

ther Inhabitants of your Ancient Borough of Wareham, to express the Concern that is in our's as well as in the Heart of every Loyal Briton, on the surprizing and melancholly Occasion of your Royal Father's Demise, whose Memory will ever be dear to the real Lovers of Virtue and Liberty.

The early and repeated Instances given to your People of your Regard for their Happiness, is to them an Earnest of the great and many Advantages which they are to expect from your Government.

May you long Reign in the Love and Affections of your Subjects (the least Reward due to your Merit) and may you and your illustrious Family in this and future Ages, continue to be the Guardians of our Religion and Civil Rights.

The following humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Ludgerihall, has been presented to His Majesty by Anthony Cornish, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Ludgerihall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE universal Joy express'd by your People on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, is a sensible Blessing to us your most dutiful Subjects.

The Cheerfulness and Satisfaction that appears in all Places, can only be founded on the Experience we have had of your most excellent Qualities.

We are perswaded that your Majesty's Care and Concern for the Trade of this Nation, will greatly encourage the Woollen Manufacture, on which our Prosperity depends.

Permit us, also, Great Sir, to express our Gratitude for the Establishment of the Hanover Succession by the glorious and immortal King William; to mention likewise on this Occasion the high Obligations we have to his late Majesty your most illustrious Father, of Blessed Memory, who so well guarded these Realms for you.

Our Laws, Religion and Liberties will ever be safe under your Protection; and your princely Resolution will defend us from the Insults of foreign Enemies.

May the Piety of her Majesty your Royal Consort, blest'd with a numerous Issue, continue the Influence of Divine Providence on your sacred Person and your Kingdoms, is the constant Prayer of,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, and most loyal Subjects.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of Bideford, in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by Lewis Stucley, Esq; their Recorder, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously, and the Recorder had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of Bideford, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of Bideford, humbly presume to condole, with your Imperial Majesty, on the Death of your Majesty's Royal Father, our late most Gracious King.

Our Loss and Affliction would be insupportable, did not your Majesty succeed to your most illustrious Father, and did not his Virtue and Goodness still continue to us in your Royal Self.

When your Majesty was Regent under your Royal Father, so good and glorious was your Government, that it gave a delightful Prospect of all Happiness and Prosperity in your Future Reign.

Your Majesty's hearty Love and Affection for Great Britain, your Study and Knowledge of its Constitution, your Care of its Revenue, your Personal Examination of Publick Affairs, and your strict Regard for the Rights and Liberties of all your Subjects, must render your Majesty ever dear and valuable to them, and for ever engage them, by the strictest Ties of Interest and Gratitude, to all Loyalty and Obedience to the best of Kings.

May your Majesty enjoy a very long and very prosperous Reign; and when Heaven shall advance you to greater Glory, that the Blessings of your happy Reign may be perpetuated to Great Britain, by a constant Succession of the Crown in your Royal Family, is our hearty and united Prayer.

The following humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Montague Earl of Abingdon, their High Steward; Matthew Skinner Sergeant at Law, their Recorder; and Thomas Rowney, Jun. and Francis Knollys, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex, Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford.
