Whitehall, May 26.

N the 4th Instant the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and chose for their Moderator Mr. William Hamilton. His Majesty's Commission to the Right Honourable the Earl of Findlater and Seasield was read, as was likewise His Majesty's most gracious Letter to the Assembly. His Majesty's High Commissioner made a Speech to the Assembly, which was answered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a dutiful Answer to His Majesty's most gracious Letter, which being reported on the 6th, was unanimously approv'd; and having been transmitted by the High Commissioner to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously. It is as follows.

May it please your Majesty,

WE humbly beg Leave to acknowledge, with Hearts sull of Joy and Thankfulness, the Honour of your Majesty's gracious Letter to us, approving the Behaviour of former Assemblies, and expressing your Majesty's Confidence of our Zeal for the Honour and Glory of God, for the Advancement of true Religion and Piety, the preventing the Growth of Popery, and the suppressing of Vice and Irreligion, Duties to which your Majesty's favourable Expectations from us, do greatly oblige and excite us; and the more, that our Meeting is countenanced by your Majesty's Approbation and Royal Authority.

We account it the great Honour and Happiness of this Church, that the Testimonies of our Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Roy. al Person and Government, and our steady Adherence to the Succession in your Royal Family, and to the Protestant Interest in General, have been acceptable to your Majesty; and it fills our Hearts with Joy, and quickens our Zeal for your Majesty's Service, that in your great Goodness you are graciously pleafed to renew the Aflurances of your firm Resolution to maintain this Church in the full Enjoyment of all its just Rights and Privileges, and readily to concur in whatever may tend to the promoting of its Peace and Profperity, upon which your Royal Assurances we entirely depend: And we should be altogether inexculable to be wanting on our Part to do all that in us lies for your Majesty's Service and the Welfare of your People, or should we not conduct ourselves with that Spirit of Concord and Brotherly Love which becomes us; and we judge we are bound to watch strictly against all Divisions amongst ourselves, which may tend to disappoint the good Ends for which we are conveened, by affording your Majesty's Enemies any Handle to disturb the Happiness and Tranquility of your Majesty's auspicious Administration, which is, under God, our great Safety.

Our Experience of the Earl of Findlater and Sassald's Administration and Languistic and Confidence of the Confid

Our Experience of the Earl of Findlater and Seafield's Abilities and Integrity, and of his Concern for the Church and Zeal for your Majesty's Service, renders your Majesty's Choice of him, to represent your Royal Perfon in the Assembly, most obliging and acceptable to us; and the full Confidence we have of his Diligence and Application in the Discharge of his high and important Trust, obliges us to give him the best Assistance and Encouragement upon our Part, by Unanimity and Dispatch in going, through the Assairs proper for our Consideration.

We have received from your Majesty's Committioner your most pious and bountiful Donation for this Year, to be employed in maintaining Itinerant Preachers and Catechifts in Places where Ignorance and Popery pre-vail, which we accept with the most profound Respect and Thankfulness, and shall use our utmost Care in employing it for the pious Ends to which it is deligned, and accompt for it as your Majesty's Royal Warrant directs.

May it pleafe your Majesty, The present Critical Juncture of Affair, which has moved others of your loyal Subjects to Address your Majesty, expressing their Duty and Loyalty upon Occasion of formidable Alliances and Designs framed against your Majesty and the Happiness of your People, under your wife Administration, calls us to embrace with the greatest Chearfulness this Opportunity to testify our utter Abhorrence of all the Deligns and Attempts of your open or fecret Enemies, against your Royal Person and the happy Constitution of your Government, which we account our great Security, under God, for all that is dear to us as Men and Christians. The early humble Address of the Commission of the The early last Assembly to your Majesty, expressing the Duty and Loyalty of this Church, we heartily approve and concur with, being deeply concerned that our gracious God, who has eminently appeared in Behalf of your Majesty, and bledsed your People with your signal Preservation hitherto, may now, when you are attacked with open Hostilities, bless your Counsels and Arms remarkably, and enable your Majesty to carry on a successful War, or to procure a fase and lasting Peace to Europe, for the Relief of our oppressed Protestant Brethren Abroad, and Security of the valuable Rights of your own Subjects; and that He may defeat all Defigns of restless and deluded Abettors of the desperate Cause of a Popish Pretender; who, should they succeed in their wicked Attempts, which God forbid, nothing could remain for your loyal and dutiful Subjects to expect but utter Ruin.

It is therefore with the most ardent Desires, and in the greatest Sincerity of our Hearts, that we pray the most high God long to pre-ferve your Majesty's precious Life, to bless your Majesty, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all their Royal Offspring, with the best of Heaven's Bleffings; and after a long and happy Reign upon Earth, to crown your Majesty with immortal Glory. These are the Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Presence, in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Edinb. May William Hamilton, Moderator. 6, 1727.
