4th Day of April 1727.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, being truly sensible of the great Happiness which we enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious Government, take Leave to lay hold of this Opportunity of our being called together, to express our just Resentments against all Attempts to disturb the Quiet of your Reign.

We of this City, who have formerly felt the Effects of a Popish and Arbitrary Power, under the Tyranny of the late King James, must with the greatest Concern see the most inestimable Blessings, such as our religious and civil Rights, again endeavoured to be wrested from us; we owe their Restoration to a glorious Protestant King, and are convinced, that under your Majesty, who is now the undoubted Defender of that Faith, they only can be preserved to us, and transmitted to our Posterity by the Continuance of the Succession in your most illustrious House.

Your Majesty's great Wisdom in the Care you have shewn for the Trade of your People, fills us with the utmost Gratitude; and as we see the Treaties and Confederacies carried on to destroy it, and place on us a Pretender and a Popish Impossor are chiefly contrived by a Prince to whom you have been a Protector, and whose Possessions are owing to the Success of your Arms, we look upon these Injuries with the greatest Abhorrence.

And we do assure your Majesty, that our Zeal to your Service shall not be confined to the Walls of this your City, but as in Defence of them we resolve to risque our Lives at Home, so we shall think it our Duty at the same Hazard to preserve your just Rights Abroad.

The following humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Meath, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Meath, at a General Quarter Sessions of

of the Peace held for the said County, on the 13th of April, 1727.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE the Justices of the Peace, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Meath, at a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for this County, this 13th of April, 1727, take this Opportunity to assure your Majesty of our great Duty and Loyalty to your most sacred Person, and Zeal for the Prosperity of your most gracious and mild Government over us; and humbly beg Leave, among the most dutiful of your Majesty's Subjects, to engage to your Majesty, that we will not only at this particular Juncture (when the most solemn Treaties are broke through by those who had the greatest Obligations to your Majesty) but during our Lives, support your Majesty and your Royal House with our Lives and Fortunes, against all your Enemies both at Home and Abroad.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Fermanagh, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Fermanagh, at the Assizes held at Eniskillen, for the said County, on the 15th of March, 1726.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave (at this Time when powerful Enemies have conspired against you, and your Dominions are threatened with an Invasion in favour of a Popish Pretender to your Crown and Dignity) to shew our just Abhorrence of such ungenerous Practices, and to assure your Majesty of our unwearied Zeal to support you, and the valuable Blessings we enjoy under you, with our Lives and Fortunes.

It is with Surprize and Abhorrence we see a great Prince just preserved from Destruction, and flourishing by the Support of British Arms and Counsels, ungratefully turning his Forces against his Deliverers, and striving to heap on us all the Miseries and Desolations from which we have just rescued him and his Dominions.

In which vain and ungrateful Attempts, if he has any Hopes of being supported by any of your Majesty's Subjects, we doubt not but his Disappointment will convince him of the Folly of his Views: Nor can we believe that any true Protestant, in the full Enjoyment of all valuable Blessings, under the best of Princes, will break through all the Ties of Honour and Conscience, to enslave himself and all his Posterity to an abjured and enraged Popish Pretender.

Our Ancestors of this County have before this signalized themselves in an uncommon Manner in Defence of Liberty and a Protestant Cause, under our Glorious Deliverer King William; and we now assure your Majesty with the utmost Sincerity, we have the same Inclinations for the same Cause, and are ready and willing to sacrifice all that is dear to us in the Support of your Majesty and your Royal House.

And that your Majesty may, in spite of all your Enemies Foreign and Domestick, live long, and reign happily over us, and when you are translated to a better Place, we may never want a Successour from your Royal Loins, endued with your Virtues, to reign over us to the latest Generations, is the hearty and sincere Prayer of,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, at a General Session of the Peace held at Kilmainham, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

At a General Session of the Peace, held at Kilmainham for the County of Dublin, the 13th Day of April 1727. The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the said County.

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, do on this our first Opportunity, with the utmost Gratitude, acknowledge your Royal Goodness in the early and effectual Care you have been pleased to take for the Preservation of the Trade, Commerce, and Rights of your Subjects, and the Vindication of your Majesty's Honour.

The Measures lately taken to impose an abjured Popish Pretender on your Majesty's Throne, and thereby deprive us of the Blessings we have constantly enjoyed under your auspicious Reign, and rob us of our civil and religious Rights, must and do fill our Hearts with the utmost Repentment and Indignation, on, especially when we consider that one of the Powers concerned in this Attempt owes his present Grandeur to the Arms, Blood and Treasure of these your Majesty's Dominions.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, with the greatest Readiness, devote our Lives and Fortunes to the Defence of your Majesty and your Royal Family's undoubted Rights, and to the Preservation of the Protestant Religion, against all your and our Enemies both at Home and Abroad.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Sligoe, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Sligoe, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at Sligoe, the 12th Day of April 1727.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Sligoe, beg Leave in the humblest Manner to offer up our hearty Thanks to your Royal Majesty for your princely Care of these Kingdoms, at this Time, when the most solemn Treaties entered into by neighbouring Powers are most unjustly violated.

It is with the greatest Pleasure we see your Majesty sending out your Fleets to command the Seas, and protect our Trade, which, we doubt not, will be as successful as the Cause you are engaged in is just and honourable.

