

The humble Address of the Grand Juries for the County of Middlesex.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen of the Grand Juries for the County of Middlesex, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, humbly to condole with your Majesty on the Loss of our late most Gracious Sovereign, and at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne.

The glorious Success of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, obtained under your late Royal Father, hath given us, and all your Subjects, and indeed all Europe, the highest Prospect of a glorious and lasting Peace, which we trust will be effected by your consummate Wisdom.

We desire, in the humblest Manner, to express our grateful Sense of, and unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, that the Preservation of the Constitution in Church and State, as it is now happily established, shall be your first, and always your chief Care.

So that there remains nothing for us to wish, but that your Majesty may be blessed in a happy, long, and peaceful Reign over a dutiful, affectionate, and flourishing People; And that there may never be wanting a Prince of your illustrious House to sway the Scepter of these Kingdoms.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Commonalty, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, has been presented to His Majesty by Benjamin Scutt, Esq; Mayor of the Borough, by George Trenchard, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, and Dennis Bond, Esq; their Recorder, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex, Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

AMidst the great and universal Concern and Surprise, permit us, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Comonalty, and Inhabitants of your Town and County of Poole, to express ours, for the Loss of his late Majesty of Glorious Memory, and our common Father.

The Knowledge and Experience your People have had of your Goodness, and of your Concern for the Welfare of these Nations, raiseth in us a just Value for the Happiness we are to enjoy under the Government of a Prince equal to the Weight of a Crown.

May it long flourish on your Head, and may your Illustrious Line be continued a Blessing to us, the Favourites of Heaven, the Love and Glory of your People, and these your Kingdoms.

Done at the Town-House, this 19th Day of June, 1727.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Masters and Burgesses of the City or Borough of Wells, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Edwards, jun. Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Masters and Burgesses of the City or Borough of Wells.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to offer this early Tribute of Duty and Allegiance, to recognize your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, and to congratulate your happy Accession to the Throne.

The Loss this Nation sustained by the sudden and unexpected Death of our late Gracious Sovereign, of blessed Memory, in the midst of his wise Engagements to promote the Honour, Interest, and Security of his People, had been unspeakable; but your Majesty's most gracious Declaration of Love and Affection to this Kingdom, your most generous Concern to cherish and preserve our establish'd Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and to settle the Tranquility of Europe, are happy Prefages, that the completing these great Designs of your renowned Predecessor, is reserved by Providence to be one of the Glories that shall illustrate the Commencement of your Majesty's auspicious Administration.

After these Royal Assurances, what can your faithful Subjects desire farther, than that God will grant your Majesty a long, prosperous, and peaceable Reign over us, which is the unfeigned Prayer of,

Great Sir,

Your Majesty's most loyal, dutiful, and obedient Subjects.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affix'd, this 20th Day of June, in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, and other Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Wareham, has been presented to His Majesty by Denis Bond, Esq; the Recorder of the said Borough, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex, Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,
IT is impossible for us, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, and other