We have lately read a libellous Paper, intitled, the Emperour's Memorial to your Majesty, with the highest Resentment and Abhorrence, the Falsity of which the Memorialist must have known, and that it could have no other Tendency but to raise a Distrust of your sacred Majesty in the Minds of your People, though it must have a quite different Effect upon all your faithful Subjects, who have any Regard for their Religion, Liberties, and Properties; in maintaining whereof, your great Zeal hath brought upon your most sacred Majesty the Wrath and Indignation of those Princes who would destroy them, enraged that their Schemes for setting up a most exorbitant Power, are by your Majesty's Wisdom and Vigilance discovered and rendered abortive.

We do therefore sincerely, unanimously and cheerfully assure your Majesty, that we will upon this and all other Occasions, exert the utmost of our Abilities, and contribute whatever lies in our Power for the Preservation of your sacred Person and the Succession in your Royal House, in Opposition to all your Enemies; and we will take particular Care in all our several Stations to preserve the Peace of the Country, by keeping a watchful Eye over the Popish Inhabitants; who are the only Persons of this Country who can even be suspected of Disaffection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

From on board the Torbay, 20 Leagues from Cape St. Mary's; April 13, O. S. Sir Charles Wager with the Squadron of His Majesty's Ships under his Command, sailed Yesterday from Gibraltar to cruise, with this Ship, the Sterling-Castle, Burford, Kent, Royal Oak, Canterbury, York, and the Pool Fireship. We left at Gibraltar, the Tyger, Winchester, Lyme, Solebay Bombship, Thunder Bombship, Cruizer and Hawk Sloops, and they are to be joyned by the Portland from Lagos, and by the Dursley Galley from Lisbon: They are to remain at Gibraltar, and cruise on the Back of the Hill, and off Cabarita Point; to intercept Spanish Imbarkations; and secure our Merchant Ships against Half Gallies, and one of them will be generally going to Tetuan or Tangier. Sir Charles Wager ordered the Colchester and Swallow to sail from Gibraltar to Port-Mahon, to clean there. We had a great deal of blowing Weather and Rain while we lay at Gibraltar: And two Days before we came away the Solebay arrived there with the Detachment of 500 Men from Port Mahon. By all we observed at Gibraltar, the Spaniards seem to have undertaken a Work there that is more than they are able to go through with, having made so slow a Progress in two Months, that they have done little or no Damage to the Works, and have killed but very few Men since the Siege began; whereas Deserters from them reported their Army was diminished extremely by Sicknes, Desertion, and killed or wounded: The Rains fill their Trenches with Water, and put them to great Difficulties. The Conde de las Torres was ill of an Ague.

Lisbon, May 5, N. S. On the 27th past several Merchant Ships from London enter'd this Port, having been convoyed as far as the Rock of Lisbon by the Prince Frederick and Yarmouth Men of War; who were the same Day seen passing by St. Ubes, to the Southward, with the Transports having on board the Detachment of Guards and Clayton's Regiment, and the Storeships, under their Care; and as the Weather has continued favourable ever since, there can be no doubt of their being long before this arrived at Gibraltar. When they first came off the Rock of Lisbon, the 26th past, the Earl of Portmore wrote a Letter to Brigadier Dormer the British Envoy here, in which his Lordship acquainted him that the Forces with him were all in a very good Condition. On the 1st Instant the Dursley Galley failed from hence for Gibraltar: At the same Time the Portuguese Fleet bound for the Bahia, consisting of 14 Merchant Ships, failed from hence under the Convoy of N. Senhora de Rosario a Man of War of 40 Guns.

St. James's, May 13.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant to the Honourable George Cholmondeley, Esq; commonly called Viscount Malpas, the Office of Gentleman and Master of His Majesty's Robes.

Admiralty-Office, May 4, 1727.

Whereas at the Time of sitting out His Majesty's Fleet, there were Protections granted from and after the 14th Day of February last, not only to ourward-bound Ships, but to Ships and Vessels trading Coastways, Fishing-Vessels, Peter-Boats, and others, several of which are now almost expired; The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby give Notice, That all such Protections as have been so granted by them, as aforesaid, or to any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, notwithstanding the respective Dates thereof, continue in Force for Three Months longer, from this Day, without Renewal; and their Lordships have strictly directed all Captains, Commanders, Lieutenants, and other Officers of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels who now are, or shall be employed in impressing Men, to have a particular Regard thereunto. By Command of their Lordships,

J. Burchett.

Stamp-Office, April 28, 1727.

The Commissioners for managing His Majesty's Stamp Revenues do hereby give Notice, That by a Clause in an Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, &c. it is (inter alia) enacted to the Effect following: That for the Relief of all Masters and Mistresses who have omitted to pay His Majesty's Duties of Six Pence in the Pound for every Sum of Fifty Pounds or under, and of Twelve Pence in the Pound for every Sum amounting to more than Fifty Pounds, given, paid, contracted, or agreed for, or any Part thereof, with Clerks, Apprentices or Servants, within the respective Times limited by the several Acts of Parliament in that Case made, or who have omitted to insert or write in Words as length in the Indentures or other Writings containing the Covenants and Agreements relating to such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, received or in any wise directly or indirectly given, paid, agreed or contracted for, with or in Relation to such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, all such Masters and Mistresses are acquitted and discharged of and from all Penalties incurred by Reason of such Omissions, upon Payment of the said Rates and Duties on or before the 24th Day of June, 1727, and tendering the said Indentures or other Writings to be stamped at the same Time, or at any Time on or before the 29th Day of September, 1727.
